NEW ECONOMY PLANS BRING QUICK SUPPORT

Equal Portions of Amount Involved to Be Raised in Paris and Wall Street.

New York, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A private banking credit, believed to be the largest in financial history, is being marshalled in New York and Paris, Wall Street learned today, as an invincible bulwark for the British pound sterling.

Both New York and Paris bankers, it was said in highest Wall street banking circles, propose to make the credit so large there can be no further question as to the stability of the pound, which is so widely used as the common medium of international exchange.

While bankers were not prepared as yet to reveal the exact size of the loan, it is believed it will be between $300,000,000 and $500,000,000, provided in equal portions by New York and Paris bankers. It is known each portion is expected to be larger than the $100,000,000 credit granted to the British government in 1925 by a syndicate headed by J. P. Morgan & Co.

Announcement Possible Today.

It was informally stated at the Morgan offices today that discussions are under way both here and in Paris with reference to the credit, and decided progress has been made within the past 24 hours. he arrangements are such that if no unforeseen developments occur some official announcement may be made tomorrow.

It was acknowledged in well-informed quarters that the readiness of the American and French bankers to extend the credit in large measure depended upon assurances from the British government that the program of governmental economies, to which the new cabinet is committed, be adopted.

It was explained, however, that the bankers were concerned merely with fundamental principles of sound finance and were not concerned with specific measures of economy which the British cabinet may see fit to adopt. Recent charges in British Labor circles that American bankers have brought pressure to bear for a reduction of the dole have been emphatically denied.

The new credit is to be to the British government, unlike the recent credit of $250,000,000 extended by the Federal Reserve and the Bank of France, which was to the Bank of England. The new credit is to run for one year.

Bond Issue May Follow.

A specific date of termination of the Federal Reserve credit has not been officially announced, but it has been understood it was for three months.

Information was unavailable as to whether the new private banking credit will be used to supplant the Federal Reserve-Bank of France credit, although it was acknowledged the British government might make some such arrangement with the Bank of England.

Wall street bankers believed the private credit may be succeeded by an issue of long-term British government bonds in New York and other markets, if the bond markets are favorable to such an operation when the one-year loan matures.

It was explained the American credit will be in much the same form as the $100,000,000 credit of 1925, save that it will be for one year, whereas that credit was for two. The American syndicate is expected to include many of the participants in the 1925 operation, which was underwritten by leading financial institutions throughout the country.

No Public Offering Here.

It was recalled that none of the $100,000,000 credit of 1925 was drawn upon, as its mere existence was sufficient.

Rooming House Drinks Cited in Policy Deaths

Detroit, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A picture of a rooming house where men on whose lives the landlady held insurance policies were "sodden with drink" most of the time was given today by a physician and an insurance agent to officers investigating the tenth death in eight years in the home of Mrs. Rose Veras, 48-year-old Hungarian immigrant.

Mrs. Veras meanwhile was held on a technical charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Steve Mak, who fell from an attic window at the home Monday. Her son, William, 18, was detained for investigation.

"Ukulele Ike," Given Divorce, Granted Stay

Los Angeles, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A ten-day stay of execution, indicating an appeal, was obtained today by attorneys for Cliff (Ukulele Ike) Edwards, screen and stage entertainer, after Superior Judge Dailey Stafford signed the findings in the bitterly contested divorce case of Edwards and Irene Edwards, former show girl.

Edwards was given the divorce and the court sustained an alleged agreement whereby she received property said to be worth $100,000 and one-third of Edwards' weekly income, estimated at $500.

WINCHESTER TO GIVE BLOSSOM FETE HERE

Event Is Planned as Feature of District Bicentennial Celebration.

The Winchester apple blossom festival, which annually draws thousands of Washingtonians to the Shenandoah country, next May will stage its most picturesque features within the boundaries of the Capital itself.

The entire festival will be brought to Washington immediately after its presentation in Winchester, Nelson F. Richards, director general of the festival committee, announced yesterday.

The spectacle will be presented here as part of the George Washington bicentennial observance, Mr. Richards stated, following consultation with Arnold Kruckman, executive director of the District of Columbia Commission for the George Washington bicentennial.

The plan is to bring the 6-mile parade, an annual feature of the fete, over the historic George Washington highway, a road often traversed by Washington during his lifetime. The first two days of the festival will be staged as heretofore, in Winchester, Mr. Richards said, and the third in Washington.

Winchester will observe its own 200th birthday anniversary next year. Never before has the festival been staged outside of Winchester.

A pageant on the Capital grounds, culminating in the parade, in which some 10,000 costumed school children

5 ORGANIZATIONS JOIN TO DEPOSE 'BETRAYER'

Every Effort Will Be Made to Obtain a Majority in Parliament.

London (Friday), Aug. 28 (A.P.). The London Daily Herald, Labor party organ, said this morning it was "able to announce" that neither Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald nor Philip Snowden, chancellor of the exchequer, would seek reelection for Parliament at the next general election.

London, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—The British Labor party chose a new leader tonight and began a nation-wide campaign to overthrow Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald, the man who for years was their idol.

Charging that "private banking interests" were responsible for Britain's financial crisis and that MacDonald had betrayed them to these interests, the Laborites served notice that they would seek a Socialist majority in Parliament under the leadership of Arthur Henderson, recent foreign secretary.

"I would not be surprised if the Seaham party executive would ask Mr. MacDonald to resign in favor of an official Labor candidate," said Thomas Nelson, chairman of the Seaham division of the Labor party, when he issued a call for the meeting on Saturday to consider future action. Seaham is MacDonald's constituency.

Five Organizations Join Attack.

The Trades Union Congress general council, the National Executive Committee of the Labor party, the Conservative Party of the Parliamentary Labor party, the Miners' Federation and the Social Democratic Federation joined in the attack on MacDonald and on the new government's program for financial retrenchment and reduction of the dole.

The Laborites and Trades Union leaders passed a resolution urging the Labor movement throughout Britain to strengthen its organization and collect funds to fight the forthcoming general elections, which will be held after the present emergency cabinet resigns.

"A government with persons acting without the authority of the people," was the description given the national cabinet, for which the Labor party denied all responsibility. It said the cabinet was planning an attack on the standard of living in Britain and that it was seeking to enforce its policy "because financial interests decided this country was setting a bad example for other

Receivership Is Asked For 101 Ranch Property

Ponca City, Okla., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A receivership was asked today for the 101 Ranch here, whose broad acres spawned the 101 Ranch Circus, which returned to home quarters this week after a financially unsatisfactory Eastern tour.

The petition for the action, filed in district court, was brought by the Exchange Trust Co., of Tulsa, and George W. Miller, executors of the estate of the late George L. Miller. An operating receiver and an injunction barring interference with his action by the 101 Ranch trust is requested.

G. O. P. BACKED BISHOP CANNON, WAGNER AVERS

LATE JAMES W. GOOD NAMED IN ACTION

He Proposed Conversation With Slemp, Committee Learns at Hearing.

By EDWARD T. FOLLIARD.

Revelations before the Nye Campaign Funds Committee of the Senate yesterday led Senator Robert F. Wagner (Democrat), of New York, to charge that the Republican national committee backed and financed the anti-Smith crusade which Bishop James Cannon, jr., conducted among Southern Democrats in the presidential campaign of 1928.

Senator Wagner, a close friend of Alfred E. Smith, the Democratic nominee of 1928, made the charge while the campaign funds committee was questioning Edwin C. Jameson, New York broker, who gave Bishop Cannon $65,300 to fan the "revolt" against Gov. Smith and thus smash the "solid South."

Bishop Cannon's campaign organization, the Anti-Smith Democrats, accounted for only $17,000 of the $65,300 in its report to the House of Representatives. The Nye committee, running down a charge of Representative George Holden Tinkham (Republican), of Massachusetts, that the corrupt practices act was violated, is now trying to determine what happened to the money Bishop Cannon failed to account for in the report to the House.

Bank Withdrawal Recounted.

At yesterday's hearing, testimony was offered to show that Bishop Cannon drew $17,450 from a "political fund" in a bank here, and transferred it to his personal account in a bank in Richmond, Va.

Senator Wagner observed yesterday that the Republican party had "persistently denied" that it was behind the anti-Smith movement led by Bishop Cannon and financed largely by Mr. Jameson.

His charge that the Republican national organization was behind the movement came after these facts had been developed in yesterday's hearing:

The late James W. Good, the Western representative of the Republican national committee, suggested to Mr. Jameson that he talk to C. Bascom Slemp, Republican national committeeman for Virginia, about the creation of an "independent organization" in the 1928 campaign. Mr. Slemp introduced Bishop Cannon to Mr. Jameson, and thus paved the way for the contributions that helped the bishop put Virginia in the Hoover column in the presidential election.

Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican national committee in the 1928 campaign, wrote Mr. Jameson a letter praising him for his "fine work."

Mr. Jameson insisted that none of

Man Found Beaten in Auto Accuses Trio Held as Hitch-Hikers.

Atlanta, Ga. Aug. 27 (U.P.).—A head-on collision between an automobile and street car here disclosed an alleged kidnaping in which the victim allegedly was badly beaten while giving hitch-hikers a ride, police announced today. Two men and a woman were held without bond following discovery of A. L. Crowley, Griffin, Ga., insurance man, lying unconscious and severely beaten on the floor of the wrecked automobile.

The trio gave names as Miss A. A. Cowart, E. L. Hall and Raymond Cheek, all of Griffin. When revived at a hospital Crowley told police he had picked up three persons at their request on a Griffin street, and for their offered $2 undertook to drive them to Experiment, about a mile distant.

Trades Council Accepts Voluntary Cut in Wages

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—For the first time in a decade members of the Baltimore Building Trades Council have accepted a voluntary cut in wages, it became known today.

A reduction of approximately 10 per cent in the hourly rate has been made by the carpenters, who reduced their own pay from $1.10 to $1.00 an hour. The steamfitters union cut its rate from $1.50 to $1.25. The last cut in wages made by the building trades was in 1921. The cut was made to meet competition of non-union workers.

Boston Racketeer Shot; Dies Going to Hospital

Boston, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—Jake Rodman, said by police to have been engaged in bootlegging and other "rackets," was shot down from a closed automobile in the Roxbury section late tonight. He died while being removed to a hospital.

2,000,000 LOSE JOBS THIS FALL, GREEN ASSERTS

Labor Leader Foresees Unemployed Total of 7,000,000.

AUGUST GAINS HELD AS ONLY SEASONAL

(Associated Press.)

An estimate that the unemployment total will reach 7,000,000 this winter came yesterday from President William Green, of the American Federation of Labor, as Walter S. Gifford, national relief director, went ahead with plans to prevent distress.

Green said August had seen a slight gain in employment but that this was only a seasonal improvement which would "not lessen our winter problem." He estimated there were 5,100,000 jobless on August 1.

"Even allowing for the temporary fall gain in employment" he said, "we will have some 2,000,000 more to provide for in addition to the 5,000,000 now out of work.

Job Division Urged.

"There is only one way to lessen this number of unemployed; for industry to keep men at work by shortening work hours and dividing available jobs among all. This, with a guarantee of work to the minimum force in each plant, would be an immense bulwark against business depression this winter."

Green said 18.4 per cent of the federation's membership were out of work in August as compared with 18.8 in July; 18.2 in June and 17.1 in May.

He estimated that about 120,000 found work in August as industrial employment improved, but about 40,000 farm workers were laid off at the end of the July harvesting season, making a total gain of approximately 80,000 jobs.

August Gain Seasonal.

"This very slight gain in employment," he said, "can not be interpreted as a change for the better, for it is only seasonal. We may be grateful that a few hundred thousand of the five millions out of work will find temporary jobs in industry in the next two months. But this will not lessen our winter problem.

"By November we will have some 500,000 farm laborers out of work and this number will double before the winter is over. If industry lays men off at the usual rate, we may expect some 1,200,000 to lose their jobs between October and January."

The federation leader said the biggest gain in employment during August came in the textile industries, where nearly 30 per cent of the unemployed went back to work. Gains were noted also in the manufacturing and shipping industries, he said.

Printers, Builders Losing.

Unemployment was still on the increase in some industries, however, he pointed out, including printing.

72 Passengers Land From DO-X

New York, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—The DO-X, mightiest of airplanes, came to journey's end today in New York Harbor after a ten-month flight from Europe, during which she was beset by fire, winds and waves.

Seventy-two persons disembarked in the bay today and reported the flight from Norfolk, Va., had been smooth and comfortable.

To an American went the honor of piloting the giant craft up the Hudson River as far as the new George Washington Memorial Bridge and then bringing her back to her berth off pier A in the harbor. Lieut. C. H. Schildhauer, formerly of the Navy Air Corps, heard the din of sirens from harbor shipping as he coasted the DO-X low across the bay. Capt. Fritz Hammer was in command and Maurice Dornier represented the German-American owners.

Turk Throne Claimant Held Native American

Blackmail Fear Blamed In Importer's Vanishing

Hollywood, Calif., Aug. 27 (U.P.).—Fear of blackmailers caused Hihashi Fujimura, millionaire New York Japanese, to disappear into some hiding place, according to a theory advanced today by Sessue Hayakawa, Japanese screen star.

Hayakawa was a personal friend of the missing silk importer and attended a number of the elaborate functions which gave Fujimura a name as one of Broadway's heaviest spenders.

Washington Ministers Urge Thorough Investigation Into Charges Against Members of District Department.

Washington clergymen yesterday went on record as opposed to any brutality by police and gave their sanction to investigation which will ferret out the offenders. The statements are printed herewith.

The Rev. John C. Palmer, pastor of Washington Heights Presbyterian Church: "Knowing many policemen on our force, I am surprised that such a state of affairs has developed. The policemen that I know have always appeared to be fine, straight men and I am surprised to learn there are any of the type brought to light in the present investigation. The 'roughnecks' should most certainly be bruited out."

The Rev. Francis X. Cavanaugh, assistant pastor of St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church: "I consider that the police have acted as judge and jury. A man is considered innocent until he is proven guilty, and his guilt should be established by due process of law instead of by such brutal methods."

The Rev. W. W. McIntire, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal

1 LOST AND 12 SAVED IN PLANE SEA CRASH

Aged Man Dies Aiding Woman as Pan-American Craft Sinks Off Gloucester.

Gloucester, Mass., Aug. 27 (U.P.).—One life was lost and the pilot's courage saved twelve others when an amphibian transport of the Pan-American Airways, bound from Halifax, N. S., to Boston, sank after a forced landing in fog and heavy seas, 8 miles off here this afternoon.

Edward Banwell, 70, who boarded the plane at Halifax, was trapped in it and drowned. He probably would have been saved had he not tarried to assist a woman passenger to safety.

Nine passengers, including three women and the crew of three, were picked up by a fishing boat after clinging for 90 minutes to a collapsible rubber raft. Seven of the passengers, suffering from minor injuries and immersion, were taken to Addison Gilbert Hospital. They were Irvin Bloom, 42, New York City; Bernard N. Fineson, 26, New York City; his wife, Mildred, 25; Gilbert Hodge, 31, Baltimore, Md.; Lois Draper, 46, and Mabel F. Ryan, 48, Waltham. All were to be held overnight.

Irwin Dauphinee, 39, of Boston, was released after treatment at the hospital. The other passengers, H. Wade Randall and W. H. Noonan, were uninjured.

The hull of the transport, a twin-motored Sikorsky, put into service only last month, was damaged as Pilot William L. Elmore, of Boston, lost in the thick fog, brought it to a landing on the bumpy swell.

Mr. Elmore, Radio Operator Alfred W. Esten, Steward John Navarro and men passengers broke windows, and twelve of the thirteen occupants soon were hanging to the outside of the plane.

It was necessary to get out the collapsible rubber raft quickly, as the ship was rocking dangerously and seemd likely to founder at any moment. But the raft was in the damaged hull, wholly submerged.

Esten dived several times to no avail. Then Elmore dived, reached the trap door inside which the raft was stored and brought it to the surface. The raft was inflated quickly and the survivors pushed away from the amphibian. Ten minutes after the forced landing the airplane sank.

SOLDIERS CONVICTED OF BEATING PATIENT

Month in Guardhouse Given Walter Reed Attaches by Court-Martial.

Two soldiers, attaches of Walter Reed Hospital, were convicted yesterday at a court-martial of charges that they beat a patient in the mental ward, where they were on duty. The men are Private Martin Estis and Private Joseph PeSavage.

Capt. John W. Cleave, before whom the soldiers were tried, sentenced each to one month's confinement in the guardhouse. Estis also was fined two-thirds of his monthly pay. The alleged beating occurred last Saturday.

Three witnesses, who saw Estis and PeSavage beat the patient, whose name was not divulged, testified against the soldiers. Both pleaded not guilty.

The patient presented his case at yesterday's hearing, but most of the damaging testimony was given by the eye-witnesses. The beaten soldier was only slightly injured.

Circumstances of the attack itself were not disclosed officially. A corporal attached to the hospital, however, told The Post that Estis and PeSavage were obliged to use violence to defend themselves against the psychopathic patient.

The patient was struck only with the hands and no rubber hose, stick or any other object with which harm might be inflicted was used, it was brought out at the hearing.

Officials at the hospital said that it was clearly proved that the two attendants were guilty of having used unnecessary violence and only the fact that the patient was not seriously hurt prevented a more severe sentence being imposed.

Walter Reed officials were unable to state definitely whether Private Joseph PeSavage was the same Joseph PeSavage who recently appeared as a witness against Detectives R. F. McCarthy and R. L. Jones, of the Tenth Precinct, who were cleared by the Trial Board of charges of assault and verbal abuse of Miss Elsie Williams, then of 1122 Spring road northwest.

President Urges Severe Punishment for Offenders.

Breach With Stoll Denied by Pratt; Harker Quizzed Over Beating.

At the request of Department of Justice agents a Washington Post reporter yesterday supplied undercover investigators into third-degree charges against the Metropolitan Police with information he possessed in connection with the alleged beating of James Henry Harker, 22 years old, at the hands of First Precinct police last Saturday.

The agents also were furnished, at their request, with prints of the photograph carried exclusively in Sunday's Post, showing Harker, stripped to the waist, his body showing unmistakable signs of a beating. The photograph was taken at the office of a physician immediately after Harker was released from the First Precinct, in the custody of his attorney.

Will Interview Photographer.

The Justice agents arranged to interview The Post staff photographer who took the picture as soon as he returns from the Marine Corps Reserves encampment. They asked The Post meanwhile to preserve the negative of the photograph.

Harker charges he was beaten with a rubber hose, punched in the eye, and kicked on the shins and body as police forced him to confess that he entered a lunchroom and robbed it of $200.

The reporter, who found Harker at the physician's office almost immediately after he was taken there from the police station, was asked to describe Harker's wounds and to tell what took place at the doctor's office.

Provided Basis for Probe.

The picture and the article written after a talk with Harker in the physician's office, and The Post's expose of Metropolitan police methods, were the basis on which the Department of Justice was called into the investigation, following a conference between District officials and President Hoover.

That President Hoover is wholeheartedly behind the investigation was shown yesterday in a letter to Solicitor General Thacher, who is head of the Department of Justice in the absence of Attorney General Mitchell.

The President advised the department of his desire to protect Washington's "able and devoted" police force by determining if there are "unworthy men in their midst."

"I am glad to approve, in the special circumstances of the Federal Government's relations to the District of Columbia, that the Department of Justice should accede to the request of the District Commissioners for aid in investigation of recent charges against certain members of the Washington police force," the President's letter read.

"However, we must not overlook the fact that Washington has an able and devoted police force. The vast majority of its honest men should be protected by determining if there are unworthy men in their midst. It is always possible that occasional individuals may have overstepped the law and humanity in treatment of criminals and those charged with crime and, if so, they should be severely punished.

Warns Against Prejudice.

"But even in such charges the police should not be prejudged on the allegations of criminals themselves, although accused of crime. There is too much tendency on the part of some people to forget the devoted work of the police, to forget the safety of society and victims of criminals out of sympathy with criminals themselves."

With a number of picked men on the case, the Department of Justice investigators covered wide territory in their work yesterday, it is understood.

Harker himself was interviewed by agents Wednesday afternoon, almost immediately after the order was issued by Mr. Thacher which set Department of Justice investigators at work on the case. Harker still shows the effects of the alleged beating, and it is understood the agents them-

Wet Fishing Poles of Pair at Chesapeake Beach Act as Conductors; 18 Others, Huddled Nearby, Shocked by Bolt, But Uninjured.

A bolt of lightning last night instantly killed William Neumeyer, 45 years old, of 615 Third street northwest, and Charles Ainsworth, of Elmhurst, Del., as they were fishing off the Seaside Pier at Chesapeake Beach, Md. The bolt landed in the midst of a group of vacationists who had sought shelter on the pier from a violent storm, slightly shocking eighteen bystanders, none of whom required medical attention.

Neumeyer and Ainsworth were close to each other as the bolt gashed the sky. It seemed to strike their wooden fishing poles, which were wet from the rain. Horrified spectators, huddled in the shelter of the pier, saw the bolt descend and witnessed the electrocution of the men.

Neumeyer's clothes were set afire by the charge. Spectators extinguished his flaming clothes. Medical aid was summoned, but the men were beyond aid. They were pronounced dead by Dr. Hugh W. Ward.

The bodies were taken to the funeral home of William H. Hutchins, at Mount Harmony, Md., which had been hit by a lightning bolt a few minutes before. No one was injured by this charge, however. Only property damage was done.

That more persons escaped death by the charge which struck the pier seemed miraculous. A short distance away, scores were huddled in the shelter of a soft drink and food stand, to escape the heavy rain which pelted down for an hour.

Neumeyer, who was a blacksmith by trade, had been ill and went to the shore resort early in the summer in an attempt to regain his health. His brother-in-law, Albert W. Perry, went there after news reached him of Neumeyer's death.

Mr. Neumeyer is survived by his mother and father, a brother, Anton, and a sister, Mrs. Helen Perry, all of Washington.

Carole Lombard Forced Out of Film by Illness

Hollywood, Calif., Aug. 27 (A.P.). Physicians stated tonight that Carole Lombard, motion picture actress and recent bride of William Powell, actor, will be confined to her home for several weeks as the result of a severe attack of pleurisy.

The studio where she is under contract announced a substitute would be employed in the picture on which Miss Lombard was to have started work yesterday.

Georgetown Girls Capture Post's Playground Medals

A record-breaking crowd of 2,000 girls vied for the municipal playground city track championship and The Washington Post cup and medals yesterday in the Central Stadium. Georgetown Playground won the coveted Post trophy after a hard struggle against the other 62 teams that competed.

Rosedale Playground, winner of the title for two straight years, was far down the list of 28 point scorers. The former champions totaled but 4 points to tie for fifteenth place with Chevy Chase and Corcoran. Tenley, never before a figure in the meet, took second place with 13.

Anna Liegus, of Georgetown, was the only lassie to win more than one first place, and as a consequence she is sporting two gold Post medals today. Anna was first in the quoit throw and 60-yard dash in the 115-pound class. The quoit throw is similar to throwing the discus, although a rubber quoit is substituted for the iron discus.

The only record to fall was in the 100-pound class basket ball throw for distance. Sarah Curtain tossed the leather 72 feet 3 inches, beating the mark set by Mildred Hook, of Rosedale, last year by 2 inches. Miss Curtain represented the Benning Playground.

Although it was not a record, the jump of 4 feet 6 inches made by Zellah Blader, of Virginia avenue, in the 85-pound class running high jump is considered exceptional. Incidentally, Zellah jumped 5 inches higher than the winning mark in the 100-pound class high jump.

Rufina King, of Rosedale, who has more medals than a German field marshal, competed in the unlimited class dash and won over 40 contestants with comparative ease. The unlimited events were not figured in the point total. Margaret Roudabush, also of Rosedale, took the unlimited throw for distance event.

Miss Maude N. Parker, director of girls' activities, who conducted the meet, stated that in the 70-pound class alone there were more than 600 entries. Miss Parker said that in all the reports that she has had from other cities she does not find one that approaches the 2,000 total of yesterday's meet for girls.

FOUR CONVICTS KILL 2 MEN AND SELVES

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Six men were dead tonight as the result of an attempt by four long-term convicts to escape from the Michigan Branch Prison here today.

The sixth, Frank Oligschlager, a trusty, died shortly before midnight.

The four prisoners, frustrated in an attempt to escape from the Marquette Branch Prison early this morning, shot and killed the acting prison physician, wounded a guard and two trusties and then ended their own lives when they were cornered.

Warden James P. Corgan prevented a general prison riot, ordering all the convicts to their cells after three of the four who planned the escape barricaded themselves in the industrial building shortly after 8 a. m., carrying two guards as hostages, and demanded they be allowed to go free.

The physician, slain at the outset of the escape attempt, was Dr. A. W. Hornbogen, consulting surgeon and acting prison doctor in the absence of Dr. L. L. Youngquist.

The four prisoners who shot themselves were Andro (Tomy) Germano, Toledo, Ohio, sentenced to 35 to 50 years for wounding a Birmingham, Mich., patrolman; Leo Duver, Detroit, serving a life term for robbery armed; Frank Hohfer, Detroit, serving 30 to 50 years for kidnaping, and Charles Roseberg, Detroit, serving 20 to 40 years for robbery armed.

Trusty's Wounds Fatal.

A deputy assistant warden, Joe Cowling, received a flesh wound; a trusty, Leo Bolger, was wounded in the shoulder by a stray shot, and Oligschlager, a trusty, who acted as head nurse in the prison hospital, wounded in the abdomen, died tonight.

Gernano, according to guards, assumed the leadership. He appeared in the hospital shortly after 8 a. m., complaining of pains in the abdomen. As Dr. Hornbogen began to examine him, he drew a gun and shot the doctor through the heart. Duver and Roseburg then appeared. Oligschlager attempted to seize Gernano's gun and was shot in the abdomen.

The convicts ran into the rotunda, fired two shots at Warden Corgan and Deputy Warden William Newcombe, and forced the keeper to hand over the keys to the building. Both the warden and his deputy ran for guns and sounded the alarm. As the alarm sounded, the three prisoners fired at Cowling and Clarence Vaughan, the warden's secretary. Cowling was struck in the arm. Vaughan was untouched.

Guards Held as Hostages.

At the point of guns the three forced Charles Arena and Charles Alvord, guards, to accompany them into the industrial building, where they barricaded themselves and dictated a note to Arena which read:

"The men have officers and inmates in formitory under guns and also a bottle of explosives. They are ready to shoot minute door opens. They want the big gate opened and have auto come inside and take them out. Want warden to come in and drive them out with his car.

"CHARLES ARENZ.

"Have plenty of explosives."

The note was thrown out a window for the warden.

Warden Coggan's answer was a barrage of bullets and tear gas bombs.

The guards held as hostages said that as the third tear gas shell exploded, one of the trio called out: "I guess she's all up, boys."

Immediately, they said, they heard the three discussing suicide.

Roseberg, they said, shot himself first. Then Germano leaned over and fired a shot through Roseburg's head, apparently to make sure of death. Germano then shot himself. Duver fired another shot through Germano's head, then turned the gun on himself. When Arenz and the other guards were able to open the doors, the besieging officer found the three dead on the floor.

will participate, is planned. At night another parade will be held through the streets of Washington, illumined by flaring torchlights. It is expected the girl selected as Queen Shenandoah will be presented to the President.

The queen will ride in the forefront of the procession as it enters Washington. With her will be her prince and a court of princesses. More than a score of floats will follow, and marchers will include many uniformed and costumed groups from the States bordering on the Shenandoah and the Cumberland Valleys. The President will review the procession as it passes the White House, if present plans are followed.

To mark both the Washington and the Winchester bicentennials, special programs are planned for both places. Mrs. Philip Sidney Smith, chairman of the District Bicentennial Commission's festival committee, is cooperating in arranging details.

As completion of arrangements depends on the flowering of the famous apple blossoms of the Shenandoah country, the precise date of the festival has not been fixed. Usually it is held about the first of May. The event dates from 1924.

MAN SUES 2 POLICE ON BEATING CHARGE

Cirola and Landrum Named Defendants in Action Seeking $10,000.

Alleging that his skull was fractured when policemen of the Ninth Precinct beat him on the head with blackjacks, Henry Johnson, of 1734 Montello avenue northeast, yesterday filed suit for $10,000 damages from Policemen John J. Cirola, of 331 Fourteenth street northeast, and Viviah H. Landrum, of 2000 M street northeast.

The suit is the first to develop out of the present wave of public resentment at alleged "third degree" tactics of policemen.

Through Attorneys Thurman L. Dodson and George G. Jefferson, Johnson set forth in his suit that the two officers came to his home at 3 o'clock in the morning on August 5. He said that they forced him to accompany them, although they had no warrant and did not tell him why he was being taken away.

After he was taken to the Ninth Precinct Station House he was booked for mental observation, the suit declared, and was then taken to Gallinger Hospital. Despite the fact that no charge was placed against him, he was held, he charged, until 7 o'clock on the evening of Friday, August 7, when he was released.

In the meantime, he asserted, he was struck on the head and face and was considerably bruised. Later on, the suit alleges, he was beaten with blackjacks and his skull fractured. He has already spent $100 in medical bills for the skull injury, he tells the court.

Johnson is now being treated at Walter Reed Hospital, for his services in the World War entitled him to Government hospitalization. He is employed by the Pullman Co. and is 34 years old.

According to Attorney Dodson, Johnson was told by officers that he had been taken to Casualty Hospital en route to the station house. Johnson at that time was unconscious, his attorney said, and had no knowledge of having ever been in the hospital. It was further declared that Johnson, through his attorneys, was refused a warrant upon application in Police Court.

10% Saving Pledged By Arkansas Officials

CAPITAL MINISTERS ATTACK BRUTALITY

Church South: "The present investigation should have been conducted long ago. It is a splendid move and should be pushed to the last possible place. The guilty should be severely punished. My own observations in my rounds of the city have led me to believe that many policemen are under the delusion that they are bossing the town. It is apparent that there are a good many men on the force who do not belong there."

Dr. J. T. Loeb, rabbi of Ohev Sholom Synagogue: "Although our police as a class should not be held responsible for the misdoings of a few individuals the guilty parties should be taken to account and dealt with as the law requires. If only half the statements of those who say they have suffered at the hands of certain policemen is true the perpetrators of the brutal treatment should be punished to the full extent. It seems that in some cases too great a liberty is taken by policemen toward citizens."

The Rev. Meade Bolton MacBryde, pastor of the Grace Episcopal Church: "Any clergyman should deplore the employment of such methods as a means for the attainment of justice."

"My thoughts on the subject are admirably expressed by President Hoover in his letter yesterday," the Rev. A. S. Mowbray, pastor of the Gorsuch Methodist Episcopal Church, commented. "I really think we have a fine body of policemen, and that we should not get hysterical over statements of criminals until the policemen are proven guilty, and the public should withhold judgment until that time."

The Rev. E. O. Clark, pastor of the Chevy Chase Baptist Church: "Above every one, the police as enforcers of the law should obey the law. The methods of some policemen as brought to light by statements of men who have been under arrest are not justified at all. But we shouldn't condemn all our policemen for the faults of a few. The charges should be thoroughly investigated and the few who have been overstepping the line should be brought to task."

POST GIVES INVESTIGATORS FACTS IN BRUTALITY CASE

Four persons who were with Harker at the time of his actual arrest by First Precinct policemen, including his employer, were interviewed, and are understood to have told the Department of Justice men that Harker bore no injuries, that his eye was not swollen, and that his legs did not bear scars when the police arrived.

There are other witnesses, who can testify, it is understood, that he bore these injuries when he was released from the First Precinct Station at 8:25 o'clock Saturday night.

Many of the prisoners at Occoquan have been beaten to force confessions, according to an anonymous letter, signed "A Guard at Occoquan Workhouse," received by The Post last night.

Urges Investigation.

"If you will have your staff investigate, you will find that a great many of the prisoners that come here from the District have been beaten with a hose to obtain a confession. I don't dare give you my name—just investigate!" the letter reads.

This information will be given the Department of Justice.

In the meantime, Inspector Louis Stoll, of the First Inspection District, continued his investigation of third degree methods for the Police Department, which is being conducted separately from the Department of Justice inquiry.

He also took statements yesterday from persons who were with Harker at 701 North Capitol street at the time of his arrest.

The inspector asked for an opportunity to take a statement from Harker, and others from the young man's mother, Mrs. Nellie Harker, and his sister, Miss Adelaide Harker.

On advice of S. McComas Hawken, Harker's attorney, these statements were refused. Mr. Hawken took the position that since the Department of Justice was handling the main investigation in the case, it would not be advisable to allow any police department official to interview his client or Harker's relatives. Mr. Hawken declared that these statements should have been taken immediately after the third degree charges were made.

The proposed grand jury inquiry into Harker's charges, which had been set tentatively by Acting United States Attorney William Collins for September 1, was postponed yesterday after a conference between Mr. Collins and John M. Keith, of the Department of Justice, who is in charge of department operatives working on the case.

Mr. Collins said Keith was certain he would be unable to gather evidence for presentation to the grand jury by Tuesday. In the meantime the United States attorney's office was marking time, Mr. Collins declared.

United States Attorney Leo A. Rover is motoring back to Washington from the North and is expected to arrive tomorrow.

Crosby on Way Back.

Another vacation is understood to have been cut short by the sensational developments in the third degree investigation, as Gen. Herbert B. Crosby, District Commissioner in charge of police, is on his way back to Washington from the West Coast, and is expected back in his office Monday.

Dr. Luther Reichelderfer, who took steps to bring about an outside investigation in the absence of Gen. Crosby, yesterday stoutly denied printed reports that there had been any rifts between himself, Corporation Counsel W. W. Bride and Maj. Pratt, superintendent of police.

Dr. Reichelderfer also spiked reports that he was dissatisfied with the investigation, as conducted by Inspector Stoll. The Comissioner declared that Inspector Stoll's report on Wednesday was a partial report and as such was highly satisfactory.

Dissatisfaction Denied.

In regard to the Stoll matter, Maj. Pratt was asked:

"Is there any truth to printed reports that high officials have been dissatisfied with the investigation conducted by Inspector Stoll?"

"As far as I can see there has been no word of truth printed about this matter from the very first," the police head snapped. In a milder vein he went on to praise the inspector as a capable, honest and efficient officer.

The following statement was issued by Dr. Reichelderfer and Mr. Bride in reference to the rumors that they were at odds with Maj. Pratt:

"The Commissioners, the corporation counsel and the major and superintendent of police are working in absolute harmony and with the same purpose, namely, to sift to the bottom any charges relating to the alleged use of the third degree.

"They are agreed also that they desire all persons who have any facts in their possession, whether they be members of the Police Department or otherwise, to communicate them fully to the Department of Justice, and they give unqualified assurances that such persons will be protected against reprisals of any character.

Boy, 17, Avers Police Beat Him Three Times

New evidence of third degree methods allegedly used by police was obtained last night from James Keith, 17-year-old Kengar, Md., colored youth. He charged he was severely beaten three times, while a prisoner at the Thirteenth Precinct.

The youth, vouched for by a Bureau of Engraving and Printing official, who employes him on odd jobs about his residence, made affidavit he was beaten on the head with a blackjack, beaten about the face, legs and stomach with a blunt instrument, while his head was pounded against two uncovered steam pipes at the precinct.

The Government official, who asked The Post to withhold his name, said Keith bore body evidence of brutal treatment when he was released from custody. The Post is also withholding identity of an officer named, pending an investigation. Suspected in an automobile theft case, the prisoner was released after he stoutly maintained his innocence.

The evidence will be submitted to the Department of Justice today.

"The Commissioners and the corporation counsel have not prejudiced the report of the investigating officer of the Police Department and the statements submitted with the report and will not prejudice them.

"When the reports of the police, the grand jury and the Department of Justice are submitted is the correct time to determine whether the charges have been substantiated. Meanwhile, in fairness to the whole department and the very great majority of the fine men and women who compose it, complete justice requires that an open mind should exist and this applies not only to the Commissioners but to the whole body of our citizens."

Dr. Reichelderfer is understood to have turned over to Department of Justice agents two cases in which persons charge they were beaten by police, but Maj. Pratt said he did not believe the undercover men were considering any cases except that of Harker so far.

The case of Paul Henry, 20 years old, of 800 Eighteenth street northwest, was also reported to be under investigation. Henry says he was given the "water cure" by a Third Precinct policeman whose name he does not know.

According to Henry, he was arrested by a park policeman when he took a rowboat from its moorings at the Tidal Basin wall and went fishing on August 9. The park policeman twisted his arm behind his back, Henry declared.

At the Third Precinct a heavy-set policeman accused him of committing a robbery and slapped him every time he made a denial, Henry charges. The policeman tore his shirt off and beat him about the legs with a club and then made him stand up while about twenty glasses of water were thrown on him he said.

Later the policeman accused him of stealing automobiles, Henry asserts, and hit him with a nightstick. Subsequently the same policeman returned with a physician and told the doctor Henry had tried to hang himself with his shirt, Henry related.

Henry said he denied this and told the physician his shirt had been torn off by the policeman. After the doctor had left the policeman slapped him again for making the statement to the physician, according to Henry.

Salary Cut Threatened.

Repercussions from the brutality investigation came from Capitol Hill yesterday.

Representative Will R. Wood, chairman of the House appropriations committee, declared that police brutality must be halted and threatened that salaries of policemen who resort to such tactics would be cut.

Senator Clarence C. Dill, of Washington, who was at one time connected with the office of the prosecuting attorney in Spokane, declared that brutal methods in police work were indefensible and expressed a desire to see all found guilty removed from the force, and prosecuted under any law found to apply in the case.

Representative Frank W. Bowman, of West Virginia, a member of the House District commitee, said he was glad to see the Department of Justice taking a hand and investigating the charges.

HOOVER ENTERTAINS BANKERS AT DINNER

(Associated Press.)

Men familiar with "the general business situation" talked of it with President Hoover Wednesday night over the dinner table in the stately dining room of the White House.

Secretary Mellon, just back from Europe, was present and Eugene Meyer, whose governorship of the Federal Reserve Board puts him in a position to know the very latest news in the banking world.

The others came from the New York financial center, being William C. Potter, president of the Guaranty Trust Co.; Charles S. McCain, chairman of the board, and James T. Lee, a director of the Chase National Bank, and George W. Davison, president of the Central Hanover Bank.

Beyond the fact that "the general business situation" was the topic, no information on what happened was forthcoming either at the White House or the Treasury. Mr. Mellon and Mr. Meyer declined to discuss the meeting. It was said in an official quarter, however, that impending Treasury financing was not discussed.

The White House disclosed the dinner took place after questioning. The first guest list, made public by Theodore Joslin, one of the President's secretaries, an hour after the first news of the dinner was available, did not contain the name of Secretary Mellon. The fact that he was present was not learned until the middle of the afternoon.

Many of the President's important conferences have taken place in the seclusion of the presidential quarters of the White House, instead of in the executive offices.

Most recent of these was the one at which Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., consented to head the President's unemployment relief organization. Two conferences were held with Gifford, both at the White House breakfast table. At the time he consented to head the relief organization that conference was described as one dealing with the "general business situation."

The four New York bankers came to Washington after dark and left for New York immed ately after the dinner was over.

countries by taxing the rich to provide necessities for the poor." It had been charged, and officially denied, that New York bankers offered credit to England only on condition that the unemployment benefits were cut.

Bankruptcy Idea Scouted.

The Laborites refuted suggestions that Britain has been on the verge of bankruptcy, pointing out that many millions of British capital are invested abroad.

Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson returned to London and visited MacDonald at No. 10 Downing street early this morning. He said it was a purely personal call, but reliable sources expressed belief that Anglo-American relations were discussed. MacDonald was said to have assured the American Secretary that the British situation is "now quite good."

MacDonald departed for Lossiemouth, Scotland, by train at 7:20 p. m., declining to comment on the Labor party action. He will return on Monday.

ficient to help in the program of postwar stabilization of sterling on a gold basis. It is believed, however, that a part of new credit will be used. It is understood that as the credit is drawn on, British treasury bills will be received by the participating banks. This was the procedure under the 1925 credit.

No participation in the American portion of the credit is to be offered to the public, although it is understood there may be some public offering of the French portion in France.

It has been understood in Wall street for several days that the new British government would be provided with a substantial loan to make the pound sterling doubly secure, although it is acknowledged such a loan might not be absolutely necessary.

The pound sterling, in terms of dollars, held close to gold parity today. It ruled at $4.86⅛ for cable transfers, which is about half a cent below gold parity and one-sixteenth of a cent under last night's final quotation.

(United Press.)

Official opinion in Washington seems to be prepared for some early announcement at New York of a new and large credit designed permanently to strengthen the English pound sterling.

All official quarters and also the British Embassy disclaimed knowledge of the conclusion of bankers' negotiations, reported in New York, but several quarters frankly stated that granting of a new credit "would not cause surprise."

ROOSEVELT CLEARS WAY FOR TAMMANY

Up-State Probe Demand Is Laid Before Legislature in Special Message.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Gov. Roosevelt today gave Tammany Hall its chance to make a demand on the Legislature for an investigation into the corruption the Democrats claim existent in up-State Republican strongholds.

In a special message to the extraordinary session of the Legislature the governor said it had become his duty to transmit the demand from the Democrats.

Other developments of the day in a situation which many observers see fraught with national political consequences were:

1. Passage in both houses of two bills granting immunity powers to the Hofstadter committee in its investigation into Tammany's administration of New York and to all other legislative committees.

Check for Boom Charged.

2. A Democratic charge, made on the floor of the Senate, that the purpose of the immunity bills was to stop "the momentum of the presidential candidacy of the great governor of this State."

3. A Republican charge, made by the head of the Hofstadter committee, that New York, with its Tammany government, is today a community of widespread graft, where policemen are pals with criminals.

After the immunity bills had been passed, with one Democrat in the Assembly and one in the Senate voting with the Republicans in favor of its passage, Gov. Roosevelt's message was read. It said:

"Now that action has been taken on this subject in conformity with the formal request which was made to me by the majority members of your joint committee, it becomes my duty to transmit to you a request from minority leaders of the Senate and Assembly."

Democratic Letter Presented.

The message was accompanied by a letter from the Democratic leaders, Senator John J. Dunnigan and Assemblyman Irwin Steingut, listing what they claim are reasons for investigating conditions in Binghamton, Steuben County; Brighton, Monroe County; Saratoga, Buffalo and Tonawando, Erie County, and other Republican centers.

They also mentioned an $80,000 defalcation charged to the former treasurere of Columbia County.

Navy Budget Ready For Adams Monday

Increase Over Last Year Is Due to Continuing Construction Under Way.

(Associated Press.)

Headed by a $20,000,000 item for completing modernization of three battleships, the Navy's budget for the next fiscal year is now ready for Secretary Adams' signature on his return Monday from a vacation.

Navy officials said it represents an increase over the expenditures of the present year because of larger amounts required for continuing ship construction now already begun.

The increase under "construction," they said, exceeds considerably the reduction under "maintenance of the Navy," which has been made possible by the increased purchasing power of the dollar and the efforts of all bureaus to curtail operating expenses.

Priority over all other construction items was given the modernization work because of a feeling in the department that renovation of the three battleships—comprising one-fifth of America's capital ship strength—should be completed without delay and the vessels returned to service.

Burlington, Mass., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A fusillade of shots fired into the tires of a bank president's automobile today enabled bandits to seize a pay roll of $26,000 and escape. Later State troopers scoured the heavy woods in this town in search of the two robbers.

GANDHI IN LOIN CLOTH RACES FOR HIS TRAIN

Hope of India Ignores Law as He Starts First Leg of London Trip.

Rimla, India, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Wearing his cobwebby shawl and loin cloth, Mahatma Gandhi entered a small American automobile tonight and made a wild dash from his little shanty on the slopes of the Himalayas through 100 miles of twisting dangerous roads to the railroad station at Kalka.

With only a few minutes to spare, he caught the frontier express which will take him to Bombay, where he will embark Saturday morning on his way to the round table conference at London.

An understanding with Viceroy Lord Willingdon on the points at issue between the government and the Nationalists resulted in his decision to go to London, and resulted also in that breakneck ride down the mountainside.

Disregards Night Driving Law.

The mahatma defied an ordinance forbidding night driving through the Himalayan forest in order to catch his train. He had only two hours for the trip over the dangerous roads, and so he whizzed past startled policemen without a pause.

His few remaining teeth chattered as the small car bumped along, and with his shaved head and odd dress he looked anything except an international figure of great power.

Small groups of adherents shouted, "Long live our savior!" as he boarded his train.

Full Moon Influenced Him.

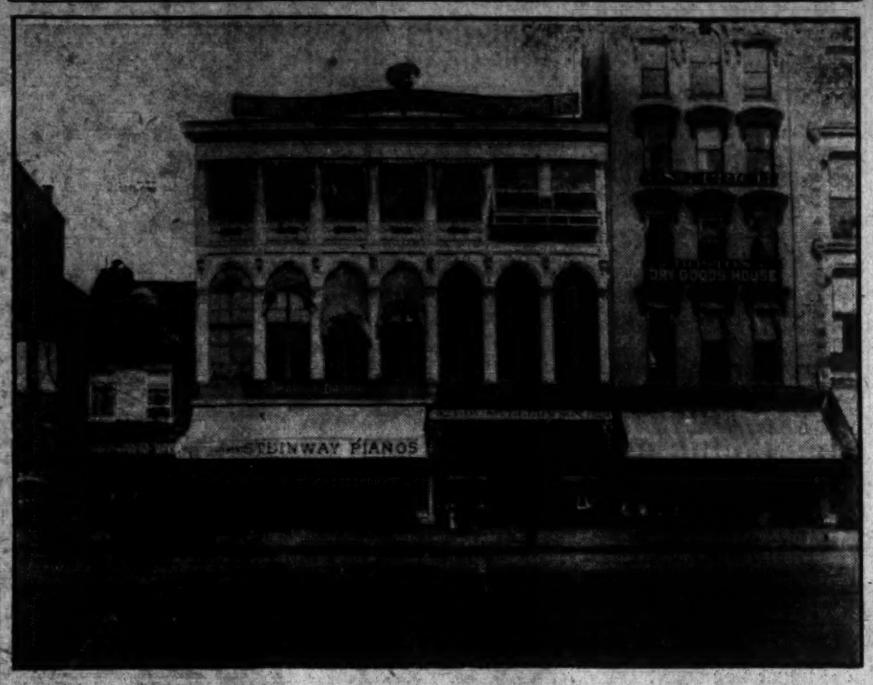
It is understood that the mahatma decided to go to London after the government agreed to extend an inquiry into alleged breaches of the Delhi truce into all districts of India where it may be shown such breaches occurred.

Associates said he was assisted in reaching his decision by the fact that the moon is full, for he, like all Hindus, has great faith in the influence of the moon on human affairs.

Today being "Purification Day," he took the ceremonial bath this morning to cleanse himself of sin and repeated a sacred litany 1,008 times.

"I know my followers will remain at peace while I am gone," he said, "and it is my prayer that I may bring them permanent peace and a happier future."

When Washington Was Younger—No. 27



THE first iron-front building erected in Washington is shown in the central portion of the above picture. It stood at 923-925 Pennsylvania avenue northwest until 1895 when it was razed and replaced by Woolworth's 10-cent store, which occupies the site today.

Edward F. Droop's music store was situated on the ground floor. The second floor was known as Shank's Hall, a famous meeting place, and later a concert hall, where Adeline Patti, opera singer, and Anton Rubinstein, pianist, made their first appearances in Washington.

BISHOP'S CASH IS TRACED

these things proved that the Republican national committee was behind Bishop Cannon's war on Gov. Smith.

"They didn't have anything to do with it," Jameson said. "They passed the buck to Mr. Slemp. They could not do it; it wouldn't be ethical."

"So you were chosen," said Senator Wagner, sarcastically.

Jameson Not the Only One.

The hearing, although it covered much ground that had been covered before, also brought out much that was new. For one thing, it showed that Mr. Jameson was not the only influential Republican who contributed to Bishop Cannon's war chest.

Former Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, it was shown, had contributed $10,000 to Bishop Cannon, which sum was deposited in the bishop's "political account" in the Continental Trust Co., here in Washington.

Mr. Jameson, the principal "angel," said he financed the fight to break the solid Democratic South because he was interested in keeping prohibition, because he wanted to see Herbert Hoover elected, and because he admired the "spirit" and "principles" that led the Southern Democrats to turn against Gov. Smith.

Expected No Reward.

Questioned as to what he expected his reward to be, Mr. Jameson said that he expected nothing. He admitted, however, that Mr. Slemp and others had endorsed him for a place in President Hoover's Cabinet.

Earlier in the day, Basil M. Manly, investigator for the Nye committee, had gone into a detailed analysis of the complicated financial affairs of Bishop Cannon in the 1928 campaign.

He testified, the while he pointed to illustrated charts, that only $22,544 of the $68,717 which Bishop Cannon deposited in his "political fund" here in Washington was actually transferred to the account of the anti-Smith Democrats in a Richmond bank.

Mr. Jameson, when questioned about this, said he was under the impression that the full sum he contributed to Bishop Cannon—$65,300—was going to the anti-Smith Democrats.

Investigator Manly revealed that Bishop Cannon maintained eight bank accounts during the political campaign, six of which were opened after the campaign period arrived. Much of his testimony had to do with the shifting of funds from one account to another.

Manly produced a chart to show what happened to the $68,717.54 that was deposited in Bishop Cannon's account in the Continental Trust Co. here. This account has been described as the bishop's "political fund."

As has been narrated, Manly testified that only $22,544.30 was transferred from the political fund to the account of the anti-Smith Democrats, the organization to which Mr. Jameson thought he was contributing.

Of the remainder, Manly said, $17,450 was transferred to the bishop's personal account in a Richmond bank; two sums, one for $5,000 and the other for $5,300, were converted into certificates of deposit and transferred to other Virginia banks; $528 was paid on a personal note of the bishop's, held by the bank in Richmond, and $17,895 remained unaccounted for.

Jameson Uninformed.

Mr. Jameson seemed to know next to nothing about what happened afterward to the money he turned over to Bishop Cannon.

In response to questions, he admitted that if he were in the same position as Bishop Cannon and was under suspicion for transferring funds from a campaign fund to private accounts, he would be glad to testify.

Bishop Cannon, who is now in Europe, declined to volunteer any testimony before the Nye committee, contending that it has no authority to question him about how he spent the Jameson money.

Absorbing as was yesterday's testimony in connection with Bishop Cannon's eight bank accounts, the politically-minded in the audience were considerably more interested in the story of how Bishop Cannon, a Democrat, came to obtain $65,300 from Mr. Jameson, a Republican capitalist.

Jersey Banker on Stand.

The story was pieced together while Mr. Jameson was in the witness chair. He is short, dark-skinned, given to high shoes, a high stiff collar and other old-fashioned apparel. He wears horn-rimmed spectacles and has a mustache resembling the one that adorns the upper lip of Bishop Cannon. Indeed, were it not that Mr. Jameson is more robust, there would be a strong resemblance between the two.

Just before Mr. Jameson had stepped to the witness table, the committee had questioned F. C. Ferguson, president of the Hudson County National Bank of Jersey City, N. J.

It was he who testified that former Senator Frelinghuysen had given Bishop Cannon $10,000 in two cashier's checks of $5,000 each.

The committee's investigators learned about this transaction last July. Not long thereafter, it was developed yesterday, Mr. Frelinghuysen sailed for Europe.

Jameson Shy of Cameras.

Just before Mr. Jameson approached the witness table, he sent his secretary down to tell the photographers that he wished not to be photographed.

At the outset, Mr. Jameson told how Bascom Slemp and Mr. Frelinghuysen called on him in New York to interest him in the campaign. Later Mr. Slemp took Bishop Cannon to see Jameson.

What Senator Wagner wanted to know, however, was what preceded this visit of Mr. Slemp and Mr. Frelinghuysen. The answer was contained in a hitherto unrevealed telegram which Chairman Nye produced.

The telegram, dated September 8, 1928, was sent to Mr. Jameson from Chicago by the late James W. Good, Herbert Hoover's preconvention manager, Western manager for the Republican national committee after the campaign got under way, and Secretary of War at the time of his death.

Asked Assistance for Slemp.

The telegram read:

"Bascom Slemp is working on a plan for independent organization and we are anxious to carry out this plan. He will talk with you about it. Please give him all the assistance possible. JAMES W. GOOD."

Three days later, on September 11, 1928, it was brought out yesterday, Mr. Jameson wrote Mr. Good in Chicago as follows:

"Your telegram received. I had a talk with Bascom Slemp and Senator Frelinghuysen yesterday and he is fixed up so that he can go ahead and work out the independent organization as planned. I suppose he has told you what to do. * * *"

The committee tried to have Mr. Jameson admit that the "independent organization" that Mr. Good had mentioned and which was discussed by Jameson, Slemp and Frelinghuysen was the anti-Smith Democrats organized by Bishop Cannon, an organization which the regular Democrats have charged with fostering religious bigotry. The New York capitalist, however, would not make such an admission.

The committee was equally unsuccessful in trying to have Mr. Jameson clear up the mystery around a letter written to him by Bishop Cannon, a letter in which the bishop said that Bascom Slemp had paid "three-fourths of the amount he pledged * * *"

Chairman Nye asked Mr. Jameson many questions which, while they meant little to the spectators, had an important bearing on the committee's determination to show that Bishop Cannon violated the corrupt practices act.

Purpose of Donation Sought.

Thus, Chairman Nye repeatedly sought to show that the money that Jameson contributed was to be used in a general anti-Smith campaign throughout the South. If this were so, Bishop Cannon would have to account for every cent that was spent.

Bishop Cannon, however, contends that only $17,000 was spent by the headquarters committee of the anti-Smith Democrats, the remaining $48,300 being spent by the Virginia committee of the organization.

In its report to the House of Representatives, the anti-Smith Democrats accounted for the $17,000 expended by the headquarters committee.

Bishop Cannon contends—and his attorneys so contended yesterday—that the Federal corrupt practices act does not require an organization to report a sum spent in a State campaign. Consequently, they say, there was no need to report the $48,300 spent in the State of Virginia.

Virginia All He Hoped For.

Chairman Nye tried to have Mr. Jameson say that he knew his contribution was to be used in a general campaign throughout the South.

He replied that the felt Virginia was the only solid South State that he or anybody else thought Hoover could win. He added, however, that it was his understanding that "work" was to be done in other States later on, if Virginia seemed safe and there seemed to be a chance elsewhere.

The hearing was not without its lighter side. Mr. Jameson's faulty memory in itself provided amusement, as did his seeming disdain for details regarding the expenditure of his money.

He seemed to have a real admiration for Senator Wagner, who represents his State in the Upper House; in fact, he said as much.

"I am sorry we weren't on the same side," he said on one occasion.

"Oh," said Senator Wagner, "you were wrong, but you can be forgiven for that."

Shake Hands at Finish.

At the end of the day's session Mr. Jameson and Senator Wagner shook hands.

When Senator Nye asked Mr. Jameson to name the date of his meeting with Bishop Cannon the New Yorker asked the senator to look over the bank records and find out the date on the first check he gave the Methodist divine. That, he said, would indicate the approximate time of the meeting. The audience laughed heartily.

Chairman Nye read an advertisement in which Bishop Cannon called on his "fellow workers" to make up a deficit after the campaign was over. The committee chairman was trying to figure out how there could be a deficit when Mr. Jameson had given Bishop Cannon $7,300 after the campaign was over.

Asked about the advertisement appealing for funds to wipe out the deficit, Mr. Jameson exclaimed:

"That's news to me!"

The hearing will be continued at 10:30 o'clock this morning. It will be public and will be held in the Senate Office Building.

Bucharest Express Wreck Averted.

Bucharest, Roumania, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A watchful switchman averted disaster to the Bucharest Express today. At the mouth of a tunnel near Fogaras the rails had been torn up for a distance of 500 feet. It was thought the same persons were involved who caused an explosion in a powder factory at Fogaras Tuesday.

LINK WITH TINKHAM IS DENIED BY BISHOP

Cannon Replies to Glass and Explains Division of Bank Accounts.

London, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Bishop James Cannon, jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, issued a statement here today denying that Representative Tinkham (Republican), of Massachusetts, ever was "affiliated or associated" with him.

The bishop's statement was in response to a reply by Senator Glass (Democrat), of Virginia, to a previous statement by Bishop Cannon.

The bishop had charged that the Senate's inquiry into his anti-Smith campaign activities in 1928 was a "purely personal attack by a vindictive Virginia Democrat and a Boston congressman under Roman Catholic domination" and not an attempt to frame remedial legislation.

Denies Any Affiliation.

Senator Glass replied that the charge against Bishop Cannon was made by "a Massachusetts Republican congressman who was affiliated with Bishop Cannon in the last presidential election and, along with Bishop Cannon, opposed the election of the Democratic candidate."

The Senate's campaign funds committee is investigating a complaint of Representative Tinkham that Bishop Cannon failed to account to Congress for all the $65,300 intrusted to him as chairman of the anti-Smith drive in Virginia by E. C. Jameson, New York capitalist.

"Senator Glass knows," said the bishop's statement today, "that Congressman Tinkham, for years a political enemy of the South, from a wet Roman Catholic district of Boston, although he supported Hoover as a Republican, was never in any way affiliated or associated with me, who supported Hoover as an anti-Smith Democrat."

Would Welcome Trial.

"Senator Glass also knows that Congressman Tinkham brought lobbying charges against the Federal Council, the Antisaloon League and the Northern and Southern Methodist temperance boards, all Protestant organizations, but not against similar Roman Catholic organizations. Also that Congressman Tinkham asked the Attorney General to prosecute the Northern Methodist Board once, and myself twice, for violation of the Federal corrupt practices act, which request the Attorney General did not grant."

"I have repeatedly stated," the statement continued, "that I would welcome a grand jury investigation and trial before a regular court, but I have denied, as an infringement of my rights as a citizen, an investigation of alleged criminal conduct by a Senate committee, under no restrictions and with no rights on my part to summons or cross-examine witnesses.

Tells of Bank Accounts.

"Why has Senator Glass demanded investigation of political expenditures of anti-Smith Democrats, and not of Virginia State Democrats and the Republican committee of a much larger amount than $48,000, unless he wishes to find out how, where and by whom the anti-Smith fund was expended to prevent, if possible, another defeat in Virginia in 1932, if he again puts party regularity above moral principles?"

Referring to reports printed in the Paris edition of the New York Herald, the bishop said: "I carried no bank account anywhere in the name of James Cannon, jr., chairman of the headquarters committee of the anti-Smith Democrats. That account was carried in the American National Bank of Richmond in the name of Ada Burroughs, treasurer of the headquarters committee of the anti-Smith Democrats.

Paid Notes From Salary.

"My account as chairman, in the Continental Trust Co. of Washington, included money received for both the general and the Virginia State campaigns, and I checked on that account to my personal account in the American National Bank of Richmond, from which I checked to Ada Burroughs, treasurer of the headquarters committee of the anti-Smith Democrats, and also for use in the Virginia State campaign.

"All political contributions deposited in the Citizens Bank of Blackstone for general purposes were rechecked to Ada Burroughs, treasurer, as a comparison of her official report to the clerk of the House of Representatives shows.

"Personal notes paid by me during 1928 were paid from my salary, loans on Washington property, proceeds of the sale of bank stock and of the Moore estate, &c. I had been curtailing and paying similar notes for years past."

ACCORD OF LIBERALS IS HOPE OF PANAMAN

Secretary Says He or Rival May Withdraw From Presidential Race.

(Associated Press.)

Hope of an undivided Liberal party in the next Panaman presidential election was expressed last night by Francisco Arias Paredes, secretary of state for Panama.

Secretary Arias is in the United States to arrange for the purchase of airplanes for use in Panama's domestic airmail service. He and Dr. Harmodio Arias, Panaman Minister to the United States, have been considered rivals for the Liberal party presidential nomination in November.

Arias Paredes said recently that as a result of discussions with Minister Arias he hoped to reach an understanding before his return to Panama as to which man should make the race. Asked if that meant possible withdrawal of one man, he agreed, adding, however, that no conclusions had been reached.

Referring to the fight in Panama in which Dr. Arnulfo Arias was wounded, the secretary said he had sent a telegram to the pro-Arias Paredes party urging toleration and that strife be avoided. He said he desired a united Liberal party in the 1932 elections and that he believed he and Minister Arias would abide by the will of the November party convention.

Colon, Panama, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—An investigation of the shooting of Dr. Arnulfo Arias, brother of Harmodio Arias, Panama's Minister to Washington, was begun today by the acting minister of the interior and justice, J. J. Vallarino, who will report to President Alfaro.

Ramon Amestica, who was charged with shooting Dr. Arias yesterday, was removed from the office of police judge which he held. Dr. Arias' condition was described as satisfactory.

Hill Quakes, Then Erupts Without Smoke or Lava

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A 1,000-foot hill near the Town of Apacilagua in the Choluteca region trembled and shook for several hours today, then burst into violent eruption, hurling great boulders about and almost blocking the course of the Coluteca River.

Every tree on the hillside was uprooted and tossed into the valley. There was no lava and no smoke, but underground rumblings continued after the eruption had subsided. The inhabitants of the vicinity were terror-stricken, but there was no report of loss of life.

Chile Votes Fuel Requirement.

Santiago, Chile, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—Chile joined Brazil today in passing legislation making it compulsory for gasoline dealers to mix 10 per cent alcohol, or some other nationally produced fuel, with gasoline. Pure gasoline in cans or drums will be charged a duty up to $5.40 per 100 pounds.

Colombian-U. S. Firm Row Ends.

Bogota, Colombia, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A two-year controversy between the Colombian government and the American construction house of Ulen & Co. ended today with the signing of final documents by which the government is to pay the company $110,000. The settlement liquidates the company's work on the harbor project at the mouth of the Magdalena River.

Shooting Causes Suggestion.

Mexico City, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—The Senate passed a motion last night suggesting that President Ortiz Rubio read the annual presidential message to Congress in the Chamber of Deputies Building rather than in the national open-air stadium in view of Tuesday night's shooting fray.

No Incident Expected Over Wounding.

Mexico City, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—Government officials said today they did not expect international complications as a result of the hostile demonstration last night against the Argentine physician, Dr. Gomez Llueca. An American woman, Mrs. Eliza Romeyn, of New York, was injured by flying missiles during the demonstration.

Mexican Deputy Hurt in Duel.

Mexico City, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—Federal Deputy Luis Cruz Manjarrez was critically wounded in a duel with State Deputy Manuel Leyza at Chilpancing, State of Guerrero, the Grafico correspondent at Acapulso reported tonight.

Iquique's Business Closed.

Iquique, Chile, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—All business houses were closed today in protest against further operation of the National Nitrate Co., which is Chile's sole producing and marketing agency.

Davis Cup Tennis Star's Wife Sues for Divorce

Philadelphia, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Mrs. Abigail Stapleford Allen Lott, who eloped last October with George Lott, Davis Cup tennis star, now defending his doubles championship at Brookline, Mass., today filed suit for divorce. No grounds for the action were included in first papers filed.

Mrs. Lott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Allen, of Abington, made her debut in 1928 at a dance. She was 21 years old when she eloped to Elkton, Md., with the tennis star whom she met while visiting at the home of Fitz E. Dixon captain of the Davis Cup team at the time, and Mrs. Dixon.

Hoover Discusses Oil Civil Suits

Atlee Pomerene Gives White House Data on Pending Action.

(Associated Press.)

Atlee Pomerene, special prosecutor in the cases growing out of oil leases, said yesterday after a call at the White House that he had discussed several pending civil suits with President Hoover. He said he could not give details of the conference because the cases included several which have not yet come to trial.

Among the suits growing out of the leases which are yet to be decided is the appeal to the Supreme Court of Harry M. Blackmer, Colorado oil man.

In it Mr. Blackmer assails a law under which he was held in contempt of court for refusing to testify in the trials of Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior, who now is in prison in New Mexico and Harry F. Sinclair, wealthy oil man. Blackmer, who lives in France, was fined $60,000 for his refusal to return to the United States as a witness.

Ship Line Bidders Accuse Each Other

Board May Set Aside Proposals and Call for New Offers.

(Associated Press.)

With each of the rival bidders for the United States Lines claiming the proposal of the other violates the Shipping Board's specifications, the board yesterday debated for four hours without awarding the lines to either one.

Although no official announcement of the proceedings was made, it was learned the board may set aside proposals submitted both by the International Mercantile Marine-Roosevelt Steamship Co. and a group comprising Paul W. Chapman, New York, president of the firm now owning the line, and his new backers, R. Stanley Dollar, San Francisco, and Kenneth D. Dawson, Portland, Oreg.

In this event a new set of specifications would be submitted to both bidders with a request they bid again.

NEW EFFORTS MADE FOR BOSTING COTTON

Situation Interests Egypt; George Calls Senators for Parley Today.

(Associated Press.)

New efforts to reduce the cotton farmer's surplus crop and fatten his pocketbook came yesterday from domestic and international quarters.

An expression of interest in possible world action to stabilize cotton prices was received from Cairo, Egypt, and at the same time Senator George (Democrat), Georgia, arranged a conference of Southern senators with the Farm Board.

Meanwhile, attention was directed to Baton Rouge, where the Louisiana House of Representatives, in special session, approved Gov. Long's bill prohibiting growing cotton next year. The State Senate still must act and States containing three-fourths of the cotton acreage must adopt it to make it operative.

Senator George summoned senators from nine cotton States to meet here yesterday and canvass the general situation with the board. They will discuss his plan for the payment now by the board of 6 cents a pound and 6 cents in October, 1932, for the cotton of those farmers who contract not to plant next year. Other proposals also will be discussed.

The information from Cairo came to the State Department through the American Legation there. Egypt produced 1,661,000 bales last year, chiefly long staple. That was a reduction over the last two years. The acreage for this year has been decreased by 19 per cent. Her exports are taken principally by Great Britain. A formal note containing the Egyptian government's expression was said at the State Department to be on its way to Washington.

The Southern senators invited by George to meet at the Farm Board this afternoon are Connally, Texas; Gore and Thomas, Oklahoma; Hull and McKellar, Tennessee; Bailey and Morrison, North Carolina; Harrison, Mississippi; Black and Bankhead, Alabama; Harris, Georgia; Smith and Byrnes, South Carolina, and Fletcher and Trammell, Florida.

Many Possibilities Seen For Farm Board Trades

Now that the board has traded 25,000,000 bushels of American wheat for 1,050,000 bags of Brazilian coffee there are signs of awakening in the international marts of trade.

Cuba has a surplus of sugar. 'Twould be easy to stir up a trade there.

The Eskimos, up North Pole way, still have an oversupply of gumdrops left by the learned Dr. Cook.

Mexico makes hot tamales, but even at the normal rate of consumption there is a superabundance of tamales waiting to be traded for cotton.

Germany wants to get rid of a lot of hops. As the malt manufacturers of this country can not supply the demand, here is the chance of a lifetime, and Germany has its own ships.

Italy, under the Mussolini management, is fed up on spaghetti and ravioli, and it would be an easy matter to do business in that quarter.

• • • •

Japan raises a superfluity of goldfish, while America reports a dangerous scarcity, and yet Japan is in sore need of cotton.

Canada also needs cotton, while it has a surplus of rye. Aye, aye!

All the South American countries are in receptive mood, anxious to trade victuals with the Farm Board.

Venezuela has lovely bananas.

Paraguay and Uruguay have coconuts, delicious for pies.

Colombia has kumquats, Ecuador turtles, Chile con carne and Peru llama steaks, all in superabundance. There is plenty of nandu in Argentina—in case the Farm Board needs nandu.

• • • •

BRITISH GUIANA, Dutch Guiana and French Guiana, all have surplus crops of cayenne pepper, which is needed by American bootleggers for fortifying their prewar hootch.

The possibilities are limitless, as vast as the word itself. It seems to be a great way to get rid of the 300,000,000 bushels of wheat stacked in this country because of the Hollywood diet and the foolish food fads. If Americans will not eat their quota of bread, trade off the wheat with those who will. All these people are bread eaters.

When all the trades have been completed, when all the wheat has left America and all the various brands of exchanged staples have arrived in Washington, the question will naturally arise: What to do with them?

• • • •

Then, visitors to Washington and the bicentennial can bring along with them products from their own communities—provided, of course, they do not come from the wheat or cotton belts—and these commodities can be traded in at the Farm Board Hotel for lodging and table d'hote meals, made up of international foodstuffs traded in by the Farm Board.

It would not only promote peace and good will among the nations, but would also acquaint Americans with the delicacies of international diet.

And wheat! How it would disappear!

2 Armed Men Rob Vienna Pharmacy

Dr. R. L. Bradfield Is Hit With Gun in Tussle With Bandits.

The pharmacy of Dr. R. L. Bradfield, at Vienna, was held up at an early hour yesterday morning by two unmasked white men, who escaped with $73 in cash. Dr. Bradfield was alone at the time, preparing to close for the night, when two men entered. He started to ask them what they wanted when one of the men struck him on the head with the butt of a gun.

The men took about $13 from the cash register and the balance from the doctor's pocket while he was grappling with them, and fled in an automobile. Dr. Bradford stated that one of the men ordered him to throw up his hands, and as he attempted to grab the gun the other man hit him.

Although knocked to the floor by the blow, which inflicted a severe scalp wound, Dr. Bradfield attempted to follow the men in his car, but he found that they had cut off the gasoline supply. The Fairfax County authorities were notified, and an effort made to follow the bandits. Sheriff Kirby stated yesterday afternoon that a complete description of the men was furnished by Dr. Bradfield.

Charges in Dry Battle Dismissed in Baltimore

Assault charges made against Robert L. Hall, of Marlboro, by two Federal agents and countercharges made by Hall against the dry agents were dismissed yesterday when heard before U. S. Commissioner J. Frank Supplee in Baltimore.

The accusations grew out of a fight between the agents and Hall and his friends in front of the U. S. Commissioner's office in Marlboro August 7.

Action Is Dropped In Bathroom Raid

Report Shows No Grounds for Complaint in Prince Georges.

No action will be taken by Prince Georges County Commissioners on the complaint of Mrs. Mary Beach that county policemen were abusive and entered her bathroom during a raid on her home in Branchville, as the report of Chief J. J. Crowley showed no grounds for the complaint.

Mrs. Beach, who is 65 years old, also asked that the county reimburse her for the doors which are alleged to have been damaged in the raid. She claims one of the policemen entered her bathroom while she was having a bath.

The policemen stated they heard a gurgling noise in that room and thought she was pouring out the liquor they expected to find. For this reason they entered the room, but left as soon as they saw she was unclothed, they said. They denied that vile language was used. No liquor was found during the raid.

Demurrers Are Denied In Montgomery Action

Judge Robert B. Peter yesterday overruled demurrers filed by the defendants in the suit of Dr. Anna Bartsch Dunne, Washington physician, against Montgomery County Commissioners for damages alleged to have resulted from the widening of the intersection of Georgia avenue and Colesville pike, in Silver Spring. The defendants had moved to have the suit thrown out on the grounds that it contained irrelevant statements and did not show the damage.

The judge set the case for the November term of circuit court at Rockville. Dr. Dunne alleged that damages amounting to $107,153.08 had been caused to her property.

MONTGOMERY PLANS TO REMOVE 3 HOUSES

Montgomery County Bureau of The Post, 9103 Conn. Ave., North Chevy Chase, Md. Telephone Wisconsin 4205.

The Montgomery County commissioners yesterday directed Capt. Joseph C. Cissel, counsel to the county commissioners, to prepare proper resolutions to empower them to remove three properties in the path of the right-of-way for the extension of Saratoga avenue to the Fern street underpass. Three houses are owned by Alfred Ray.

County Engineer Harry B. Shaw reported that he had received two bids for moving the houses. Q. V. Seek, Takoma Park, Md., put in a bid of $1,240 for moving the houses and P. Dudley, of Washington, bid $775. Engineer Shaw recommended that the contract be awarded to Mr. Dudley. After Capt. Cissel reported that the bids should be advertised in the usual manner, because the amount involved was more than $500, the commissioners ordered that proper resolutions should be prepared.

Two successful bidders on furniture for the new courthouse yesterday posted performance bonds, which were accepted by the commissioners. They were the Dulaney-Varney Co., of Baltimore, and the General Fireproofing Co., of New York.

Engineer Shaw reported that the Potomac Lime & Stone Co., of Frederick, Md., was low bidder on 500 carloads of crushed stone for use in county road work, and recommended that the contract be awarded to that company. The M. J. Grove Lime Co., of Lime Kiln, Md., had protested against the Potomac company bid, on the grounds that it did not quote freight prepaid prices, but the company agreed that the prices quoted would be the freight cost to the county, regardless of whether freight rates are raised.

Fire at Seat Pleasant Damages Vacant House

Damage of about $2,000 was done to a vacant ten-room house in Seat Pleasant, when it was partially destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The blaze apparently started in a room used to store paints and waste materials. The house was being remodeled.

Firemen from Seat Pleasant, Capitol Heights and Greater Capitol Heights, who responded to the alarm, were unable to learn the identity of the owner.

Potomac Man Robbed By Hitch-Hiker of $24

Elbert Fordham, of 223 Windsor avenue, Potomac, Va., reported to Alexandria police that he was robbed of $24 by a hitch-hiker whom he picked up at the red light at Columbia pike Wednesday night.

He stated that when he neared Alexandria the man stuck a gun in his ribs and ordered him to hand over his money and then rode several blocks before jumping from the car and disappearing.

$14,000 Fire Hits Mill at Herndon

Internal Combustion Gets Blame; Machinery Is Ruined.

Fire, believed to have been caused by internal combustion, destroyed a large quanity of flour, grain and feed early yesterday in the B. M. McCarthy Milling Co's. plant at Herndon, Va. Most of the damage was occasioned by water and much of the machinery was ruined. The loss was estimated at $14,000.

The fire was discovered about 1 o'clock by persons returning from an entertainment nearby. The Herndon Volunteer Fire Department responded and succeeded in confining the flames to the interior of the mill, which was of metal construction.

Firemen state the blaze started on the second floor near the wheat bins.

Tramps in Alexandria Face Chain Gang Work

Sergt. Heber Thompson, acting chief of the Alexandria Police Department, yesterday declared war on the myriads of tramps who have been infesting the city.

He issued orders that all tramps found loitering in the city, especially near the railroad bridges over Duke street and Mush Pot road, are to be taken to the city limits and sent on their way. In the event that the men do not desire to keep moving they will be put on the chain gang for ten days.

According to Sergt. Thompson, the number of tramps has increased several hundred per cent this year over previous years.

ARLINGTON COUNTY ROAD SIGNS ASKED

Board Will Consider Plans for Tourist Guides to National Cemetery.

ARLINGTON COUNTY BUREAU OF THE POST, Tel. Clar. 509. Clarendon, Va.

The Board of Supervisors of Arlington County tomorrow will consider placing of signs along highways to guide tourists to Arlington National Cemetery and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

County Engineer C. L. Kinnier, whose attention was brought to the lack of signs through a letter printed in The Post from G. D. Houtman, of Media, Pa., will present the question to the supervisors. Mr. Houtman complained that he had circled for an hour trying to reach Arlington Cemetery while on a recent visit here.

F. C. Goodnow, chairman of the roads committee of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, said he will request the city council to have signs placed in the city to guide tourists from the South.

Determined to put a stop to establishment of dumps within the limits of Arlington County, Dr. P. M. Chichester, county health officer, announced yesterday he has denied applications for establishment of two dumps in the county within the last 24 hours.

Dr. Chichester stated he expects to present a suggested ordinance to the county supervisors tomorrow morning that will prohibit entrance of trash into Arlington County from the District.

Another matter before the supervisors tomorrow will be an ordinance they ordered drawn by Commonwealth's Attorney William C. Gloth to control construction of buildings and the issue of building permits. The ordinance is based upon recommendations of the building code commission.

Capital Company Buys Issue in Colmar Manor

The Colmar Manor bond issue of $80,000 for improvement of the town's streets has been taken over by the firm which was awarded the contract for the work. Nine streets will be paved, and local labor will be used as far as possible.

The paving company, the Atlantic Bitulithic Co., of Washington, took over the bonds in two distinct transactions, town officials said. First the paving company bought the bonds and the money received was deposited in the town's account. Then a check was made out to the company and turned over to it.

RAID ON ROADHOUSE RESULTS IN ARREST

Unlicensed Operation Laid to Man Free on Bond in Liquor Cases.

L. M. Rohr, proprietor of the Garden Club, an alleged roadhouse near Meadows, Md., was arrested early yesterday charged with keeping an unlicensed roadhouse. Rohr was free on bond at the time of the raid, on two charges of possession of liquor, one preferred by county policemen and one by Federal agents. Several months ago he was convicted and fined for possession.

Sergt. A. W. Hepburn directed a raid on the place after receiving reports of a fight there last Saturday night. Rohr was freed on bond of $500.

Bond of $500 was posted by Jack Boulden, alleged proprietor of the Oaks, a roadhouse near Ammendale, after he was arrested on a charge of possession, in a raid made by Policemen Claude Reese and Ralph Brown. County policemen also arrested R. P. Richards, alias Ricketts, in a raid on a barn near Beltsville. Richards was charged with possession of a small quantity of liquor, and the policemen said they also found a quantity of mash.

At the request of Dr. A. L. Carson, health officer of Fairfax County, the State Board of Health has detailed Special Sanitary Officer A. The work is being conducted this week.

Following the present inspection another will be made later to check improvements and persons found to disregard the sanitation laws will be prosecuted.

NEWSPAPER PARTY IS LINDBERGH HITCH

Tokyo, Aug. 28 (Friday) (U.P.).—The first discordant note in the universal acclaim given Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh since they arrived from the United States presented a grave problem to diplomats at the American Embassy today.

Their final decision forced cancellation of a reception to the Lindberghs sponsored by the two Japanese newspapers, the Tokyo Nichi Nichi and the Osaka Mainichi.

Col. Lindbergh had accepted the invitation extended by the newspapers. Officials of the embassy heard of it and called his attention to the fact that if he attended the party it would offend other newspapers, such as the Asahi. The Asahi, Nichi Nichi and Mainichi are among the largest newspapers in the world, with millions of readers.

In reversing the acceptance, officials at the embassy said Col. Lindbergh had understood it would be a reception joined in by all the Japanese newspapers. Then the embassy diplomats had a new difficulty. They tried to pacify representatives of Nichi Nichi and Mainichi, who already had sent out a number of invitations to the affair.

The day started with Col. Lindbergh and his wife making official calls at the ministries. Then they went to the mayor's office.

They were rewarded for successful completion of the journey this afternoon when they went to the Aviation Society and received medals. Mrs. Lindbergh was praised as the first woman to cross the Pacific in an airplane.

One of the features of the six-day celebration arranged in honor of the flying couple will be the Ambassador's reception and banquet tonight. It will start at 5:30 p. m. (3:30 a. m. Friday, E. S. T.) and speeches will be broadcast over the world.

Those who will talk include Col. Lindbergh, United States Ambassador W. Cameron Forbes, and Japanese Ministers Kiyokazu Abo, Genjiro Minami and Baron Kijiro Shidehara. The ministers are in charge of the navy, war and foreign departments, respectively. Their speeches were to start about 8 p. m. (6 a. m. E. S. T.).

U. S. Will Query Japan On Status of Two Fliers

(Associated Press.)

Acting Secretary Castle of the State Department said yesterday he would again ask the American Embassy at Tokyo regarding the status of the American fliers, Hugh Herndon, jr., and Clyde Pangborn.

The last word from Ambassador Forbes, the Acting Secretary said, was a cablegram advising the department he had asked formally for permission for the fliers to leave Japan.

Langley Field Fliers Injured at Richmond

Richmond, Va., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—An Army training plane from Langley Field overshot the runway in an attempted landing at Byrd Field today and crashed into the 75-foot steel tower of the Weather Bureau. Two occupants were only slightly hurt.

Capt. Stanley H. Weaver, of Langley Field, whose home is in Pittsburgh, received injuries about the face and is being held in a hospital for observation. His companion, Private Coegan, of Langley Field, received minor cuts. The plane was demolished.

Hinton Forecasts 500 Miles an Hour

Flier Tells Kiwanis Club High Speed Will Come Within 2 Years.

Lieut. Walter Hinton, who has just completed an air tour of the United States, yesterday predicted aviation speeds up to 500 miles an hour within two years' time, in an address at the Kiwanis Club luncheon at the Washington Hotel.

The flier enumerated outstanding contributions to air speed since the Wright brothers flew 859 feet in 59 seconds at Kitty Hawk, pointing out that Charles A. Lindbergh's 80-mile-an-hour time between New York and Paris was doubled by the New York-Istanbul fliers.

Vocal selections were given by Mrs. Mary Pearson, accompanied by Mrs. Mildred K. Schulz. A new member, John F. Myers, was introduced by Past President John J. Boobar. Among guests was Carter Glass, jr., of Lynchburg. Lewis T. Breuninger was in charge of the program.

Accompanied by Earl Boardman, Russell's brother, John Price and Win Whitney in another ship, the Boston airmen are scheduled to arrive at Washington Hoover Airport in their monoplane Cape Cod shortly before noon. At 12:30 o'clock they will be received at the White House by President Hoover.

Immediately afterward they will be the guests of honor at a luncheon in the roof garden of the Hotel Washington sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. This will be open to the public. After having spent about three hours in Washington Boardman and Polando will take off for Cleveland via Bellefonte, Pa.

WOMEN HOLD LEAD IN HUGE AIR DERBY

Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell First in Bartlesville, Okla., From Texas Town.

Bartlesville, Okla., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Women participants in the Santa Monica-Cleveland handicap air derby may or may not be better fliers than men entrants, but in any event the bird women still continued to set the pace as 50 planes landed here to spend the night.

Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell, demure Long Beach, Calif., aviatrix, who led the racers into Bartlesville, attributed the better score of women fliers to wrong calculations. She believed handicaps for some of the ships had not been computed correctly.

Derby officials, however, did not share Mrs. O'Donnell's opinion.

Mrs. O'Donnell set the pace on the Amarillo-Bartlesville flight, being the first contestant to land at Enid, Okla., where a halt was made, and keeping her lead on the 108-mile jump from there to Bartlesville. She landed here at 2:36:45 p. m. (E. S. T.), just 34 minutes 45 seconds after leaving Enid.

Mrs. Omlie followed, landing at 2:43:35, with a flying time of 40:35 from Enid. Louise Thaden, of Pittsburgh, came next. Her time for the 108 miles was 42:53.

Jean LaRean, Dallas, was fourth to land, and Mrs. C. E. Shankle, of Fort Sill, Okla., was fifth. W. E. Musgrave, jr., of San Francisco, was the first man to cross the finish line, landing sixth. His flying time from Enid to Bartlesville was 37:10. It was beaten only by Mrs. O'Donnell.

PINCHOT STANDS ALONE.

A wave of sentiment against raiding the Federal Treasury for relief of the unemployed is sweeping over the Nation. State and local agencies are mobilizing their resources and planning to take care of their own needs to avert all possibility of a Federal dole. The traditional spirit of local independence is beginning to manifest itself.

Gov. Roosevelt has indicated that he will ask the special session of New York's Legislature to raise about $25,000,000 by special taxes for relief in that State. None of this will be used as a dole. Relief will be provided in the form of food, clothing and shelter where necessary, but it is suggested that a considerable share of this proposed fund will be devoted to the creation of jobs. In New York City leading financiers are discussing the problem and laying plans for effective local relief.

From various parts of the country come reports that governors are making arrangements to handle the situation to avoid any further invasion of the rights of the States by the National Government. Republican governors are falling in line with President Hoover's policy of local relief with national coordination of effort. For the most part Democratic governors are doing likewise. It would be extremely difficult for them to follow any other course. One of the fundamental principles of the Democratic party is decentralization of authority. Invasion of States' rights and extension of bureaucracy in Washington are anathema to a true Democrat. If that party is to make any pretense to consistency, it must stand for the right of each State to handle this emergency in its own way.

Only the Progressives, therefore, can plead with a free voice for a Federal dole. Gov. Pinchot has led the way, demanding alms for Pennsylvania, to the disgust of citizens of the Keystone State. The governor spoke boldly of Pennsylvania's indigence, expecting, no doubt, to hear a chorus of State executives join in his petition for Federal benevolence. But the spirit of Americanism is not dead in other State capitals. Gov. Pinchot marches alone under the banner proclaiming his State's incompetence and lack of backbone.

The people of Pennsylvania know that they would contribute more than their share to relief of the unemployed if funds for that purpose were drawn from the Treasury. Citizens throughout the country know that the burden of relief would be heavier if it were administered through a Federal bureaucracy. The people are not as gullible as Gifford Pinchot believed. His attempt to play Santa Claus at the expense of Uncle Sam has made him the laughingstock of politicians, who are delighted when they see one of their profession hoisted by his own petard.

EXPEL CRIMINAL ALIENS.

Two recent reports by the National Commission on Law Enforcement dealt with various phases of the criminal alien problem. The first recommended correction of certain abuses in deportation proceedings, and the second exonerated the foreign-born of responsibility for more than their per capita share of crime. It is now being suggested in some quarters that in view of these reports the Government abandon its campaign against criminal aliens.

The suggestion betrays astonishing ignorance of the movement directed by the Labor Department against undesirable foreigners. For the benefit of those who have fallen into this error it should be stated that the Law Enforcement Commission did not find that all aliens who come to this country are respectable, law-abiding individuals. Some of them are not restrained by law and live by preying upon others. It is this class of aliens that has reason to fear the Government's campaign against undesirables.

When aliens smuggle themselves into the United States in defiance of its laws they should be kicked out. If they are admitted to this country legally and then commit crime it becomes the duty of the Government to send them back to the land of their origin. Uncle Sam has no quarrel with law-abiding aliens. During the last century he has welcomed millions of them. The campaign against smuggled-in aliens and criminals is no reproach to respectable foreigners living in this country, and the suggestion that it be abandoned may be ignored as a piece of nonsense.

In times like the present it becomes an urgent duty upon the Government to throw extra safeguards around the working population, and to protect communities from the burden of caring for law-breaking aliens. Existing regulations which exclude all immigrants likely to become public charges and extra vigilance in the deportation of smuggled-in and criminal aliens give proof that the administration senses its responsibility.

THE NATIONAL AIR MEET.

The National Air Races will be held at Cleveland, beginning on Saturday and continuing with a full program until Labor Day. The meet will attract a notable gathering of fliers from all over the United States and Europe. A number of novel features will be introduced for the first time. While this annual event is designed more as a spectacle of aviation than a demonstration of utility, practical features will have a place this year.

Already the first Air Derby from California that is to end at Cleveland on the opening day is under way. Fifty-two fliers started from Santa Monica, Calif. The program of races consists of 42 closed course events and 12 special straightaway speed trials that may bring forth new records for American planes. Closed course events will also give opportunity for comparisons in flight efficiency of planes carrying maximum loads. For the first time a fleet of twelve autogyros will participate in the competitions.

Famous fliers of five European nations will participate in the races and exhibitions. The Army is to be represented by 36 pursuit planes from Selfridge Field. There will be Navy contingents both from Washington and Langley Field, in addition to a dozen planes with Marine Corps pilots.

Speed and efficiency races will be open to competition from commercial operators and builders, and keen rivalry is expected to develop this year. The crowning event will be the Thompson Trophy race on the final day, September 7, which has spurred national interest in speed records.

ONE TOWN'S EXAMPLE.

The burden of feeding the poor and helping the unemployed fell on the Community Chest in Lufkin, Tex. During the winter of 1929 the many calls for assistance reduced the reserve fund and appeals were made for money, food and clothing. Though the response was generous, many of the contributors deprived themselves in giving to this fund, which again was rapidly depleted. Then the city secured Mrs. Eva Sharpe to administer relief work.

Mrs. Sharpe immediately set about formulating a plan whereby the unemployed could be aided in helping themselves. Land was cleared by men without work, with the result that all wood used by the needy was produced without any cash outlay. Every able-bodied transient who asked for a meal was required to work twenty minutes for it. Farmers who were unable to finance the growing of a crop were put to work making walnut chairs with seats of woven rawhide, such as were used by the early Texas pioneers. These were later disposed of through the Community Chest.

The most valuable feature of Mrs. Sharpe's program, however, is the canning of surplus garden products. Many growers of prolific gardens are unable to sell their produce, and the majority of them do not preserve the surplus because of the cost of canning. Mrs. Sharpe induces the people to take their products to designated canning stations. Under the direction of the county demonstration agent the goods are preserved. Half of each person's supply goes to the Community Chest, while the other half is taken home by the producer.

As a result of Mrs. Sharpe's methods the Lufkin Community Chest has taken care of about 700 families and has spent only about half the amount of money formerly used for more limited relief. Her method not only saved money, but conserved the self-respect of the individuals who were assisted. Every one was made to feel he was contributing something for what he was given. In many cases those in need not only earned their own support, but contributed to the support of others. People can take care of themselves if they are given an opportunity.

NEW BASES FOR TAXATION.

Every State in the Union is today engaged in intensive research on the problem of taxation. Several special commissions have been appointed and it is probable that within the next few years every State will have its own tax expert. California recently established a permanent tax research bureau with a $90,000 appropriation to cover the expense of a two-year investigation. Illinois similarly appropriated $25,000, while commissions were appointed in Utah and Oklahoma, and a commissioner in Idaho will administer the new income tax.

Iowa, Maryland and Montana have authorized commissions to study taxation in State and local governments. The Vermont commission will specialize in public utilities; one in Pennsylvania will study forest and mineral taxes; Virginia will investigate common carriers, and a number of other States will follow similar courses. In virtually every State an effort is being made to find ways of reducing the tax burden on real estate by tapping new sources of revenue as well as by reducing the cost of government.

The gasoline tax has been universally popular. The general sales tax and luxury tax, though much discussed last year, were adopted only in North Carolina. Ohio and Texas imposed a tobacco levy, using the proceeds largely for education. Vermont and Maryland turned to advertising signs as a source of revenue, and Delaware, New Jersey and West Virginia capitalized the popularity of boxing and wrestling through an amusement tax. Idaho, Utah and Vermont passed income tax laws, and Missouri, Oklahoma and North Carolina increased their income tax rates.

Florida imposed a filing fee on corporations relative to capitalization in addition to a tax of $1.50 on every $100 of gross receipts by corporations furnishing light, heat, power, gas, telephone and telegraph service. Many States tax electricity and gas, and many public utility taxes were advanced this year. Ohio, however, will reduce its steam and electric railroad tax from 4 to 3 per cent after 1933.

Two difficult problems ever before tax boards remain—the banks and chain stores. Congress permits national banks to be taxed under the limitations of a Federal statute. An effort to amend this will be made by California through a special commission appointed to visit Washington this fall. The chain store tax of Indiana, though upheld by the Supreme Court of the United States, is awaiting a rehearing. Several States are withholding legislation, pending the decision, while Alabama and Florida have passed restrictive measures with the hope that the former ruling will be sustained.

It's a safe bet that Cal Coolidge is through with politics. Otherwise he would not have had his picture taken on a piece of farm machinery as if he were about to contribute his bit to the agricultural surplus.

By the use of X-ray an annual plant has been changed into a perennial at Cornell University. Hold yourselves, congressmen! So far it works only with plants.

Premier MacDonald, who is now a party leader without any party, should have the full sympathy of Senator Norris.

THE MINNESOTA PLAN

By DANIEL ROCHFORD.

Urging that farmers in other States study the results of the Minnesota plan, which raised farm income in the four States of Minnesota, Montana and the Dakotas by $700,000,000 in eight years, an average of $1,679 per farm, Publisher Frederick E. Murphy, of the Minneapolis Tribune, has launched a Nation-wide educational campaign from New York to interest the business leaders of the country in agriculture.

"Unless the 29,000,000 Americans who live on our farms prosper the Nation can not prosper," Mr. Murphy declared. "What we have accomplished in ten years in Minnesota, the Dakotas and Montana can be approximated in other regions. Our plan is to get away from wheat and go into dairying, live stock and general farming.

"In 1921 Northwestern banks were failing in waves. The fund stopped the failures. Then it financed individual farmers in the purchase of cows, live stock, sheep, and enabled them to shift over from the old style cash crops to farming which paid them income every month through the year. We loaned the farmer money with the live stock as our sole security. Yet from the live stock the farmer earned the money to pay off the loan."

Mr. Murphy, himself an operator of a 6,000-acre dairy farm in the Red River Valley, formerly devoted to wheat, specializes in Holstein-Friesian cows, and his herds hold world records for production. "One of our first steps in the Northwest," he continues, "was to get the farmers to raise their own food. Thousands of our wheat farms were without cows, pigs and chickens. And they didn't even have a garden. Yet the average grocery bill was $800 a year. That's all changed now.

"In eight years our four States gained 228,000 cows. The rest of the country put together only gained 283,000 cows. We've raised our dairy income 55 per cent since 1921, until it's a $300,000,000 income producer. Our cow-sow-hen income boosted farm profits 71 per cent since 1921, an average gain of $95,000,000 a year. And in 1930, in spite of low farm prices, our farm income held 34 per cent above 1921.

"Today, in spite of grasshoppers and drought in certain areas, the farm prosperity of the Northwest has held the whole business tone of the Northwest high. The Federal Reserve Bank survey of retail business the first six months of 1931 shows the Northwest second highest in the Nation and only 2 per cent behind the leading district, centering at Richmond, Va. Out of 185,475 farmers in Minnesota last year only 185 went bankrupt.

"Wheat is no longer the index of our prosperity. In Minnesota, known as 'the bread basket of America,' for over four years our wheat has been cut down so that it has been worth only one-quarter what the chicken crop alone brought in.

"The beauty of the Minnesota plan is that the farmers, instead of being paid unskilled labor's wages, represented by wheat growing, get skilled labor's pay represented by proper breeding of live stock, scientific farming and proper marketing. And instead of taking the beating which the varying price of raw crops, as wheat or cotton, involves, they get the relatively steadier and much higher prices for finished products—butter, eggs, meats, fruits, vegetables and general crops.

"Because our farmers own most of their creameries the farmer receives 91 cents out of every dollar paid for wholesale butter. Compare that with the wheat farmer, who gets 28 cents out of the bread dollar.

"In the Northwest we've seen the results of this plan in the 300 per cent increase of our market for automobiles and in increased sales of all manufactured goods. If the business leaders of America but stop to realize it, this undeveloped purchasing power on our Nation's 12,000,000 farms offers them much bigger and more important markets than any export trade outside our borders. It's about time the country found the only real road back to prosperity. That road is on the farms of America."

You Can't Train a Watchdog by Teaching Him to Dread a Stick.

By ROBERT QUILLEN

THE ordinary man is afraid.

That is not an indictment of his manhood, for fear is a natural and necessary safeguard in a dangerous world and in many instances serves as proof of superior wisdom.

The man who "doesn't know the meaning of fear," if a man of that kind exists outside of story books, is not a complete man and is no more worthy of admiration than the paralytic who feels no pain.

Men who deserve medals are those who drive themselves forward in line of duty when their hearts are cold with fear and their reluctant knees have no support except an iron will.

It is not fear that is shameful, for without fear there could be no heroism.

The thing that shames men is the habit of fear—the habit of cowardice.

And this habit, nine times in ten, is a heritage from childhood terrors inspired by unwise parents.

The man who cringes in dread of another's wrath or surrenders his rights to a threatening bully or accepts humiliation to avoid conflict can trace the beginning of his shame to parents who valued his skin more than his character.

When playmates threaten his rights or his property, righteous wrath will prompt him to do battle.

And from the day of his birth to the age of puberty he will fear neither the dark nor any other thing except a loud noise and a fall unless he is taught to fear them by precept, example or hurt.

Once he is taught to be afraid, nothing can overcome his multitude of fears except the knowledge gained by experience.

It is ignorance that fosters fear. We dread the unknown. Imagination fills the dark with terrors that are dispelled by knowledge.

A boy forbidden to fight under any provocation will live in dread of blows because imagination makes them ten times more painful than reality.

Coddled and shielded from all natural adventure, he will learn to fear countless things that experience would reveal as harmless.

The familiarity that breeds contempt takes away the fear of battle, the sea, high places, and all dreadful things, and "courage" comes from the knowledge that dangers are less than they seem.

A child too well protected escapes all bruises, but bruises heal and there is no balm for adult shame and self-contempt.

How to Approach Prosperity.

Topeka Capital.

In his address at the unemployment institute of the University of Chicago this month, John Maynard Keynes, the English economist, takes very similar views to those of President Hoover as to the approach to business prosperity. He holds out three main lines of approach: Restoration of confidence in both lender and borrower; new construction programs under direct auspices of government or other public authorities, and reduction in long-term interest charges. In his first address he placed first and foremost a revival of investment on the scale of 1925-29.

Mr. Hoover, in his conference some months ago with representatives of construction, mortgage and building and loan interest brought out all three points. He mentioned as Keynes does, the lack of adequate financing for home building, while not stressing so directly long-term interest rates.

Mr. Gifford's Helpers.

Baltimore Sun.

The group of 60 men and women President Hoover has selected to assist Walter S. Gifford in meeting the unemployment emergency and in heading off the congressional demand for a "dole" includes a preponderant number of successful business executives, together with a few engineers and professional men and a sprinkling of labor leaders. It might have been possible to find 60 men with a higher average of social consciousness, but the President has selected an imposing board, whose members are to be credited with a high degree of competence in their particular fields and with a desire to promote public enterprise.

Duty of the State.

Wall Street Journal.

Gov. Roosevelt's decision to ask the Legislature at its special session to deal with measures for the "relief of distress and the alleviation of unemployment" will be commended by all. If there is one thing clear it is that the resources of New York State must be opened this winter to the degree necessary to assure all its needy citizens of food, clothing and shelter.

The governor's course is in refreshing contrast to that of his neighboring executive in Pennsylvania, who seems to desire a special session of the Legislature to deal with "utilities," but wants to enlist the Federal legislature to deal with relief of distress. When we find that the resources of our State are insufficient to take care of our needy it will be time to invoke the aid of the Federal Government. But that should be the last recourse, to be had only when it is plain that there is no other.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Need for Proper Identification Emphasized by Correspondent, Who Recalls Spanish System.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Upon reading your editorial, "Keep Out the Crook," in The Post of August 21, I am tempted to add the following: Some years ago I was very much amused at the great care taken in some Spanish affidavits to identify the persons making the affidavit. My amusement has given way to respect and admiration. I understand that in Spanish countries every person is or was required to have a cedula or identification paper, which must be produced when required.

But what is the result? One person can impersonate another with impunity, unless caught in the act. A woman impersonated another—an out-of-town resident—and managed to borrow a large sum of money upon her property. She was eventually caught, convicted and sent to the penitentiary; but the person who lent the money lost it. A man impersonated a well-known resident of the city and secured the promise of a loan upon his property from one of our leading trust companies.

It is needless to say that, had there been a law requiring every person to have a cedula or identification paper, neither of these incidents would have happened.

Many similar acts of false impersonation occur, as the lack of a law requiring identification papers makes such frauds comparatively easy. We are very free in this country and our freedom helps crooks as well as honest citizens.

I am not advocating the requirement of cedulas, but only suggesting how useful such a law would be for the protection of innocent and unsuspecting persons and in the prevention of fraud.

I, therefore, think your stand in the editorial "Keep Out the Crook" well taken. It is the crook who is afraid of identification and not the honest man.

If Uncle Sam Gets Headstrong Bucking Against Prohibition May Prove to Be a Losing Game.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: The capture of that big still within six blocks of prohibition headquarters in New York City is rather suggestive. It indicates, for one thing, great boldness on the part of the liquor forces, but it shows also much efficiency of the enforcement officers, since the still had been set up only a week.

While some of your correspondents are diligent in calling attention to the immense cost of prohibition efforts, this incident, along with other similar ones, raises the question, "Is not bootlegging itself a little expensive?"

The writer remembers well how when a neighboring county once secured a prohibition statute from the legislature, the liquor interests announced defiance. To make good their threats they would gather at the county seat and "paint the town red." They said they would keep it up until the law was repealed.

The authorities also kept busy, and in due process indictments, convictions, fines and imprisonments followed. After all, this Nation-wide bucking set against the Government may prove to be a losing game. The Government itself sometimes exhibits plenty of bulldoggish determination. It's not going to be easy to overthrow it and turn everything over to the gangsters.

Hard to Draw the Line Between Spending and Saving, but There's Too Much Idle Money.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Your editorial on "Save Less, Spend More" is, in the humble opinion of the writer, exceptionally good and timely.

There can be no doubt, as we observe bulging banks and low rates of interest, that much of the slowness or recovery from depression is on account of the millions that are being hoarded. Of course, these holders of savings have various motives and each will have to decide for himself whether he will heed the call for spending, but it is a pity that so much money is idle.

There is a good opportunity to make investments at bargain prices. Yet it must be conceded that one of the most complicated questions is where to draw the line between spending and saving. He is superlatively wise who keeps the two processes always well balanced.

Not Hard to Help by Spending for What You Need.

Accordingly I went out and bought a $650 coupe, which I needed desperately, and a $45 suit of clothes, and I still have a bank account. Your suggestion is a bully one.

POPE AGAIN TO FIGHT U. S. PROSELYTIZING

Laying of Corner Stone by Methodists Near Rome Is Held Challenge.

Rome, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—Pope Pius XI plans to intensify his protests against American Protestant proselytizing in Italy, especially on the part of the Methodist Church.

With the Italo-Vatican quarrel settled, the Pope will renew the campaign against proselytizing in his next pastoral letter or allocution, it was learned today from authoritative sources.

The decision was prompted by the laying of the corner stone of a large Methodist church at Taliacozzo, not far from Rome. Elaborate ceremonies were held and Methodists went from Rome to swell the crowd of local adherents to the faith. The ceremony was regarded as a direct challenge to the Catholic Church, which was protected as the Italian faith under the Lateran Treaty.

The Taliacozzo incident caused considerable irritation at the Vatican, it was learned. The ceremony was conducted in Italian and a copy of the St. James Version of the Bible was placed in the corner stone. After the ceremony a telegram of devotion was sent to Premier Mussolini.

Other missionary efforts of Methodists in the town of Anticoli Corrado, where American pastors distributed Bibles to the people, also have attracted attention. The Catholic priest at Anticoli Corrado asked the residents to bring the Bibles to him, and he made a bonfire of the books.

The Tagliacozzo Church caused the greatest concern, however, because it was built by Italians who returned from America. The Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States previously had carried out wide plans for missionary work in Italy, but that activity was reduced to a minimum by the present laws.

One fact, generally ignored in discussion of proselytizing, is that Italians have an ancient historic Protestant denomination. It is the Waldensian Church, which was founded in the Piedmont region and which once caused Oliver Cromwell to threaten a march against the Duke of Savoy because he prosecuted the sect as Protestant. The Waldensian Church in Italy is small in numbers compared to Catholicism, but the House of Savoy has long guaranteed its right of existence.

Transamerica Denies Changes in Holdings

New York, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—At the offices of Transamerica Corporation today, it was said that published reports that the corporation contemplated distribution of its holdings in the Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, a California institution, and sale of the Bank of America National Association in New York were unauthorized and inaccurate.

While the corporation has had under discussion for some time general plans for its future development, it was stated definitely that no decision has been made and no plan adopted.

Labor Group Indorses Coal Conference Plan

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A resolution requesting President Hoover to give favorable consideration to a proposal by the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America that he call a conference of coal operators and miner representatives, to endeavor to work out a solution of coal problems, was adopted by the State Federation of Labor in convention here today.

Kansans Thank Murray For Boosting Oil Price

Oklahoma City, Okla., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—About 300 Kansas oil men motored to Oklahoma City today to thank Gov. W. H. Murray for obtaining higher prices for crude petroleum.

Harry Patton, of Wichita, Kans., leader of the delegation, congratulated the executive for closing flush wells in Oklahoma by martial law and his efforts to "take the industry out of chaos."

'Big Bill' Thompson's Name Upsets Parley

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A "Thompson for Governor" boom got under way here today and completely upset the equilibrium of an otherwise peaceful Republican love feast.

Party leaders, who had gathered to discuss, among other things, the make-up of a State ticket, were thrown into turmoil on finding the city festooned with "Draft Thompson for Governor" banners.

The Chicago delegation, besieged by excited downstate leaders, disclaimed authorship of the propaganda. Big Bill himself, reached via the telephone in Chicago, was as much mystified as any one else.

Finally State Representative R. F. Locke came forward and admitted responsibility. The banners, however, he said, were intended to boost the prospective candidacy of University of Illinois College of Commerce dean, Charls M. Thompson. Lack of space on the placards had prevented printing of his complete name.

'BORAX' SMITH DIES FROM FALL INJURIES

California Miner Was Famed for Discoveries Made in Death Valley.

Oakland, Calif., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Francis M. (Borax) Smith, early-day California mining and real estate magnate, who made a fortune almost overnight when he discovered borax in Death Valley, died at an Oakland hospital today of injuries received in a fall at his home here three days ago.

Smith, who was 84, once possessed a fortune estimated at many millions. As he invested heavily in real estate, traction companies and Nevada mining properties, Smith's wealth diminished and when he died only a small portion was reported left.

A year ago he auctioned off an art collection valued at $1,800,000 at his Oakland home. At one time Mr. Smith was the head of an East Bay water company, a traction company, and a syndicate developing East Bay real estate properties. His wife, Mrs. Evelyn Ellis Smith, and three daughters and a son survive him.

Probably the most colorful part of his career was in the early days, when he drove "twenty mule teams" to transport the borax from Death Valley to rail heads at Barstow and Zabriskie.

Germans Weigh League Policies

Austrian Pact Importance Dwindles in View of Wider Crisis.

Berlin, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—The cabinet met briefly today to discuss the policy to be followed by the German delegation at the forthcoming League of Nations council and assembly.

Foreign Minister Curtius, head of the delegation, who is leaving for Geneva Saturday, outlined the most important problems expected to occupy the attention of the league statesmen.

The Austro-German customs union, concerning which The Hague court's decision is expected to be made public in Geneva September 2, about the time the council convenes, will be in the forefront. Whatever the court's decision turns out to be, however, there is little likelihood, Dr. Curtius indicated, of the proposed union becoming the center of an acrimonious political debate.

Germany no longer is attaching the same importance to the plan, which is looked upon as having been swallowed up in the vastly widened economic crisis.

LEONARD WOOD, JR., DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Tragic Incidents Marked the Life of Son of Noted Major General.

New York, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Leonard Wood, jr., son of the distinguished major general, whose 39 years encompassed a series of tragic incidents that finally led him to polishing brass rails on a harbor boat, died in a hospital today.

Weakened by an attack of influenza four years ago, the son of the late Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, former Governor General of the Philippines, succumbed to a sudden onset of lobar pneumonia in Bellevue Hospital.

"He came into my office last Monday complaining of an acute pain in his side," said his friend, Edward E. Miller, an attorney. "He telephoned Dr. Fiegen, of the psychopathic ward, and asked for an examination of his chest. When he got there his condition was so serious they could not transfer him to anotehr ward."

In a comparatively short life, Wood experienced the first warm glow of success as a writer and then plunged into bankruptcy.

Only a few months ago friends found him polishing brass rails on a harbor boat. He was penniless and discouraged. The death of his father in 1927 had moved him deeply, friends said.

When the World War started young Wood was a student at Cornell University, studying playwriting. His military strain moved him late in 1916 to join the British army, and when the United States entered the war the following year he transferred at once. In 1919 he emerged as a lieutenant in the ambulance service.

For the next half dozen years he wrote short stories and articles for various magazines, as well as a number of plays. One or two of his plays were on the verge of production, but negotiations failed at the last moment.

In 1924 he engaged briefly in banking and became head of the Acme Production Corporation, an oil company which came under investigation by the Postoffice Department. The following year he was adjudged bankrupt with liabilities of $14,585 and assets of $842.

He suffered the influenza attack when he accompanied his father to the Pacific Northwest, a few months before the latter died in Boston.

His much-publicized brother, Brig. Gen. Osborne C. Wood, now adjutant general of New Mexico, was en route by airplane from Santa Fe to attend the funeral services.

Other survivors include his mother, Mrs. Louise Wood, and a sister, Miss Louisita Wood, both of whom are in Germany.

where the number out of work was three times what it was a year ago, and in building, where joblessness had reached the unprecedented proportion for summer months of 51 per cent.

While this summary of the situation was being given out by Green, Gifford was proceeding at his office in the Commerce Department Building with plans for a national drive for relief funds beginning October 19.

Gifford was appointed by President Hoover a week ago yesterday. Since that time he has spent a week-end with President Hoover at the Rapidan, discussing the situation, opened headquarters here and laid out the general outlines of the Federal relief program.

Comet Flashes Past U. S. At 100 Miles Per Second

(Associated Press.)

Ryves' Comet, a newly-discovered wanderer of the Solar System, flashed over the United States yesterday and on into outer space, probably never to return.

The Naval Observatory said the comet, a ball of white-hot gas, speeding at fully 100 miles per second and perhaps even faster, probably was not visible to the naked eye anywhere in the United States.

It has been seen through telescopes at Yerkes Observatory, Williams Bay, Wis., and the University of California Observatory at Berkeley. P. M. Ryves, a British amateur astronomer, discovered the comet August 14 with a small telescope at Saragosa, Spain.

The best chance of seeing the comet with the naked eye, the observatory said, is at sunrise or sunset. It would appear as a small star, but the gaseous tail that trails behind it would not be visible.

The comet passed closest to the sun, within 7,000,000 miles, on August 26, the observatory reported. Now it is speeding into outer space and no one yet knows when it will circle back in sight of the earth, if at all.

Many comets appear once to astronomers and never are seen again. They may follow orbits so huge that it takes them an untold number of years to return within sight of the earth, or they may disintegrate and cease to exist.

What Today Means to You

"VIRGO."

IF August 28 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 a. m. to 11:45 a. m., from 2:15 p. m. to 4:30 p. m., and from 9 p. m. to 11:15 p. m. The danger hours are from noon to 2 p. m., and from 6:30 p. m. to 8:45 p. m.

The astrological aspects on August 28 are excellent and the signs point to a day of success and happiness. One may look forward to a great deal of material gain in commercial and speculative undertakings, and it is a most opportune time for launching new schemes. Harmony and congeniality will exist in the home circle; many happy and lasting marriages are predicted.

A child born on this August 28 will possess a most active and fanciful imagination, but will be inclined to exaggerate things to an alarming degree. This habit should be checked early in life, for it might cause serious trouble in later years. It will have a highly impressionable and artistic temperament, but its emotional and mental faculties will be fairly well balanced.

If born on August 28, you have a very vivid and magnetic personality, with an amazing attraction for the opposite sex. Your likes and dislikes are very strong, and you take no pains in concealing them. Your nature is entirely frank and surprisingly tactless. You would do well to be a trifle slower in your judgment of other people, as too often your heart rules your head. People who do not come up to your standard of culture or intelligence are of no interest to you, and you discard them as quickly as you can, revealing a rather selfish nature.

You are rather erratic in your actions and are forever changing your mode of existence. This restlessness will lead you to travel extensively, and your horoscope indicates a life of extreme activity and curious adventure. You should accomplish much, for you possess an unlimited supply of energy and vitality, and pursue, in a dogmatic spirit, any enterprize in which you are interested. Your untiring efforts are usually crowned with success, and you will in later years make for yourself a very desirable position in life.

You are a very great student, and possess a wonderful gift of language, which should prove a great asset to you in your career. Your home life will be fairly successful, but a less dictatorial disposition on your part will be needed.

Indoor—Outdoor Gardens

By JANE LESLIE KIFT

FOR THE SHADY GARDEN.

USUALLY the shady garden is a moist garden, due to the absence of sun to dry out the surface soil. Should the shade be caused by trees, we have a soil that is not very fertile, due to the hungry roots of the strong growing trees.

House plants such as ferns, begonias or palms do very well under trees. You can stand the pots on boards on the ground. These plants will revel in such a location because they are naturally shade lovers. Never set the pots directly on the soil, for in that case they will be apt to contain worms when the time comes to take them into the house in early October.

Among the shrubs which could be planted this fall and which will all tolerate shade are regels, privet, California privet, rhododendron and barberry.

For the shady city garden, which is shaded by nearby buildings rather than by trees, we have forget-me-nots, myrtle ferns, violets, spring bulbs and tuberous-rooted begonias.

And among the vines which will tolerate shade are kedsu (Japanese), Dutchman's pipe, ampelopsis, English ivy and euonymous.

Under trees or on a shady bank where grass refuses to grow the only wise solution to the problem is to plant some reliable ground-cover plant which will grow in shade.

The two outstanding plants for such a location are the English ivy and the Japanese spurge (pachysandra). On almost any home ground there are bare spots under shrubs or trees which could be successfully covered with ground-cover plants, which mass naturally. Of course, it takes more than one season for the plants to attain a growth sufficiently close to really cover the ground, but when the ground is covered the plants will remain for years and require slight attention.

While I personally like Japanese spurge as a ground cover, periwinkle makes just as close a plantation when established. Either of these varieties may be successfully grown from cuttings.

Jane Claire Interprets the Mode

New York, August 28.

WHAT are you going to wear beneath your autumn frocks a few weeks from now? You'll have to wear something, you know! Shadowgraphs have been known to appear at embarrassing moments through wool crepe, satin or even chiffon velvet frocks, and the fact that our frocks are of darker colors as well as heavier sounding fabrics doesn't exempt us a bit from the Great Slip Question!

But must it be a slip? Ah, that, my deahs, is the long, long story I shall tell you today!

Once Upon a Time.

Away back in autumn, 1930, there lived a smart and modern and beautiful young lady. She had a handful of bright, shiny pennies wherewith to buy herself pretties to wear to work and play. So she went to the stores, and she bought a wool frock here and a satin one there, a handful of romantic little hats and a footful of dainty little shoes. She bought a sports coat and a smart little fur jacket—'n' then, when she had only a couple of the shiny coins left, she found she hadn't bought any slips or any petticoats to wear between her tight little shorts and her stunning little frocks!

Well, she knew perfectly well that the silhouette of the frocks, as well as the preservation of her modesty, depended on having slips or petticoats—so she sat herself down and went into a long think-session and what do you suppose she figured out? Since she didn't have enough money for a very good slip or a very good petticoat, she bought some very good material and made herself a slip, o-o-o-h, the swankiest wrap-around one, with an adjustable top!

Only it wasn't a slip exactly. Sometimes it was a petticoat because, she figured out, when the blouse was perfectly opaque, why should she wear extra bulk and have to suffer extra warmth? And she made it in such a way that the top and bottom could be hitched together in an instantaneous and easy and ornamental way, and voila—a complete slip. 'N' one day, after she had used the combination petti-slip as both petticoat and slip, she wore a heavy, full circular skirt and a chiffon blouse, and discovered that the top of the "invention" made a perfectly gorilicious—what shall we call it? It does sound so quaint to say "camisole!" But that's just what it was, and mighty useful did the lovely lady find it.

She told me all about it, and said I could tell you just how to make the same combination outfit for yourself. So-o-o, I made the leaflet and it's all ready for your stamped, self-addressed envelope which you should rush to the Dare department of The Washington Post. It's about ten times as nice as you can imagine to have one undie that serves 'steen purposes with a smile!

• • • •

What of the poor unfortunate lovely lady who scorches the very most conspicuous part of her blouse in her hurry? She calmly takes three drops of peroxide in three tablespoons of cold water, sponges the scorched spot, represses it, and no one knows the difference! And it works on colored materials as well as white, too!

• • • •

Quick, now, your stamped, self-addressed envelope had better gallop to the Dare department of The Post for one of the few remaining leaflets giving valuable hints on getting ready now for autumn.

• • • •

Au revoir!

Cumberland Fair Is Hurt by Storm

Dog Show Draws Large Night Crowd; Rain Halts Fireworks.

Special to The Washington Post.

Cumberland, Md., Aug. 27.—The attendance today at the Cumberland Fair did not measure up to the usual Thursday, always the big day of fair week, due to a heavy storm at noon. The track had been heavy from a rain last night which interrupted the fireworks and drove every one to cover.

The dog show, which ended tonight after two days exhibition, was the novelty, drawing a large patronage. Much interest was shown in the setters, especially the entry of Judge Henry, which included Grose Blue Pal, champion stud. The setters were judged late today.

Mrs. Tessie Hartman, of Cleveland, was here with her Pekingese dogs, one of which is the smallest of the breed in America.

In the sporting group and in the beagles, it is claimed no finer class of dogs has been shown anywhere. Mayor Howard W. Jackson will be here tomorrow for Baltimore Day.

Maryland School Act Effective Soon

Provision Raises Compulsory Limit From 13 to 14 for Employment.

Baltimore, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A new provision of the State compulsory attendance law, passed by the recent session of the Legislature, goes into effect with the opening of the fall term of public schools.

The new provision raises the compulsory limit for attendance one year, so that children must remain in school until they are 14 years old. Formerly they could withdraw if 13 years of age and had attended night school for 100 days, provided they obtained regular and lawful employment.

Parents should not be confused in believing that their children may now be free to discontinue school when they reach 14, for they can do this only when regularly and lawfully employed, it was pointed out. The compulsory age limit remains the same, from 7 to 16 years of age.

'Elusive as an Eel' Proves True, Ocean Hunter Finds

Chief Mystery Concerns Breeding Place, Opines Mate, Believing Nursery to Be Somewhere in Mid-atlantic, Where He Made Catches.

Boston, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—The simile, "elusive as an eel," is well founded, and you have the word of S. E. Clowser for it. Mr. Clowser is mate of the ketch Atlantis, new scientific vessel of the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution.

Most of her crew were ashore today stretching their legs, for the Atlantis arrived in port from Copenhagen, where she was built, after 41 days at sea. But Clowser remained aboard, to receive customs men and others interested in the Atantis' arrival, and, among other things, to discuss eels.

Of course a person who has never seen a baby eel could hardly be expected to show much interest in the tribe. But Clowser has seen many of them—yanked 'em out of the ocean depths, as jars of "pickled" eels aboard the Atlantis testify.

The chief mystery about eels concerns their breeding place, for it is a well-known fact that they do not breed alongshore or in fresh-water ponds, where they are often caught. The Atlantis made her maiden voyage a scientific cruise, largely in an effort to find the eel breeding place. Clowser thinks the nursery must be somewhere in midatlantic, for there a number of baby eels were taken.

A baby eel does not resemble an eel at all. Shaped like the leaf of a willow tree, it is thin as a piece of paper and so transparent that in the water only its eyes are visible, says Clowser.

Clowser also displayed numerous jars of grotesque fish taken from great depths. Some of the oddest, which scientists may or may not identify, are equipped with phosphorescent headlights. He suspects one of the species uses his single headlight, carried a bit ahead on a short antenna, to lure other fish when he is hungry.

Another species has several lights along each side.

Samples of plankton, small, almost microscopic sea life, also were brought in. This was obtained in a silk net. It is a substance upon which various forms of sea life subsist.

The Atlantis is in command of Capt. C. O'Diselen, widely known yachtsman and scientist. She carries a crew of twenty officers and men, two chemists, and two biologists.

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT

By ELY CULBERTSON

PSYCHOLOGY IN SLAM BIDDING.

Up to contracts of four and possibly five odd, various systems concerned with card valuation enable a partnership to arrive at quite accurate estimates of the combined strength held. Beyond that they are admittedly largely inapplicable for the reason that the position or holding of a certain Ace or King may be determining, whereas a corresponding high card may be valueless, also because a hand becomes less flexible in the play the higher the contract is. Several artificial conventions are in use to assist in arriving at Slams, such as showing of Aces and voids, but the information thus conveyed is usually dependent for success upon too many other factors to counterbalance the disadvantages.

I believe the natural method of Approach advocated in the Forcing System to be conducive to the best results; but successful Slam bidding must always be based upon very keen card sense and insight into the partner's psychology, rather than mathematics.

Different tactics should apply in bidding for a Slam from those used in merely contracting for game. Inasmuch as contracting for game is the only way to win a rubber, there is a wide range of hands with which it is necessary to take a chance. With a poor or unknown partner, however, it is unwise to try for a Small Slam unless holding somewhat better than a 2-to-1 chance, while a Grand Slam should not be attempted with anything but a practical certainty. The risk of a misplay is too great, while the opportunity to conclude an undesirable partnership successfully should not be jeopardized by a doubtful Slam bid.

In bidding for a Slam it is an important precaution to follow a reversed process of reasoning—i. e., count losers and visualize possible losing combinations rather than add automatically one's values to those shown by the partner's bidding. Close consideration should always be given to both, the partner's and the opponents' nature and their state of mind at the time.

The following are examples of psychology in Slam bidding by Waldemar von Zedwitz, one of the world's ranking Contract players and who today holds as many championships earned at the Bridge table as any other person.

The Bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♣	Pass	3 ♠	Pass
6 ♠	Pass	7 ♣

North having forced the bidding with a four-card suit suddenly lost the courage of his convictions and decided to push the responsibility back to South. South, who knew his partner should have foreseen some such eventuality and bid five spades only, six clubs would then have been bid and made.

♦ A J

South	West	North	East
6 ♥	Pass	7 ♥

Holding North's hand, Mr. von Zedwitz reasoned that if his partner (one of the finest players in the country) could open with a two-bid and then bid six hearts over an adverse bid without the certain knowledge that he, Mr. von Zedwitz, held the Ace of hearts, there could be no other losing tricks. It turned out that his partner's reasoning was entirely different. It was to the effect that Mr. von Zedwitz must have a very good chance of making six hearts, if he had only two spades or the Queen.

The hands given are, I think, all reasonably close. Yet a little keener psychology would have averted disaster in any one of them.

The Raise.

The term Raise is restricted to assists of partner's bids. The inference from the Raise is that partner's bid seems to be the best for the combined hands and that no further search is necessary. At the same time the raising strength of the hand is inferred from the number of Raises given:

To illustrate:

(Dealer)

South North
1 Spade 3 Spades

The first inference is that North has fair trump support and that spades is presumably the best bid.

The second inference is that North, who made a double Raise, has about five supporting tricks—that much more or less. The last inference is based on the principle that when able to raise more than once, full value of Raises must be given in a single bid.

Wives of Tomorrow

FRANCES M'DONALD

He Won't Get Mad.

DEAR MISS M'DONALD: I have always read carefully the letters submitted to you from various readers. I even nearly completed a letter to you, about nine months ago, changed my mind, destroyed it, and married the man.

We have been married six months and that letter has come to the fore. Here's the problem:

I am nearly 19 and crave fun; by that I mean company, shows, walks, rides, &c.

I like clothes, but they have never been an obsession with me. I smoke, drink if it's necessary and swear when I feel like it. Inclined to be talkative and friendly which I realize is my weak point. I'm hasty and when angered say things I shouldn't.

I am beginning to believe I have no fact. I'm just plain blunt. Still and all married I can attract men if I want to, but that's the funny side of this story. I'm too much in love with my husband, too much, at least, for my own good.

He, on the other hand, is the exact opposite of me. That is, he's quiet, loves me in his own way and works for his home. He likes company, too, and pretty nearly everything I do.

I'm erratic and I like sympathy, and I did myself a bad turn after marriage by "falling in love" with my husband. Before we were married he fought hard for me, now he just takes me for granted. He won't argue and that "burns me up." Afterward he'll tell me that I don't understand his ways and he even hints that I'm a nagger. Other girls hold no interest for him. I'm his one and only, but that doesn't pacify me. By the way, he's 22 and sensible. Is it that I'm not capable of assuming the responsibilities marriage has thrust upon me or am I being downright childish?

Some friends were staying with us over night and he seemed to expect me to wait on them like a servant. He kept telling me what to do, and the funny looks he gave me made me so cross I wouldn't speak to him the rest of the night. This morning I asked him if he knew what it was all about, and then explained that I was no slave. I berated him for being so considerate of others and so unconsiderate of me and he went to work in silence.

What can I do? GRATEFUL.

Now, just what is the burning question here? How to make a husband argue when he will not? Or how to make a wife give up arguing? World acclaim awaits the one that can do either. The strong, silent man has been the bane of woman's irate hours since time began. Only the woman who owns one knows what I mean—or the half of what I mean. There is but one type more maddening and that is the one who says, "Now, now, do not go and get a headache—" ! ! ! Oh, what we women have to bear. Headaches are the least of our troubles when we wish to storm around and raise dust. With all the world to choose from we pick these heroes in bronze and spend the rest of our days trying to inveigle them into the ring for a few rounds of plain and fancy scrapping. Only to be met with smelling salts and soothing words—or the exasperating silence of simple manly dignity. What a life!

And that seems to be "Grateful's" trouble. If the hero would only just bang the door. But no. To the bitter end these strong-and-silents remain strong and silent. So all we can do is learn to like it—or pray we may die young. Sorry we can not help you, "Grateful," but we have been trying for years to get one of these bronzes mad and we are just where we started. Some people were born to shame the rest of us. And all we can do is cheat them out of the chance. So try that, "Grateful." And save a lot of perfectly good pep!

U. S. AGENTS CAUGHT WITH CAR OF LIQUOR

Georgia Court Indicts Pair After Collision With Police Auto.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Federal prohibition authorities here disclosed today that two undercover agents from New Orleans are under indictment in the State court at Alpharetta, Ga., on charges of rum-running as a consequence of their undercover activities.

Indicted with them is a man known as "Red" Turner, described by Federal officers as a liquor runner.

Authorities said the undercover agents, J. P. Carter and C. Hebson, came to Atlanta recently, announced their intention of selling liquor and transacted business with a number of north Georgia blockaders to whom Turner introduced them.

Recently, the Federal officers said, the agents and Turner were driving through Alpharetta at night with 40 gallons of liquor in their automobile and collided with another car driven by the chief of police there.

All were arrested, but the agents were released upon disclosing their identity. Later, however, they were indicted with Turner.

Dispatches received here today quoted R. E. Tuttle, Federal prohibition administrator at New Orleans, as saying the arrests and indictments constituted attempts by "local authorities to muddy the waters in retaliation for Federal activities in the vicinity."

He said Carter and Hebson had been purchasing liquor from blockaders in north Georgia for some time and their testimony had led to the conviction and imprisonment of the blockaders' leader.

He said they were en route to Atlanta with 40 gallons of liquor to be used as evidence at the time they were arrested at Alpharetta.

Friends of Lester Isaacs, former projectionist at Loew's Palace Theater and who later became interested in a number of theater properties in the Capital, will be surprised and pleased to learn of his marriage to Phyllis Cameron, specialty dancer now performing in "The Band Wagon" in New York. News of the wedding has just leaked out, it seems, being passed along to me by Jim Lundy, the event having taken place on August 9 with Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Cullen as best man and bridesmaid. The Cullens were then on vacation and Isaacs called upon them to aid him. Mrs. Isaacs has been seen in "Whoopee," "Fine and Dandy," "New Moon" and "Rain or Shine." The newlyweds have established a residence in London Terrace in New York.

And here are some last-minute flashes from some of my very best West Coast operatives. Frances Agnew has joined Paramount's writing staff. Ten former collegiate football stars have been signed for "Touchdown," a football yarn Paramount will produce. J. H. Kerr has one of the most unique pet farms in the world. He guarantees to furnish film directors with any small animal desired for the pictures. Facial makeup for women was a common practice in China more than 4,000 years ago, according to Anna May Wong, Chinese actress, who will star in "Daughter of the Dragon." Georges Metaxa, London stage favorite, who is soon to make his debut in films, is reported to be the best-dressed man on the screen. His advice to men who would be Beau Brummels is to have 40 assorted suits, 3 tuxedos, 3 full-dress suits, 10 overcoats, 100 shirts, 100 pairs of socks, 80 cravats, 8 hats, 24 pairs of shoes, 24 pairs of pajamas, 12 dressing gowns, 5 dozen kerchiefs, 3 pairs bedroom slippers, 18 pairs of gloves, 12 belts, 30 suits of undergarments, 5 pairs of garters and a varied assortment of sport clothes. Boy, where is that other shoe lace.

Los Angeles, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—The whirlpool of charges, countercharges and anonymous threats that eddied in the wake of the David H. Clark murder trial brought from Buron Fitts, district attorney, a denial today of reports he would dismiss the murder charge Monday. He said he would ask that a new trial date be set.

Fitts said certain information had been given him concerning two of the twelve jurors who were dismissed Sunday when they became deadlocked at 11 to 1 for acquittal, and that he planned an investigation. Clark was tried for killing Herbert Spencer, former newspaperman, and pleaded self defense. Charles H. Crawford, politician, also was slain by Clark.

Man Denies Spreading Rumors About Bank

New York, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—James H. O'Connell, 25, indicted Tuesday on a charge of spreading false rumors concerning the Chatham Phenix National Bank & Trust Co., pleaded not guilty when arraigned today.

FALL TO LURE MANY TO WOODLAND BEACH

Yearning for Outdoors Can Be Satisfied at Post Resort on River.

Bright fall days, when there is just the right crispness in the air, probably produce more yearning for the outdoors than do the hot, lazy days of summer. And when nature beckons you to come and see her in her most gorgeous raiment, there is no better place to do so than at Woodland Beach, The Washington Post resort development on South River in Maryland.

There during the delightful autumn months a golden sun reflects on the placid waters of the South River and its coves. Crimson, tan, pale yellow and all the other fall colors of the trees form a background of beauty for the snug little cottages nestling on and around the 4½ miles of waterfront which the property boasts.

A day, a week-end or a month spent at Woodland Beach during this "perfect" period of the year will serve only to make you better physically and mentally. And such outings are available to every resident of the Capital.

Purchasing property at Woodland Beach is ridiculously easy. In the first place, lots cost only $93. Secondly, the down payment consists only of $9 together with the price of a subscription to The Post. Easy terms have been arranged for those who want them, the balance to be paid at the rate of $3.50 per month.

Take a trip down to the Beach Sunday and you will marvel at the progress which has been made since the development was first announced in the early summer. Join your friends and neighbors who have bought and built into a real resort only 32 miles from home.

FRIDAY AUGUST 28, 1931 SPORTS

DEMPSEY COMEBACK STIRS NEW YORK PROMOTERS

This MORNING with SHIRLEY L. POVICH

BABE RUTH will seek a managerial berth in the big leagues at the end of the 1933 season, when he will have completed twenty years of major league play, he confided to an interviewer the other day in Chicago.

Ruth has set the 1934 season for his managerial debut. He is correct in assuming that he will have no difficulty in obtaining a pilot's post. Each league produces seven losing managers each season and Ruth would fit in very nicely in any of their berths.

The Babe, for all his home-run hitting and assorted and other long-distance clouts, long has been recognized as managerial timber. He has a reputation as a smart baseball man, with the rather novel record of never having made a throw from the outfield to the wrong base.

May Reconsider

But the Babe may not be so eager to accept a managerial post at the end of the 1933 season if he is able to maintain or approach the pace that he has set for himself in his eighteen years in the big leagues. Salaries calling for $80,000 per annum, which Ruth earns, are not parceled out to big league managers. Only a Ruth, playing every day, or almost every day, is worth the sum to a big league club.

Ruth's managerial salary may represent a tidy sum, but it can not hope to approximate the stipend he receives as a ball player. Christy Walsh, his business manager, will sanction no such sacrifice in salary that the Babe would have to make to accept a manager's job if he is able to continue as a ball player.

Two seasons ago the managership of the Yankess was Ruth's for the taking after the death of Miller Huggins. But a manager's job is far more precarious than a ball player's. The ball player can hit .330 and consider his season a success though the ball club may finish in seventh place. Not so with the manager. The batting averages are no reflection or credit to his ability. His team must be up in the running or the managerial head is in a position to be guillotined by the front office board of finance.

Ruth turned down the managership of the Yankees in 1929 and accepted instead an $80,000 contract for two years, the highest figure ever drawn by a ball player, a wage that exceeded even that of President Hoover and Judge Landis. Bob Shawkey was given Huggins' post. Ample testimony of the thin ice on which a manager treads with a losing club is found in the fact that Shawkey was given his release at the end of the season, though the Yankees finished in third place.

Last fall again the managerial reins of the Yankees was Ruth's for the taking. But he declined, preferring to operate under the terms of the second year of his $80,000 contract and take his chances on earning a renewal of it by his play on the field. The job went to Joe McCarthy.

The expiration of his contract has ever been a signal for Ruth to give his best. In the last season of every previous contract, Ruth had the happy faculty of performing at his best and earning a renewal at a better figure. History is repeating itself this season. He is again leading the home-run pack and giving Al Simmons a fight for the league batting leadership. The Yanks will be pleased to renew his contract for $80,000. No less, maybe more.

Johnson's Case

Only as a player or a playing manager would Ruth be worth an $80,000 contract to the Yankees. His retirement from active competition would rob the game of its greatest drawing card. Ruth as a bench manager would not boast the fan-pulling propensities of Ruth as a ball player.

The case of Walter Johnson is in point. The Big Train was a sure bet to attract the greatest crowd of any series the Nats played if there was advance notice that he was to pitch. Johnson, on the bench, is no longer a drawing card. Altrock and Schacht pull more fans through the gate than does the old pitching idol in his managerial toga.

Net Favorites Ousted in Doubles

By BILL KING.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Stroking a deadly mixture of lobs and drives, Bruce Barnes, Austin, Tex., and Clifford Sutter, New Orleans, today provided the national doubles tennis tourney with its first major upset by gaining the semifinal round at the expense of Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, the sensational Californians.

These West Coast youngsters, who had suffered only one previous defeat all season, were the outstanding favorites to capture the title held by Johnny Doeg and George Lott for the past two years.

They appeared overtennised, especially Gledhill, as they bowed by scores of 4—6, 10—8, 10—12, 8—6, 6—3.

A heavy afternoon shower fell on Doeg and Lott and halted their even battle with Sidney Wood and Frank Shields, United States Davis Cup singles stars.

Rivals Each Won Set.

This match stood at one set all and the champions had a four-three lead on service in the third when the downpour washed them off the court. They will resume at that point tomorrow and the victors will then play their semifinal.

It was also a tragic occasion for Frederick J. Perry and George Patrick Hughes, the British Davis Cup pair, who were overthrown by Wilmer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn, last year's runner-up, in their rush to the semifinals. The scores were 4—6, 6—3, 4—6, 6—3, 6—3.

To end the match in such fashion, Allison played sensational tennis, piling up more than his share of points by sharpshooting the steady Britishers with angle placements from just inside the net.

Mangin and Bell had an easy afternoon's work as they outsteadied Edward Jacobs, of Baltimore, and Wilbur F. Coen, jr., Kansas City, for a straight set decision, 6—4, 6—2, 6—4, swinging the best racquets all through the match.

Lobbying Upsets Vines And Gledhill.

Vines and Gledhill were greatly upset by steady lobbing yesterday when they came from behind and defeated Arnold Jones and Jimmy Van Alen, after spotting these Rhode Islanders two sets.

Barnes and Sutter had even better equipment to bother the Californians, for the Texan has never been volleying better. He had to work furiously holding up Sutter's weak service during the first three sets but the former intercollegiate champion got going in time to join the final attack on the wavering Gledhill, whose service breaks caused the Californians' surprising downfall.

Only one mixed doubles match was completed before the storm and Dorothy Round, England, and Lester Stoeffer, Los Angeles, used the encounter to get into the second round by defeating Katherine Winthrop, Winchester, Mass., and Clayton Burwell, Charlotte, N. C., 6—2, 8—6.

Three veterans doubles matches were played. S. Jarvis Adams and H. H. Bassford, New York, the defending champions, led the survivors into the quarter-finals. Three matches were also completed in the father and son play. J. D. and Arnold Jones, of Providence, R. I., who have won this championship for the last three years, lapped the field by defeating Samuel and W. F. Rockwell, North Andover, Mass., 6—1, 6—2 for a semifinal berth.

Two netmen who have done much to further the cause of tennis in the Navy, Capt W. S. Anderson and Commander C. C. Gill, of Washington, D. C., fell in the quarter-final round of the veterans tournament before the drives of two former nationally known players, C. C. "Teddy" Pell and A. N. Seggio, of Boston and New York.

Phils Beat Reds, 6-5; On Whitney's Homer

Philadelphia, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Pinkey Whitney's home run into the left field bleachers in the eighth inning with the score tied at 5 to 5 gaves the Phillies a 6-to-5 victory today over the Cincinnati Reds in the last game of the series.

Crabtree also hit a home run in the sixth inning. The Phillies used four pitchers, Jim Elliott finally getting credit for the win, his fifteenth of the year.

Usually the number of contestants in the larger classes is smaller than in the lightweight division, but this was not the case yesterday. In the 115-pound running high jump there were 62 entries, and in the 115-pound 60-yard dash there were 73.

Yesterday's meet closes the summer track schedule, in which between 15,000 and 20,000 boys and girls have competed in preliminary and championship meets. Miss Sibyl Baker, supervisor of playgrounds, stated last night that in the four city championship meets—white boys and girls and colored boys and girls—about 6,000 youngsters have competed.

Comeback Is Last Thing Dempsey Has to Sell to Prize Fight Customers

By WESTBROOK PEGLER.
Special to The Washington Post.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Jack Dempsey's comeback campaign was inevitable, but it was shrewd of him to save it for the last. It is the last thing he has to sell, except the true story of his life, and he can't very well sell that until a lot of other people have died and the literary appetite of the public becomes even more rugged than it is.

When the comeback campaign is over, Dempsey will finally have to retire to something like the proprietorship of a prize fighters' gymnasium and occasional forays into split-week burlesque. He will come bobbing up at the training camps of young prize fighters, I suppose, and, for a few bills and a couple of free tickets to the fight, for self and lady, will lend his name to newspaper articles comparing the principals in the present match with the men of his day, who, of course, will have been from men.

The old former champions always say the men of their day were more daring and sporting than the principals in the present match, who are spoiled by the generosity of the customers and by easy living and thinking of nothing but monetary gain. Dempsey has sweated his career as no other lame-duck champion, actor or politician ever did.

First, he was a prize fighter and, thanks in part to the sublime gall of a manager who had no more modesty than Venus, he came into more money as a prize fighter than any other prize fighter that ever lived.

Undoubtedly he had something of his own to sell the customers, and I would not say that Jack Kearns could have dropped Boer Rodel into the same situations and commanded the same money with him. When Dempsey fought Tunney in Chicago the customers paid almost $3,000,000, but when Tunney, on his own as a drawing card, met Thomas Heeney in his first and only fight as champion of the world in his own home town, the Garden Corporation was out of pocket paying him off. This is the parallel.

Still, Jack Kearns asked Tex Rickard for $300,000 for Dempsey and refused to take a dollar less at a time when Dempsey, himself, and Kearns, himself, for that matter, would have been pleased to compromise for a little less than half of that, if necessary.

Aside from active pugilism, Dempsey, since he lost the heavyweight championship, has engaged in a number of activities.

He went to Florida with Rickard, who was intending to start an American Monte Carlo on Miami Beach. When Rickard died, Dempsey, who had never cared much for Tex, was very sad about it all and turned promoter of the Sharkey-Stribling prize fight in memory of dear old Tex.

Returning to New York, he threw in with a party who hoped to build a fight club bigger than the Garden, one of those occasional nuts who bob up with a wild idea and money to waste on the same. Where this nut got his money is neither here nor there, but Dempsey sold him an option on his services as matchmaker for $40,000, and when the option expired and there was no fight club Dempsey sidled into the Hudson tube

Poreda Batters Hunt To Gain Easy Victory

Boston, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Stanley Poreda, Jersey City heavyweight, gave Babe Hunt, Ponca City, Okla., a severe ten-round battering here tonight in the Argonne A. A.'s feature contest.

Poreda's lusty two-fisted hooks opened several cuts on his towering opponent's face and gave him the honors in all but one of the ten rounds. Poreda weighed 202 and the Oklahoman 191½.

A feud that began 25 years ago was renewed when Sam Langford and Joe Jeanette, famous Negro battlers, put on a three-round exhibition.

KRIEGER WINS BOUT.

New York, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Before the largest crowd which has turned out so far for the weekly "new talent" boxing shows in Madison Square Garden, Solly Krieger, New York middleweight, easily outpointed Hans Mueller, of Germany, in the main eight-rounder tonight. About 5,000 fans saw the show.

Star Amateurs At Tourney Site

Chicago, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—Leading amateur golf stars from all sections of the country began arriving here today for the national amateur championship at Beverly Country Club, beginning Monday.

Approximately half of the field of 152 players which will compete in the second qualifying test Monday and Tuesday is here to get in a few practice strokes before the tournament opens.

Four of the leading contenders from the East, Gene Homans, Englewood, N. J.; T. Phil Perkin, New York; George T. Dunlap, jr., New York, and Roland MacKenzie, Wilmington, Del., were in the first contingent.

Fight Shifted to Tuesday Night Due to Threatening Weather.

New York, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Threatening weather this evening caused the second successive postponement of the Charley Retzlaff-Joe Sekyra heavyweight bout in the Queensboro Stadium. Weather permitting, the Duluth slugger will meet Sekyra over the ten-round route next Tuesday, a week after it was originally scheduled to be held.

Bayonne, N. J., Aug. 27 (U.P.).—Rain tonight forced a third postponement of the junior-lightweight title fight between Tony Canzoneri, of Chicago, and Herman Perlick, of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Promoters said the bout would be held later in the week.

CUBS RALLY, SPLIT WITH PIRATES

8-Run Attack Wins Second After Duel in Opener.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—A smashing eight-run attack in the eighth inning upset the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-4, today after they had eked out a 3-2 decision over the Chicago Cubs in the first game of the rain-sprinkled double-header.

Brame started the fatal eighth by walking English. Then the Cubs made seven straight hits before the slaughter was halted. English took the batting honors of the contest with two singles, a double, a triple and a walk for a perfect average.

Mid-City Arena will resound again to the crack of the left hook and the oomph of the right to the stomach, it was decided last night at a meeting of the commanders of the various American Legion posts in the city.

Headed by Norman Landreau, a committee was formed to name a date and decide on the principals of the fights to be staged. No definite time is in mind, except that the bouts will come off some time between the first and tenth of September. No matchmaker was chosen.

The entire proceeds from the fights will go toward the expense of sending the American Legion Fife and Drum Corps to the national convention, to be held at Detroit September 21.

Selected on the committee last night, besides Landreau, were Commanders Cassidy, Keyhoe, Pratt, Marthill and Halper.

Vines-Gledhill Picked On International Team

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Two sensational Californians, H. Ellsworth Vines, of Pasadena, and Keith Gledhill, of Santa Barbara, were designated today as members of the United States International Tennis Team.

Samuel Hardy, captain of the team, today announced the names of the six men who will face England and France in the international tennis matches at the Germantown (Pa.) Cricket Club next week. In addition to the West Coast youngsters, Hardy named George Lott, of Newark, N. J.; Johnny Doeg, of Philadelphia, and two New Yorkers, Frank X. Shields and Sidney B. Wood.

The line-ups for the matches will not be made known until the drawings are made next Monday.

Firpo Would Return For Dempsey Battle

Buenos Aires, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Jack Dempsey's resumption of pugilistic activity has aroused the fighting fever in Luis Angel Firpo, who figured in the sensational heavyweight championship with Dempsey in 1923 in New York.

Firpo, now weighing 260, reports he has done some roadwork and adds, "I will be in condition if Dempsey wants a return match."

The Argentine giant is uninterested in meeting any other opponents. He estimates he could reach fighting trim in six months.

Ex-Champion Asserts He Will Be Ready in December.

Drawing Huge Gates in Exhibition Tour on the Coast.

By EDWARD J. NEIL.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—New York shouted across transcontinental telephone wires today a pair of invitations to Jack Dempsey to return to the metropolis and pick up again the leather-padded cudgels that once made high finance of the fight game.

"I'm not ready yet, but I will be. I'm serious about coming back. Pick the best man you can find for me for some time after December 1."

Immediately James J. Johnston, the promotional thorn in the side of the Garden at the moment, got a line through to Leonard Sachs, Dempsey's secretary and companion, and he heard something like this:

"Jack hasn't tied up with the Garden or any one else. But he's coming back. We'll be hitting the big trail when he's ready. Then we'll be open to any and all offers from any one."

Come-Back Plans Loom as Serious.

Thus today the rather comical "exhibitions" the old man mauler of Manassa has been giving the Pacific Coast leaped suddenly into a matter of national moment to the rank and file of the fight game. Apparently Dempsey, not overburdened with ready cash and involved in matrimonial complications by the filing of a divorce application from Estelle Taylor in Reno, is about to launch seriously into his second comeback campaign since Gene Tunney whipped him in the rain at Philadelphia in 1926.

With scarcely a word of warning, Dempsey appeared in his first "exhibition" match in Reno August 19 and knocked over a fellow named Jack Beasley. Five nights later 17,584 of the faithful turned out in Portland, Oreg., to pay $27,295.50 to see him bounce a motley collection around. Last night he sparred six rounds in Seattle with a trio.

NATS' RALLY OVERCOMES BRAVES

3 Runs in 8th Win Game; Meet Red Sox Today.

Special to The Washington Post.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 27.—Hitting opportunely behind Burke's consistently good pitching, and supporting their southpaw performer well, Washington defeated the Boston Braves here this afternoon in an exhibition game, 6 to 4. Burke pitched shut-out ball until the sixth, when the Braves hopped on him for five hits and four runs. Other than that, Burke was seldom in danger of being scored upon.

Joe Cronin, Washington shortstop, played beautifully in the field, handling nine difficult chances with ease. Outfield catches by Rice and West, both after long runs, thrilled the 6,000 fans attending this police relief association benefit game.

Going into the eighth a run behind the Nationals got to Harold Haid for the victory. Rice opened the round with a pass, Cronin hit for a base and Rice tallied when Haid picked up Harris' bunt and chucked wildly over third. Then Hayes, who had replaced Bluege at third base, singled to send over two more runs.

The Nationals had tallied off Al Jones in the fourth and fifth innings, but in the sixth the Braves had jumped on Bob Burke for five hits and four runs to take the lead.

Eleven safeties were made by the Johnson band, seven off Jones in the first five frames. Burke went the route for the Nationals, issuing eight hits.

The Nats continued on to Boston after the game to open a two-game series with the Red Sox tomorrow. The series presents Washington an opportunity to gain ground in its second-place battle with the Yankees who will be at grips with the Mackmen in Philadelphia Friday and Saturday.

Manager Johnson will send Crowder to the hill in the opening game with the Sox with Brown due to pitch Saturday. He is saving Marberry for the Athletics' appearance in Washington Sunday.

Detroit, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—The Detroit Tigers found five Chicago White Sox pitchers for thirteen hits today and won the series opener, 9 to 4. Four Sox errors were offset by four double plays to hold down the score. Victor Sorrell, for the Tigers, allowed eleven hits.

Favorite Nipped at Wire After Leading From Start.

LINCOLN FIELDS RACE TRACK, Chicago, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Alderman John J. Coughlin has the pleasure of sending the winner of today's feature tilt to the post when the speedy but inconsistent Karl Eitel was up at the wire to win by a nose over the favorite, Hot Shot.

Hot Shot, which C. E. Davison claimed out of a selling race to develop into a nifty performer against better ones, set a fast pace, as is his usual custom, and seemed the winner until nearing the wire, when Karl Eitel which makes his run about a sixteenth from home, showed all of his old-time speed and gameness to just nip the favorite on the wire. Martha Jones was third while Lady Fingers and Prince Atheling had scant chance.

Floyd Halbert turned in a very neat ride to get the Coughlin starter home in front and tickets were cashed at the rate of $8 for each $2 ducat.

Lady Batts, owned by F. F. Brant, won a close decision in the third race for 2-year-old fillies at 5½ furlongs. At the start she sprinted into a good lead immediately after the break and just lasted to win by a head from Albert Sabath's I Say. The latter was in close quarters on the rail all through the race, where Landolt could not use his whip. Nevertheless she was rapidly wearing down the winner. Lazy Mary made up ground to be third.

Whitney's Brocado Wins at Saratoga.

Saratoga Springs Race Track, N. Y., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—There was an abundance of excitement with the twenty-ninth running of the Adirondack Handicap, 6-furlong dash for 2-year-old fillies which featured today's program. When the thrills had subsided, Brocado, from the stable of Mrs. John Hay Whitney, emerged with the winner's share of $3,925, defeating the Sagamore Stable's Mea by a head in a bristling finish. C. V. Whitney's Pintail took third money, another half-length away.

Know him? Who wouldn't? For he's Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion, back in ring togs. The "Manassa Mauler" is shown as he started an exhibition tour in the Northwest. He won his first bouts.

hibitions" appears to have been answered to his satisfaction. The faithful turned out to see him with an eagerness that marked his following when the late Tex Rickard thought only in gate receipts figures of $1,000,000 to $3,000,000.

Fight circles predicted today Dempsey can share $1,000,000 gate fighting Primo Carnera or Jack Sharkey, with whom he drew more than that sum when he came out of retirement the first time in 1927 only to lose to Tunney again in Chicago the same year.

For a bout with Max Schmeling next summer, after proper tuneups, it would seem that only the depression and lack of a promoter of Rickard's genius would prevent a gate among the largest in fight history.

As to Dempsey's right to fight second raters, the answer appears to be general:

"Every one else does, including Carnera. Why shouldn't Dempsey?"

Dempsey Toys With Three Foes.

Seattle, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, gave neat boxing lessons to three asserted opponents last night in four rounds of exhibition work. He scored no knockouts.

Dempsey apparently made no effort to knock out his opponents. There was no doubt, however, of his ability to do the trick with little trouble against the big, green fighters.

Dempsey toyed through two rounds with Denny Lenhart, Portland; let Bob Frazier, Seattle Negro, stand up for one round and helped Red Tingley, Seattle, stay on his feet for another. He knocked down Tingley twice, helped him to his feet the second time and then let his opponent whale away at him for the remainder of the round.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—NELLIE CUSTIS, $6.88, $4.24, $2.82; MUCKER, $3.98, $2.86; STREET SINGER, $2.80.

NELLIE CUSTIS was close to the pace from the start and, closing gamely in the stretch, caught MUCKER near the end. The latter was off slowly, but soon sprinted into contention on the inside and, taking command after going half the distance, held on fairly well. STREET SINGER, off poorly, was allowed to drop far back during the back stretch run, came gamely approaching the stretch turn to save ground and finished fast; ran on to be third. RIVER FOREST raced forwardly.

THIRD RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse, $1,200; claiming. For 2-year-old fillies. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 3:21. Off at 3:22. Winner, F. F. Brant's b. f. Two-dollar mutuels paid—LADY BATTS, $5.62, $4.02, $3.16; I SAY, $10.38, $6.44; LAZY MARY, $11.70.

LADY BATTS soon drew away from CASIMIRA and opened up a good lead, but was tiring at the finish and was forced to do her best to hold I SAY safe. The latter, always close to the pace, finished fast on the inside. LAZY MARY, off slowly, made up much ground despite racing wide in the stretch and was a strong contender at the end. LOVE OFFERING raced forwardly and finished close up.

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $1,500; allowances. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 3:48. Off at 3:50. Winner, J. J. Coughlin's ch. h. Two-dollar mutuels paid—KARL EITEL, $8.00, $3.48, $2.50; HOT SHOT, $3.54, $2.42; MARTHA JONES, $2.60.

KARL EITEL, off well, followed the pace of HOT SHOT closely in the early stages and, responding gamely to hard riding in the stretch, wore the latter down and got up in the last stride. HOT SHOT got to the front soon after the start and, taking a good lead, drew away slightly in the stretch, but weakened in the final sixteenth. MARTHA JONES was off slowly and showed a creditable effort.

FIFTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles. Purse, $1,300; claiming. For 4-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 4:18½. Off at 4:19½. Winner, Valley Lake Stables b. h. Two-dollar mutuels paid—GRAND PRINCE, $12.14, $5.96, $3.88; RIFF RAFF, $4.52, $3.26; WIRT G. BOWMAN, $4.40.

GRAND PRINCE raced on practically even terms with BROOMSHOT in the early stages and, taking command when the latter began to tire, withstood the stretch challenge of RIFF RAFF to score narrowly. RIFF RAFF moved up strongly to challenge after entering the stretch, but hung after getting on even terms with the winner in the final eighth. WIRT G. BOWMAN made up ground and was going gamely at the end. COPPERFIELD was always in the first flight.

SIXTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles. Purse, $1,300; claiming. For 3-year-olds. Start good. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 4:46. Off at 4:48½. Winner, C. D. W. Lehmann's b. c. Two-dollar muuels paid—INHERITOR, $21.86, $10.24, $7.16; OUTCRY, $12.10, $7.24; BROWN HILLS, $6.90.

INHERITOR, showing improvement over recent efforts, went to the front at once and, racing well, was never headed, winning easily. OUTCRY was close to the pace at all stages and would have given the winner an argument had he been given a stronger ride in that last furlong. BROWN HILLS was well up from the start and held on gamely. FLAGG PORTER was tiring at the finish. ALL GIRLS stopped badly. WISE LEE was moving up fast when he was shuffled back around the far turn, then came again, but was in close quarters in the stretch and did not threaten the leaders.

LATONA GAINS FINALS IN CAPITAL CITY LEAGUE TOURNEY

Shore Gains Set Lead as Rain Halts Hermann Match.

ANTHONY LATONA, crack basket ball and tennis player, entered the final round of the Capital City Tennis League singles tournament yesterday afternoon when he trimmed Freddy Doyle in straight sets, 6—0, 8—6, on the courts at Henry Park. Rain called a halt to the remaining matches, but the upset of the day had been scored and the feature match played.

It was Latona's best tennis of the year and victory placed him farther in a senior tournament than he has ever gone. He achieved his success with the same volleying attack which caused the upset of Barney Welsh the day before.

Latona Races to 6-0 Victory.

Taking Doyle by surprise, Latona raced through the first set without the loss of a game, but barely got home in the second, as Doyle began to show signs of steadying down and all but evened the count.

In the only other match started yesterday, Frank Shore, still favorite to win the tournament, had taken an easy 6—1 first set from Gene Hermann, seeded No. 2, and was trailing, 1—2, in the second set. At deuce in the fourth game rain came down to end the day's activities.

Shore, seeded fourth, ran through Hermann with great ease, taking the net away from the Potomac Park star and keeping him on the run throughout. The match will be completed today. The final round of singles will not be played until next Monday afternoon.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

Naval Hospital-G.P.O. Game Halted by Rain

The third game of the series between G. P. O. and Naval Hospital for the championship of the Government League was halted in the third inning with the score 1-0 in the Sailors' favor. The series stands 1-0 in the Printers' favor, as the first meeting resulted in a 4-4 tie and the Hospital crew dropped Wednesday's game by a 3-0 score. An effort will be made to play again today. A victory for Naval Hospital will force the teams to play tomorrow or Monday, unless play in the week-day series championship series is to be delayed for the third time.

and caught a train for Chicago at Manhattan Transfer. Two voices had called him on the phone that morning to state that if he did not put back the $40,000 fate would catch up with him right away. After a while the party who had been wasting the money on the idea was sent away to pine and repent in Sing Sing.

In Chicago he ran a fight club for a winter season. The fight club was no success, but Dempsey insisted that up to now he had stood no loss, as he was always using other people's money.

Outdrew Fighters As a Referee.

After that he went touring as a referee and did very well, outdrawing the fighters for whom he refereed, because the fighters didn't amount to much and these bouts always consisted of a couple of nonentities giving a high-priced referee an excuse. Then the referee business died off and Dempsey went to Reno, which started out to be another Miami, to run a fight club, but let go abruptly because Reno, in fact, did turn out to be another Miami.

Although he was represented as a partner or investor in these places, Dempsey insisted, possibly out of pride, that he was strictly a capper in each case, contributing nothing but his illustrious name and occasionally his presence for a stated rate of hire.

In the last few months he has sold the story of his life twice in the same place, and although these two tellings probably bring the score up to twenty times, he has yet to tell the story of his life, which would be one of the most dramatic stories ever told if he were to tell it.

So now he is down to fighting chumps on a guarantee-and-royalty basis in towns where he never fought as champion.

He had a great chance to keep on going, but champion prize fighter was as far as he went.

This comeback campaign seems to be the last fling. Any showman can see that when this tour is over Dempsey will have squeezed the last dollar out of the reputation that was the Manassa Mauler.

That idea of speeding up in order to reach a filling station before the gas supply in your car becomes exhausted is all wet, and here's why. The United States Bureau of Standards has determined that it requires more power to drive an automobile at high speed than at low speed because of the increase in wind resistance. Consequently, more mileage per gallon is obtained at low speed unless the carburetor has been especially adjusted. If the carburetor mixture varies with different speeds, the mileage per gallon may either decrease or increase with speed.

RUOCCO GETS IROQUOIS BERTH

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Aug. 27.—Tony Ruocco was elected manager of the Iroquois Athletic Club Football Team at an important meeting held last night at club headquarters on King street.

The first practice for the team will be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock on Haydon's Field. Coach Coddles Owens requests all candidates and last year's regulars to be present.

"Unk" Sullivan, dashing star of the "little Indians," who last season was placed on the 150-pound mythical eleven, was unanimously elected as captain. He made a short talk on plans for the season.

It was decided to keep the same colors, green and white, and only 22 players will be kept on the squad. The first game will be played on Spetember 27.

Another meeting of the club has been called for next Monday evening.

Coach Julian Whitestone, of the Virginia Juniors Football Team, is anxious to have all candidates for the club report at the initial drill Sunday morning at the Shipyard Field at 10 o'clock.

Last year the youngsters won eight games, tied one and lost two, to cop all honors in this sector. It was announced today that "Mouse" Briscoe, former Virginia A. C. gridder, will assist with the coaching of the team.

The players asked to report follow: L. Pullman, W. Pullman, Newton, Jackson, B. Jackson, Cook, Mendelson, Mahoney, Sheeds, Gensmere, Lipscombe, McKelligat, Chilcotte, Fones, McCaffrey, Beach, Simpson, Humphreys, Brown, Boran, Langley, Nowland, Mellon, Studds, Harper, Travers, Briscoe, B. Peverill, T. Wood, H. Wood and Munford, besides any candidate who would like to perform with the team.

The boys will play in the 135-pound class.

Power Boats to Race In Basin Tomorrow

The placid Tidal Basin will resound to the pop-pop of outboard motors again tomorrow afternoon when the Chesapeake and Potomac Power Boat Association presents its second speedboat races of the year. Attractive prizes have been offered the owners of the winning boats.

Entries from Maryland and Virginia have been assured. As an added feature of the day, Commodore Shelton will present trophies to the amateur winners of the recent Herald Harbor races, who refused cash prizes.

Saturday's will be the last speedboat event before the annual President's Cup races, September 18 and 19.

Woodward & Lothrop Men in Golf Tourney

The third of the monthly golf tournaments conducted by the male employes of Woodward & Lothrop's Department Store will be held Saturday, starting at 7 a. m., on courses B and D of the East Potomac Golf Course.

J. H. Jasper, winner of last month's tournament, will be out to defend his previous score. There will be prizes for the three players having low gross and low net scores.

A. A. U. Committee To Nominate Officers

A nominating committee to select a slate of officers for the 1931-1932 year was chosen last night in a meeting of the board of managers of the District Association of the Amateur Athletic Union. A. Earle Weeks, of the Washington Canoe Club, was named chairman of the committee, the other members of which are Kip Edwards, Downtown Coaches Association; William E. Russell, Boys Club; Ernie Miller, Potomac Boat Club, and Dr. O. U. Singer, delegate-at-large.

The committee will report its work at the annual meeting of the association on September 21. It also will nominate delegates to represent the local chapter at the annual meeting of the National A. A. U. at Miami in November.

Police Aim to Break Streak Of Fireman Nine Labor Day

ADVANCE reports received from the press agent of the Police Department's baseball team indicate that the representatives of the Fire Department are due for a fall when the two teams hook up in their annual clash at Griffith Stadium Labor Day. Sergt. J. E. Boyle, manager of the coppers, is positive in his assertion that the police nine will be returned victorious, and by a decisive score.

"Why, just look at my team," says the portly police officer, "Grayson, shortstop; Muzurski, first base; Hiser, second base; Weatherhead, third; a bunch of hard-hitting, clean-fielding players, in addition to Campbell, Duly and Wahler, the capable outfielders. Believe me, when those boys get in there against those firemen it's gonna look more like a track meet than a baseball game."

Boyle Has Capable Players.

Boyle is more than half way correct in his assertion that he has a collection of grade A sandlot ball players. His mound corps is composed of Winters, Conway, Murray and Sine, all of whom are well known to the fans.

Either Winters or Sine will oppose the Smoke-eaters in the big game, with Hoffman on the receiving end. The return o Hoffman will greatly strengthen the team. His absence in the game last season was the cause of the club's downfall last year, in the opinion of many observers.

Despite the apparent defensive ability of the team, Boyd looks to his sluggers to garner the victory Labor Day. Against the Army Medicos the team pulled through to a 9-7 victory after spotting their rivals a seven-run lead in the first inning.

Rallied Against Fort Myer.

They found themselves in a similar situation against the Fort Myer aggregation, but they also won this game by an 18-7 count in ten innings. With the players blasting away at the opposition in this manner, the Patrolmen's manager can see only victory in the big tussle.

"Bus" Hager pilot of the Fire Department team, has his charges working out on the Monument Grounds daily, preparing for the big fray. Hager claims his team will win from force of habit if nothing else, and talk of a police victory sounds like the daily bulletin from the nut factory, he says.

CONFABS DUE FOR LOCAL BOWLERS

Organization Meetings Scheduled for Convention Hall.

CONVENTION HALL will be the scene of several important bowling meetings to be held next week for the purpose of reorganization for the approaching season.

The Masonic League, granddaddy of the pin circuits, will draw plans for the operation of the loop this season, and on Tuesday night the Commercial League representatives will gather for a conference. The latter circuit will be enlarged this season and teams desirous of securing franchises should be represented as well as teams which competed last year.

Sanitary League Meets Wednesday.

On Wednesday the initial confab of team captains of the Sanitary League will get together to iron out the few difficulties which must be disposed of before the pin spillers can get down to the serious business of smashing the records.

The meeting of the Recreation League, postponed from last week, will be held Tuesday next at the Recreation Bowling Alleys. At this meeting officers will be elected and important matters pertaining to the league discussed. Any new teams desiring franchises in the league are invited to attend.

Nick Rinaldi is still seeking two bowlers to round out his Lucky Strike midget team. Candidates must not be over 16 years of age. Rinaldi can be reached at Emerson 5662.

TITLIST BOWS IN WOMEN'S GOLF PLAY

Mrs. Tyson Ousted by Mrs. Hill in Tournament.

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Mrs. George Tyson, of Kansas City, lost her prized Western women's golf championship today in an exciting quarter final duel to her famous home town jinx, Mrs. O. S. Hill.

All square at the end of seventeen holes, Mrs. Hill ended the tussle on the final green by sinking an eight-foot putt for a birdie four. Mrs. Tyson, ten feet away from the home plate of golf with three shots, missed her try for a birdie down a side-hill route by three feet, but Mrs. Hill calmly but surely dropped her's for the hole and the match.

Other Veterans In Semifinal.

Mrs. Hill, who took up golf for her health eight years ago, was joined in the semifinal bracket by two experienced campaigners of note, Virginia Van Wie, of Chicago, and Mrs. Leona Pressler, of San Gabriel, Calif., and 18-year-old June Beebe, of Chicago. All three breezed in with fairly easy victories, giving the championship battle an excellent field for the finishing rounds.

Miss Van Wie, who twice has gone to the finals in the national championship only to be turned back by Glenna Collett Vare, rushed into the semifinals today by defeating one of her home town rivals, Mrs. Charles Dennehy, 4 and 3. She will meet Mrs. Hill in the semifinal match of the upper bracket tomorrow over eighteen holes.

BARRY-WEISS IN 2D BOUT AT FORT

Mid-September Date Set; Good Card Monday Night.

ARTICLES have been signed for the renewal of the Sammy Weiss-"Reds" Barry warfare at Fort Washington, it was announced last night. The bout, the second meeting of the Philadelphia Hebrew and the Washington youngster, will be held during the second week in September.

A draw verdict resulted when these light heavyweights clashed last month at the fort. The Philadelphian, after gaining a decisive edge in the first four rounds, slowed up to absorb a pounding from the local star during the four remaining chapters. However, some of the experts, including Referee Charlie Short, expressed the opinion that Weiss was the better of the pair.

Pollok-Dance Bout Is Off.

Coincident with this announcement it was stated that the Jack Pollock-Frank Vance fight, scheduled next Monday night as one of the prelims to the Billy Landers-Jimmy Tramberia duel, had been canceled owing to an injury recently sustained by Pollock. The latter, according to his manager, Patsy Donovan, injured his nose in training.

As a substitute bout, fort officials yesterday signed Sailor Oden and Billy Hoe, both local boys.

It also was announced that Midget Wolgast, recognized in some States as world's flyweight champion, will engage the winner of the Landers-Tramberia bout, probably on September 28, in the last of the fort's summer shows.

STOCK SALES RALLY FAILS AS PRICES SAG

New York, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—Stocks tried to rally a little around midday, but no such run of shorts as developed yesterday materialized, and the list eased off again in the late trading, closing with a preponderance of narrow declines.

Although call money had remained pegged at 1½ per cent officially since last May, it has been perceptibly easier in the outside market this week, with offerings today as low as 1 per cent. Some light on this was shed by the weekly Federal Reserve statements, showing that the system was once more injecting credit into the open market, largely through purchases of bankers' acceptances. Total Federal Reserve credit outstanding increased $58,000,000 during the week.

This may reflect a desire to make credit as cheap as possible in an effort to facilitate an autumn recovery in general trade, as well as to aid the Treasury in its quarterly financing due September 15, terms of which will be announced Monday. It may also be designed to offset the possible firming effects upon the money market of the large private banking credit being arranged for Great Britain.

Foreign Deposits Increase.

Foreign bank deposits with the Federal Reserve again increased, by roughly $14,500,000, which may indicate further liquidation of commercial credits here by the Bank of France. Brokers' loans showed the small gain of $6,000,000. This was rather surprising in view of the reaction in the Stock Market in the week covered by the report.

Wall Street remained largely preoccupied with the international financial situation. News of a conference with President Hoover of officials of three large Wall Street banks with important foreign connections aroused considerable interest. The private banking credit to Great Britain was believed to be all completed but the signing of the papers. Information as to its precise amount was unavailable, but it was known to be large.

Developments in the Standards of New Jersey and California merger, as well as further gains in crude oil and gasoline prices, had little effect on the oil shares. Transamerica pushed up a fraction in a large turnover on rumors of distribution of some of its bank stock holdings, but eased off again when these rumors were described as premature.

Match Stock Drops.

Heaviness of Kreuger & Toll was a feature of the day's stock market activity, and in want of definite information, was attributed to the unsettled state of international finances. The company heads the Swedish match trust interests. The stock dropped to a new low at 13¾, then rallied to 14½, where its net loss was 1⅜ points.

The net loss shown by the price average of 90 representative stocks was only six-tenths of one point. The turnover of approximately 800,000 shares showed little change from recent sessions. Among a few issues losing 2 to 3 points were Allied Chemical, Air Reduction, Eastman and Case. U. S. Steel, Westinghouse and New York Central lost about a point.

In foreign exchanges, sterling reacted slightly after yesterday's advance, ruling at 84.86 3-16, off 1-16. The Dutch florin was under some pressure. Latin Americans were generally steady to firm.

In commodities, cotton lost 50 to 75 cents a bale, sagging in the late trading in sympathy with the stock market. Wheat was influenced by reports of large Russian offerings abroad, losing ⅝ to ⅞ of a cent a bushel. Corn lost ⅜ to 1⅛ cents.

RAIL BONDS HIGHER IN MARKET UPTURN

Argentine Issues Recover - Beyond Previous Losses; Utilities Quiet.

New York, Aug. 27 (A.P.).—The bond market provided some interesting developments today, although activity decreased sharply. Sales totaled $7,826,000, compared with $9,334,500 yesterday.

Probably the most striking fact was the recovery in rail issues, which was a general as yesterday, although the net gains were somewhat smaller. Possibly th upturn was a technical matter, as no news of a generally bullish nature was forthcoming. Indeed, July earnings of the more important carriers continued to compare unfavorably with the results for July last year. In this respect the report of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe was notable as its decrease in net operating income was relatively less than in other railroads.

However, the breadth of the upward movement may be realized from the fact that a large and diversified group of rail bonds closed with gains ranging up to 1½ points after active trading. Among them were Canadian Pacific debenture 4s of 1960, Atchison generals 4s, Baltimore & Ohio 4½s of 1933, Chesapeake & Ohio series B 4½s, Rock Island refunding 4s of 1934, the Central 4s of 1988 and the 4½s of 1960, Illinois Central 4¾s of 1966, Erie 5s of 1975, Nickel Plate 4½s of 1978, Pennsylvania gold 5s of 1964 and Union Pacific refunding 4s.

A sharp recovery in Argentine obligations, which extended beyond yesterday's losses in some instances, featured the foreign list, where the 5½s of 1962 jumped 7¼ points, the largest gain of the group, and other advances ranged upward from 1 point. Colombian issues were steady to irregularly higher. As a whole, changes in the rest of the foreign list were divided about evenly between gains and declines.

Treasury 4¼s of 1947-1952 featured the United States Government issues, which declined irregularly.

Public utility and industrial bonds were quiet. The former scored small irregular gains, but the majority of the latter closed slightly lower.

$80,000,000 in Bills Sold by Treasury

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon announced yesterday that the tenders for $80,000,000, or thereabouts, of 91-day Treasury bills dated August 31, 1931, and maturing November 30, 1931, which were offered on August 24, 1931, were opened at the Federal Reserve Banks on August 27.

The total amount applied for was $269,021,000. Except for one bid for $2,000 at the rate of about .50 per cent, the highest bid made was 99.856, equivalent to an interest rate of about .57 per cent on an annual basis. The lowest bid accepted was 99.838, equivalent to an interest rate of about .64 per cent on an annual basis.

Only part of the amount bid for at the latter price was accepted. The total amount of bids accepted was $80,019,000. The average price of Treasury bills to be issued is 99.844. The average rate on a bank discount basis is about .62 per cent.

German Bank Rate 10 Per Cent.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. W. A. EVANS

To the limit of space questions pertaining to hygiene and prevention of disease will be answered in this column. Personal replies will be made to inquiries, under proper limitations when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual disease.

CONVALESCENT FARMS.

THE writer recently paid a visit to the Crane Farms, a convalescent camp maintained on Lake Geneva by the Crane company as a part of their welfare plan. One section of the farm is set aside for a children's outing camp, and another is occupied by cottages for vacation use by employes, but these features are not a part of the subject being presented now.

Before its present ownership and use the farm was the country home of an attorney, and the former residence is used as a sanatorium. Since the plan was to keep the institution as homey as possible, the only change in the building is the addition of a sun parlor. The institution is operated during the winter and the summer. Employes who have been operated on, who have had severe accidents, or severe illness, are sent here to complete the cure.

It serves as a preventorium as well. Employes who are vaguely below the normal, in health, who are losing weight, becoming pale, developing shortness of breath, losing endurance; who are easily fatigued, who are having a little fever, or who are becoming irritable, on edge, or hard to get on with—but in whom the physician can find no definite disease—are sent here for a short resting spell.

In the institution there is no formidable array of laboratory apparatus. There is no particular equipment of baths, massage rooms, or other paraphernalia of physical therapy.

In a sense, it is a nature cure. There is freedom from worry about meeting the weekly charge, for there is none. The effort is made to lessen all other sources of worry and anxiety. The food is good and wholesome, but no emphasis is put on dieting. There is plenty of opportunity for relaxation and sleep. When the time comes the inmates are encouraged to walk, as far as their strength and endurance will permit, over the fields, through the woods, along roads, and by the water's edge. There is opportunity for swimming.

The German scheme provides much better than ours for bridging the gap between hospital and work, and we especially need places in which a man may tune up his muscles before he goes back to the job. There is also a need in our plans for preventoria for adults.

IT MAY BE CURED.

M. H. T. A. writes:

1. Can exophthalmic goiter be cured?
2. If so, with what?
3. Is there danger of dropping dead when the heart flutters in exophthalmic goiter?
4. Can a person with this disease live long?
5. If such a person is under weight, how can he fatten up?

REPLY.

1. Yes.
2. Some cases are cured with iodine and other appropriate drugs. Others need operation.
3. Practically none. The fluttering is very unpleasant. It is harmful and should be controlled by treatment, but it is not immediately dangerous.
4. Yes.
5. By controlling the disease. When the disease is active it disturbs metabolism and digestion, thus causing underweight.

MENTAL TRAINING NEEDED.

M. S. writes: My mind is overrun by morbid thoughts. Examination by physicians shows no physical disease. Can you suggest some remedy?

REPLY.

Yours is a case for mental training. That is the remedy for you.

Sidestepping Failed Farmers.

Harper, Kans. (U.P.).—Bert Cristes and Dewey Calton, who have farms on a county line, evaded arrest on charges of violating the prohibition law by stepping over the county line in either direction when the Harper and Sumner sheriffs called. Recently the sheriffs "got together" and met Cristes and Calton at the line, declared "there'll be no sidestepping the issue now" and lodged them in jail.

Fifth Avenue Fashions

It has many slimming points that are so kind to the heavier figure.

The wrapped skirt gives charming height, closing as it does at the left side front, with its smooth fitting hip yoke button trimmed.

The one-sided effect of the applied neckband with jabot frill that falls in soft ripples to the waistline, contributes its bit toward narrowing the width through the bodice.

This becoming model is exceedingly fashionable made of supple woolen, travel tweed silk crepe prints, wool and crepe silk mixtures, canton crepe and satin.

Style No. 970 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust. The 36-inch size requires 3¾ yards of 39-inch material with ¼ yard of 27-inch contrasting.

Price of pattern 15 cents. Address Fashion Dept., The Washington Post, Fifth avenue and Twenty-ninth street, New York City.

Nakhichevan, Near Borders of Persia, Is Scene of Disaster.

Moscow, Aug. 27 (U.P.).—A flood disaster in Nakhichevan, near the Persian frontier, was reported today in delayed advices. Twenty-seven bodies have been recovered and scores of others were missing and believed drowned, the messages said. Many persons caught in the flood were insane when they were rescued.

A large part of the City of Ordybat was destroyed. All patients and members of the staff at the city hospital were drowned. Several villages were destroyed. Appeals for relief were relayed from Tiflis, where local officials were organizing rescue expeditions.

Nakhichevan is a Soviet republic adjoining Persia. The City of Nakhichevan is the center of a fertile region along the Aras River and has the reputation of being the "oldest city in the world." The tenants of the ark lived there after the Biblical flood, according to tradition. The district was shaken by an earthquake in which many were killed last winter.

ADOPTION OF SCALE BY COMMISSIONERS IS EXPECTED TODAY

Contemplated Minimum on District Jobs Has Approval of Robb.

LESS THAN UNION PAY, BUT 'FAIR,' HE THINKS

New Wage Figure Will Be Included in Paul Junior High Contract.

A minimum wage scale for building contractors on District government projects is expected to be adopted today by the District Commissioners as a solution to the controversy which has developed over the intent of the prevailing wage law adopted by Congress last winter. The schedule has not yet been made public.

While this scale is to be included in a contract to be awarded A. Lloyd Goode, Inc., of Charlotte, N. C., low bidder on the construction of a ten-room addition to the Paul Junior High School, it is likely that it will be used as a standard in other contracts.

Maj. H. L. Robb, Assistant Engineer Commissioner, said yesterday that officials of the Goode corporation had agreed to this wage scale. Other contractors now at work on jobs which come within the law are expected to be required to adopt the scale.

Robb Considers It Fair.

While not equal to union wages in the District, the scale is considered fair by Maj. Robb, who has made a thorough study of local labor conditions. He has also been advised as to the interpretation of the prevailing wage law by Corporation Counsel William W. Bride. Both District officials have had conferences with Labor Department officials.

The Paul Junior High School contract was held up pending the determination of the engineer department's policy, which must still be approved by the District Commissioners. The Charlotte concern submitted the low bid of $147,000, while a union contractor was a close second with a bid of $153,000.

It is understood that Labor Department officials have advised District officials that they will be permitted to handle wage matters as they see fit in accordance with the prevailing wage law. No objections from outside agencies will be heeded by the Federal officials.

Rose Company Affected.

The W. P. Rose Co., of Goldsboro, N. C., which has been the target of many of the union attacks, will probably be brought within the new wage policy in the construction of the Woodridge School. Maj. Robb recently asked for this contractor's wage schedule after reports of an impending cut had been published.

The local wage controversy came to a head about a week ago when Secretary of Labor Doak fixed the union figure of $11 a day for painters as the prevailing wage in the contract of painting the interior of the Internal Revenue Building.

Six bids were submitted yesterday afternoon on the job of excavating, grading and surfacing with cinders the north portion of the proposed Farmers' Market in the Southwest section. The Warren F. Brenizer Co. was low bidder with $10,400, but the Logan Pingree Co., Inc., was a close second with an estimate of $10,900, and promised to do the work in half the time.

Woman, 72, Hurt by Fall.

Mrs. W. T. Ford, 72, fractured her right leg last night when she fell in her home at 638 Columbia road northwest. After receiving first aid treatment by the rescue squad, she was removed to Garfield Hospital.

GOLDENBERG ESTATE IS PUT AT $1,042,894

Holdings of Capital Store Owner Listed in Court in Baltimore.

An estate valued at $1,042,894.14, partially offset by $416,398.55 in debts, was attributed to the late Morton Goldenberg, owner of Goldenberg's general department store here, in an inventory of his personal estate filed in the Baltimore orphan's court yesterday.

Stocks and bonds were listed at $190,771.50. The goods in stock at his department store were valued at $278,551 and trade fixtures and office furniture at $50,715. According to the inventory Mr. Goldenberg had $91,607.54 in cash in various banks and trust companies at the time of his death.

Mr. Goldenberg died of apoplexy in October while attending the races at Laurel. His business interests were in Washington but he lived in Baltimore. He was the sole owner of the Washington store since the death of his brother Julius several years ago. The store was founded by his father approximately 35 years ago.

Survived by his widow, Mrs. Fannie Goldenberg, a son, Moses Morton Goldenberg, and a stepdaughter, Jane Bernheimer, Mr. Goldenberg had provided in his will a trust fund which assures them of a $40,000 a year income. Mrs. Goldenberg received an additional bequest of $200,000.

The inventory listed personal jewelry and clothes at $2,599.50, a one-quarter undivided interest in leasehold property at No. 17 West Lexington street valued at $12,000.

In many concerns were stocks held by Mr. Goldenberg. They included 125 shares in the Baltimore Trust Co., valued at $3,500; 30 in the Safe Deposit & Trust Co., valued at $24,300; 288 shares in the Title Guaranty & Deposit Co., valued at $28,000; 125 shares in the Fidelity & Deposit Co., valued at $16,625 and 353 shares in the Maryland Trust Co., valued at $9,893.

Other stocks included 787 shares in the British-American Tobacco Co., valued at $13,379; 192 shares in the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. worth $10,176, and 105 shares in the Western Maryland Railroad Co., valued at $6,720. Of $3,744 invested in bonds, $2,320 was in those of United Railways.

The District grand jury will be asked to make an investigation to determine if Woodrow Wilson Abbott, of Middlesex County, Va., willfully told an untruth when he applied here for a license to marry Dorothy Edmonia Spenser, also of Middlesex County, July 8.

The girl's relatives in Police Court yesterday charged that Abbott brought the girl here and swore that her age was 18 years, whereas it was only 16. Judge Mattingly decided that the grand jury should look into the case, and he bound the young man over for a hearing.

The detectives declined to say whether Duker had given them any information regarding the hold-up. Dale Lambert, under arrest in Baltimore in connection with the murder of John W. Anderson, a milk bill collector, has denied any connection with the Jaynes case. Duker faces a murder charge in the killing of Anderson.

He snatched her purse, jumped into the car and drove away. The cash, the bond, an apartment key and miscellaneous papers were in the purse.

Witnesses told police that earlier in the morning they had seen the man loading bricks from a nearby pile onto his cart. Police were also informed that the man had been seen doing odd jobs around the neighborhood.

PARK VIEW CITIZENS JOIN FIGHT AGAINST SCHOOL'S TRANSFER

Executive Group Objects to Monroe Building Going to Use of Colored.

Indorsement was given by the executive committee of the Park View Citizens Association to the fight against the transfer of the Monroe School to the colored division at a special meeting last night.

In taking this action, the committee pledged its support to the Columbia Heights Citizens Association, the Georgia Avenue Business Men's Association and more than 100 residents of the Park View section who have banded themselves into an organization to fight the transfer.

Petition Is Circulated.

Opening guns in the battle against the action of the Board of Education in transferring the Monroe School were discharged at a mass meeting of Park View citizens early this week. At the meeting a petition was drawn up which is now being circulated throughout the Park View section. More than 100 signatures have been obtained.

The citizens' forces are asking the Board of Education to rescind its order converting the Monroe School into an institution for colored pupils. If the board fails to comply with this request it will mean that 450 white pupils of the Monroe School will be sent to two junior high schools and an elementary school in the neighborhood, as well as to the Park View platoon school. This action will result in the seventh grade of the Park View School being eliminated and the pupils being sent to one of the other schools.

Protest Inconvenience.

The other schools in the neighborhood are the Macfarland and Powell Junior Highs and the Raymond Elementary School. The chief complaint of citizens is that former students of the Monroe School will be considerably inconvenienced in going to the other schools by having to walk a long distance and cross dangerous streets.

Despite the whole-hearted protest the Board of Education is not expected to change its action. The first meeting of the board in the new school year is scheduled for September 9.

Burglar Suspect Jumps 2 Stories

Man Preferred Death to Being Caught, Say Police Reports.

Austin Carillo was in Emergency Hospital yesterday with a possible fracture of the back after he leaped from a third-story window to avoid arrest, according to Third Precinct police. The 25-year-old patient is said to have jumped when occupants of a house at 1730 Eighteenth street northwest, surprised him in the act of taking clothing from a rear room on the third floor.

Surprised by Michael Cavojos, Gavino Vasquey and Alipio Carreva, Carillo dived through the window because he would rather die than be caught stealing, police reported. He landed on a fire escape two floors below.

Owners of the clothing stated they would not prosecute, police said, and Carillo was not placed under arrest.

Widenings at 18th Street And Columbia Road Slated

Speeding Up of Traffic Is Expected to Result From Cutting of Curbs and Establishing of Three More Loading Platforms.

Widening of both streets at the intersection of Eighteenth and Columbia road will be started within the next month by the District Highway Department as the result of the approval of car stop changes yesterday by the Public Utilities Commission.

Considerable speeding up of traffic at this point is expected to be achieved by cutting back the curbs and establishment of three additional loading platforms. The intersection competes with downtown street crossings in the amount of traffic it carries.

When the widening is completed two lanes of traffic will be able to proceed in the same direction at the narrowest point on either one of the streets. Because of the curb parkways, the sidewalks will be retained at adequate widths, and no building will need to be disturbed.

The car stop southwest of the intersection on Columbia road is to be moved to the north and changed into a loading platform to parallel the southbound platform. Likewise the northbound stop on Eighteenth street will be moved to the north of the intersection to parallel the southbound stop, and both will be converted into loading platforms.

The area of the triangular parkway is to be reduced, and the northward turn off Columbia road into Eighteenth street, just above this triangle, is to be widened.

TWO PLANS GIVEN ON BRIDGE PARKING

Flurry of Protests From Area Around Taft Span Brings Alternatives.

Two alternative plans, modifying the original proposal to remove the small patch of park off Connecticut avenue at the southern approach to the William Howard Taft Bridge, will be presented to the District Commissioners today by Capt. H. C. Whitehurst, District chief engineer.

The alternative recommendations, made by the Office of Public Buildings and Public Grounds, were prepared following a flurry of protests by nearby apartment residents, who opposed the removal.

One recommendation calls for the complete elimination of the central park and the creation of smaller parkways on either side of the street, while the other provides for a reduction of the park to 60 feet in length and 10 feet in width.

Capt. Whitehurst last night said it will be entirely up to the Commissioners to decide which of the two recommendations is followed.

Lieut. Col. U. S. Grant 3d, director of public buildings and public parks, suggested eliminating the small plot of ground two years ago, in connection with a street paving program. Some time later the property was transferred by the Office of Public Buildings and Public Parks to the District Commissioners.

It was not, however, until workmen began salvaging shrubbery and grass from the parkway that residents of the neighborhood knew what was in prospect. Immediately a delegation called upon Col. Grant in protest.

The highway department is also preparing to alter the parkway at the intersection of R street and Massachusetts avenue at Sheridan Circle, to permit traffic to proceed more directly up the avenue.

CLARENDON RESIDENT SUCCUMBS TO HURTS

Mrs. Sarah F. Dewey Was Hit by Car Two Weeks Ago; Taxi in Collision.

Struck down by automobiles while at play, two boys, injured in similar accidents, were in local hospitals last night. The full extent of their injuries has not been determined.

Eleven-year-old Calvin Foster, of 322 A street northeast, ran out from behind a parked automobile on East Capitol street, between Second and Third streets southeast, and was struck by a machine operated by Frances J. Peters, of 2115 C street northwest.

Peters took the child to Casualty Hospital, where he was said to have a possible fractured skull and possible internal injuries.

Richard Turner, 9 years old, of 735 A street southeast, was in a serious condition at Children's Hospital. He was hit by an automobile at Eleventh street and Florida avenue northwest, when he ran out from behind a street car.

Clarendon Victim Dies.

Harvey J. Schow, of 2503 Fourteenth street northwest, who was operating the machine which struck the Turner boy, took him to Children's Hospital, where he was said to have a fractured right leg and possible internal injuries.

Injuries suffered in an accident on the Garrison road in Clarendon two weeks ago claimed a second life yesterday, when Mrs. Sarah F. Dewey, 71, of 11 Waldon avenue, Clarendon, died at Georgetown University Hospital.

Thomas A. Garrison, 72, of 10 Waldon avenue, who was walking with Mrs. Dewey down the Garrison road, was killed in the accident. Mrs. Dewey lost her left arm and suffered internal injuries.

John R. Morris of 23 Waldon avenue, who was driving the alleged death car, was freed on manslaughter charges in the Arlington County police court following Mr. Garrison's death. Commonwealth Attorney W. C. Gloth said no other charges will be placed against him.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dewey will be conducted from the Clarendon Baptist Church by the pastor, the Rev. Perry L. Mitchell, assisted by a former pastor, the Rev. C. P. Ryland, tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery, Fairfax County.

Man Hurt in Taxicab.

Mrs. Dewey is survived by one sister, Mrs. Alice M. Goodwin, of Clarendon; three daughters, Mrs. George Shopland, of Washington; Mrs. Henry Morehead, of Fort Myer Heights, Arlington County; Mrs. Clinton B. James, of Elmira, N. Y., and three sons, P. E. Dewey, L. A. Dewey and R. A. Dewey all of Clarendon.

Edward Disharoon, 56, of 427 K street northwest, was slightly injured last night when the taxicab in which he was rounding Thomas Circle was struck by another automobile. Dr. Joseph D. Rogers, in front of whose office the accident occurred, treated Disharoon for lacerations of the head.

Although witnesses said that the automobile which struck the cab stopped and two men got out to render assistance, the machine and its occupants were gone when police arrived about ten minutes after the mishap. Their identities were not learned and a lookout for the car and men was broadcast.

Car Overturns; Two Hurt.

Two persons were suffering from shock last night after a car driven by Harry Anwyll, 38 years old, of Chevy Chase, Md., skidded and turned over at the intersection of Connecticut avenue and Davenport street northwest. Mrs. Vera Anwyll, 38, and Mrs. E. S. Lee, of West Woodside, Md., occupants of the car, were treated by Dr. Edward A. Cafritz. Their condition was said not to be serious.

His collarbone fractured when the bicycle he was riding skidded on Wisconsin avenue street car tracks, 15-year-old Roy C. Spin, of the Industrial Home School, was treated at Georgetown University Hospital yesterday. Afterward he was returned to the school.

Service Revolver Lost In Chase by Policeman

Policeman Earl L. Baker, who gained local prominence last year when he saved a young woman from her enraged suitor by walking across an ironing board placed over a second-story areaway when all other measures to break a barricade failed, and disarmed the man, lost his service revolver last night while chasing a colored youth near Florida avenue and Eighth street northwest.

He caught the youth, who was subsequently released after being booked for investigation.

Alleged Hospital Fugitive Taken.

William Garland, 27-year-old laborer, who police say escaped Wednesday from St. Elizabeths Hospital, was apprehended yesterday in his parents' home at 1545 Thirty-third street northwest. He was returned to the hospital.

Man Sentenced on Check Charge.

A sentence of 180 days in jail was handed down to Lee Fitzhugh Rector, of The Plains, Va., in Police Court yesterday following his conviction on a charge of passing a bad check on Harry J. Harvey, of 516 Kennedy street northwest.

Woman Reports Theft of Jewelry.

Mrs. Claire Newmeyer reported to police yesterday that a wrist watch, surrounded by fifteen diamonds and valued at $100, had been stolen from her suite in the Hotel Shoreham. The jeweled timepiece was taken from her dresser.

EDUCATION IN RETURN FOR VEGETABLES.

Letter From a Boy's Father to the College President.

DEAR SIR:

I am desirous of sending my boy, Zeke, to college this autumn and, having read about your special offer, I wish to ascertain what it will cost me to fill him with learning for the coming year. I am in a position to pay for his education in corn, oats, hay, potatoes or apples, and would appreciate an early reply.

LEMUEL B. ZITHERSBY.

The President Replies.

Dear Mr. Zithersby:

Since the faculty offer was made public we have accepted so many potatoes for tuition that we will have them on our hands for years—the potatoes, I mean. Consequently we are compelled to refuse potatoes in payment of tuition for the present. We are also pretty well fixed with apples, but I think we could educate your son for the freshman year for 300 ears of corn, three loads of hay and 50 bushels of oats. This offer is made in the assumption the boy will not be hard to educate.

Very truly yours,

ALONZO B. STERKES,
President.

* * * *

DEAR SIR:

Your proposition with regard to tuition is acceptable to me on the whole, although I think you are hornswoggling me out of an extra load of hay, taking into consideration that Zeke is a smart boy and will be easy to educate. He hates examination, however, and if you would take a chance and admit him without the usual tests I would be willing to throw in six crates of eggs and a Thanksgiving turkey.

Hopefully yours,

LEMUEL B. ZITHERSBY.

From the President.

Dear Mr. Zithersby:

So many parents have sent me Thanksgiving turkeys that I am compelled to refuse further offerings, but everything will be okey if you will send me the equivalent in nuts, celery, cranberry sauce and mince pie.

Sincerely,

ALONZO B. STERKES.

P. S.—Couldn't you make it seven crates of eggs?

* * * *

DEAR President:

All right. You get seven crates of eggs and the "fixins" mentioned. Zeke will report opening day. Give him the best education you can for the vegetables and produce involved.

LEMUEL B. ZITHERSBY.

This MORNING with SHIRLEY L. POVICH

CLARK GRIFFITH is not disposed to regard with any seriousness the report that there was civil strife on his ball club out West.

"I talked to Johnson at least three times a week by long distance telephone and he mentioned nothing about any ructions on the bench. They're a happy family as far as ballplayers go. Of course, there may be an argument here and there. What bunch of 25 fellows on any trip won't have some warm words sometime?

"But this talk that some of those boys won't be on the club roster next year is bosh. I don't expect them to bill and coo among themselves like newlyweds. But I'm not going to trade anybody just because he starts an argument. At least not unless he starts one with Johnson or myself."

Harris to Brooklyn

The rumor mongers refuse to allow Bucky Harris to remain as the manager of the Detroit Tigers, insisting that he is due to replace Wilbert Robinson as boss of the Brooklyn Robins ere another season rolls around.

These volunteer talebearers declare that Harris has a sound chance to move in on the job and that Uncle Robbie, the man of a thousand paunches, is all over and done with. Mr. Robinson and his Brooklyn contract, it seems are to expire simultaneously, and in a dead heat and the understanding is that there will be no play-off.

This statement has been made many times during the past two months but the authors hasten to sustain it with the claim that Harris has twice conferred with Frank York and Joseph Gilleaudeau, the powers in the front office of the Brooklyn Club. They also insist that Harris' demise in Detroit is as conclusive and final as Robinson's in Brooklyn and point out that for the first time in Detroit's big league history the club has a fine opportunity of finishing up in last place.

A Fish Story

The most successful fishing trip in his piscatorial career was enjoyed yesterday by Al Farr, rotund assistant manager of the East Potmac Park public links.

Farr and a party of friends made the excursion to Plum Point, Md., in the wee small hours prepared to relieve Chesapeake Bay of as many of its denizens as could be hauled into the boat without fear of swamping.

As sometimes is done, bets were made. Money was posted to go to the man who caught the first fish, who caught the largest fish, who caught the smallest fish and the last fish.

They fished for three hours. The net haul was an 8-inch trout which was snagged, not caught, by Farr's hook. At a late hour last night he was still chuckling over his sweeping success in having pulled in the first fish, the largest fish, the smallest fish and the last fish. He collected, too.

But he overlooked a bet. There was no special prize for the man who caught the only fish.

Play Opens Monday; Gilbert Hunt Heads Local Field.

WARDMAN PARK HOTEL will be the scene of a junior tennis tournament starting Monday afternoon, in which Jay Cohn, national junior indoor champion and 1930 boys' champion of the United States, will compete, along with Donald Wallace, crack New Jersey junior player, and a host of local junior luminaries, including Gilbert Hunt, Ricky Willis, Clyde Smith and Bob Smith.

Cohn and Wallace, who are competing in the annual Atlantic Coast junior championship, at Ocean City, N. J., will arrive Sunday, and their presence promises to make of the tournament the fastest junior event played here. Cohn, from Santa Monica, Calif., is looked upon as one of the finest prospects in the country. His tournament career this season has been notable.

Play will continue through Tuesday, Wednesday and the final will be played Thursday afternoon.

Tourney Fills Need In Tennis Here.

Sanctioned by the Washington Tennis Association, the tournament fills a long-needed want in local junior tennis. Only one strictly junior event is played each year and efforts of the local association to encourage competitive play among the youthful players has not borne fruit until this move.

It was originally planned to return to competition the massive Warren G. Harding Cup for tennis, given by the late President in 1922 for the promotion of the game among junior players. The terms of the gift, however, call for the tournament to be strictly local in extent, a ruling that does not gibe with the participation of Cohn and Wallace. The cup has not been in competition since 1926.

Suitable prizes have been posted by the hotel. Both singles and doubles will be played. Entries are being received at the Tennis Shop.

Speedboats to Race On Tidal Basin Today

The Chesapeake & Potomac Power Boat Association will stage another speedboat meet this afternoon on the Tidal Basin, with entries from Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News and other large cities competing.

Valuable trophies, donated by local merchants, will be awarded the winners of the various events. Loud speakers have been placed at strategic points on the Basin, through which the spectators will be informed of the positions of the boats as they speed around the oval.

Miss Wilson, English Golf Star, U. S.-Bound

Liverpool, England, Aug. 28 (A.P.). Enid Wilson, British women's golf champion, sailed today aboard the liner Doric for Quebec to spend a present given her by her father to celebrate her twenty-first birthday.

The present is in the form of a trip to the United States for the national women's golf championship opening at Buffalo September 21. Miss Wilson also will compete in the Canadian championships at Rosedale the following week.

Handicap Shoot Won By Minister After Tie

Vandalia, Ohio, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—A United Brethren minister from the little town of McClure, Ohio, the Rev. Garrison Roebuck, rose from the unknown class today to win the premier classic of trapshooting, the Grand American Handicap.

The country preacher, who was competing in his first Grand American tournament and had never taken part in a registered shoot until the preliminary handicap Thursday, battled against great odds to tie two other Ohioans, Ray P. Willbaum, of Greenville, and Fred Harlow, of Newark, with a score of 96 out of a possible 100 targets in the day's regular event. Then in the shoot-off Roebuck was forced to travel 75 targets before he finally conquered Willbaum. Harlow was eliminated at the end of 25 targets.

Washington shooters failed to place in the Grand American Handicap. Following are scores of Washington shooters: C. C. Fawcett, 21-87; R. D. Morgan, 20-80; J. C. Wynkoop, 19-76; W. S. Wilson, 18-85; Julius Marcey, 20-77; B. R. Monroe, 20-scratch.

Y., former Colgate all-America football player, won his twentieth straight victory over Sailor Arnold Boston, 16 minutes 17 seconds, and Jack Wagner, Providence, R. I., threw Jack Sherry, Omaha, 14 minutes 42 seconds.

U. S. DOUBLES DELAYED BY DOWNPOUR

BROOKLINE Mass., Aug. 28 (A.P.). A heavy downpour of rain during the night left the Longwood Bowl tennis courts in such condition today officials of the United States Lawn Tennis Association postponed until Tuesday the finals of the Golden Jubilee national doubles championship tennis matches.

The unfinished quarter final between the defending champions, Johnny Doeg and George Lott, and Sidney Wood and Frank Shields, of the United States Davis Cup team, will be played tomorrow. It will be held ahead of the semifinals match between Bruce Barnes, of Austin, Tex., and Clifford Sutter, of New Orleans, and Wilmer Allison, of Austin, Tex., and John Van Ryn, of Philadelphia.

When rain interrupted the play yesterday each team had won a set and Lott and Doeg had a 4-3 lead on service in the third set.

Tomorrow's winners of the interrupted quarter finals will not play again until Monday when they will meet Gregory Mangin, of Newark, N. J., and Berkley Bell, of New York, who qualified for the semifinals yesterday.

Gallagher May Fight Babe Hunt at Fort

Marty Gallagher, Washington heavyweight, who has returned to his home town for a vacation after a year's travel through the East and Middle West in pursuit of pugilistic fame, may perform in a feature bout at Fort Washington about September 21, it was reported last night.

For the past three weeks Gallagher has been training daily in the gymnasium of Frankie Mann, local fight impresario. A likely opponent for the contemplated bout is Babe Hunt, who showed before Washington fans at the Mid City Club near Laurel on July 3.

If Gallagher is signed, the fort's program for the remainder of the outdoor season will be completed. Billy Landers meets Jimmy Tramberia in a featherweight headliner next Monday night; Reds Barry and Sammy Weiss will renew hostilities some time during Labor Day week and the winner of the Landers-Tramberia duel is slated to engage Midget Wolgast on September 28.

25,000 See Cards Down Pirates, 6-4

National League Leaders in Four-Run Late Rally to Earn Verdict.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Welcomed by 25,000 fans from their successful Eastern tour, the St. Louis Cardinals entertained the home folks by coming four runs from behind to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-4 in the first of a four-game series here today.

For six innings Larry French was invincible, but the Cards found their batting eyes and put across two counters in the seventh and four more in the eighth. After the champions had tied the count, Sparky Adams, league leader in two base hits, doubled to give the Cardinals the margin of victory.

Jim Lindsey, who relieved Flint Rhem in the eighth after the starting hurler made way for a pinch hitter, was credited with the victory. Wild Bill Hallahan held the Pirates in the ninth.

Lloyd Waner and George Grantham were the long distance sluggers, Waner with a double and triple and Grantham with a home run in the third.

$5,000 SWIM TO MISS RAVIOR

Repeats 1930 Feat in Rough Water at Toronto.

TORONTO, Ontario, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Battling water so rough that it forced the swimmers off their usual course into semiprotected area behind a breakwater, Margaret Ravior, sturdy Philadelphia mermaid, today became the first swimmer ever to repeat a victory in the annual women's 10-mile marathon swim at the Canadian national exhibition.

Miss Ravior, who won the event last year, outdistanced a starting field of 35 rivals, many of them veterans of previous swims, to take the first prize money of $5,000. The crowd numbered close to 100,000 all through the race and doubled that figure as the competitors neared the finish. Miss Ravior finished nearly a half-mile ahead of Mrs. Ethel Hertle Gary, of New York, winner of the 1928 marathon. Mrs. Gary was only a few minutes ahead of Ethel McGarry of New York.

Miss Ravior plowed along at about 55 strokes to the minute all through the race and did not increase her pace until she was within striking distance of the finish. Her official time was 4 hours 56 minutes 44 2-5 seconds, nearly 12 minutes faster than her nearest rival.

1. Margaret Ravior, Philadelphia, 4 hours 56 minutes 44 2-5 seconds; $5,000.
2. Ethel Hertle Gary, New York; 5 hours 8 minutes 20 9-10 seconds; $2,500.
3. Ethel McGarry, New York; 5 hours 12 minutes 34 4-5 seconds; $1,000.
4. Leah Riley, Keansburg, N. J.; 5 hours 16 minutes 39 seconds; $750.
5. Evelyn Armstrong, Detroit; $500.
6. Ruth Downing, Toronto; $250.

By WESTBROOK PEGLER.
Special to The Washington Post.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—It is strange what impressions people receive of certain activities, such as football and politics. Alfalfa Bill Murray, Governor of Oklahoma, finds little difference between a football game and a gang fight and says he will not attend a game this year. Football players, on the other hand, being young and more or less idealistic and, if not idealistic, then, anyway, decent, are likely to see no ethical difference between politics and racketeering. Very few of them have been known to descend into politics when they have done playing football.

It may be said, too, that the governship of Oklahoma, with its record of disorderly impeachment proceedings, has contributed to the contempt in which college students, who like football, hold Gov. Murray's profession. And the career of Congressman Herrick, an Oklahoma statesman and, like Gov. Murray, a politician, will not commend politics to any undergraduate with any dignity.

Possibly there is something to each game that the other does not see.

Certainly, the game of football in its highest expression, which was given by Knute Rockne's great Notre Dame teams, was as smooth and coherent as the workings of the most efficient political machine ever developed, and ever so much more respectable. Each athlete had his assignment, and, while deception was practiced at times, the boys never asked a referee to give them the best of it, whereas in politics it is nothing at all for a statesman to ask a judge to lean a little on some proposition.

I think the trouble with Gov. Murray in his observation of football has been that he doesn't know what it is all about. Not knowing the object of the game or the method, he naturally saw nothing but a lot of young men piling into one another in a jumble and came away with no respect for the sport. It is too much to ask that a politician apply intelligence to something he doesn't understand, so football became a gang fight, and that was that.

But however clear and worthy the game of politics may be to the governor, it is a confusing jumble to many citizens. He sees a football advanced without knowing why and consequently gets sore and calls it

Schaaf Hopes to Acquire Trophy for Which He Posed

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (U.P.).—Madison Square Garden's most pressing problem—how to get rid of the Muldoon-Tunney trophy—will be solved if Ernie Schaaf realizes his ambition of winning the world heavyweight championship.

The young Boston heavyweight, unlike the other boxers in the class, has a strong regard for the trophy and would not consider the world's championship complete unless his name was engraved below those of Gene Tunney, Jack Dempsey and other former title holders.

Whereas Champion Max Schmeling is absolutely uninterested in the gaudy piece of bric-a-brac which has been gathering dust in the Garden lobby since its formal dedication more than two years ago, Schaaf already is planning a shrine in his home for the trophy.

Street Regains Ball Caught at Monument

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 28 (A.P.).—So far as "Gabby" Street is concerned the lost is found. Today the Cardinal manager received a baseball that zoomed into his mitt from the top of the Washington Monument August 21, 1908.

For more than fifteen years the red-and-blue stitched sphere has been out of his possession. He was not quite sure what became of it, until it arrived at Cardinal headquarters in a box from a friend in Newbury, Pa.

Yankees Bow To Rally of Athletics

Ruffing Pounded Out in 3-Run Attack in Seventh

Mahaffey Is Credited With Season's 15th Victory, 5-4.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Staging a typical three-run rally in the seventh inning, when they drove Charley Ruffing from the box, the Athletics came from behind today to defeat the New York Yankees, 5 to 4, in the first of a two-game series.

Though he was relieved by a pinch hitter in the big seventh, Roy Mahaffey was credited with the victory, his fifteenth of the year against two defeats.

Yankees Take the Lead Three Times.

Led by Lou Gehrig, who hit his thirty-fifth home run of the year and a double, driving in two runs, the Yankees three times put Ruffing out in front, but he couldn't stand prosperity.

Mickey Cochrane, back in the game for the Athletics after a short rest, banged three singles in four trips to the plate.

White Sox Purchase Two Pitchers From Dallas

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Lou Garland, right hand pitcher, and Ralph Erickson, southpaw hurler, have been sold to the Chicago White Sox by Dallas of the Texas League.

Garland goes to the White Sox for $15,000 cash, immediate delivery being demanded in order that he may be on hand to participate in the city series with the Chicago Cubs. He will leave Dallas Saturday.

Erickson, who has been on option all season to Shreveport, was chosen by the Sox as their pick of the Dallas Club's players for $10,000. They had an option to this effect. Erickson will report next spring.

McLarnin's Demands Hinder Thompson Bout

Chicago, Aug. 28 (U.P.).—Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver, B. C., can have a match with Welterweight Jack Thompson any time he wants it, Ray Alvis, manager of the Negro title holder, said today in denying he was dodging McLarnin.

"I signed with Madison Square Garden two months ago for Thompson to meet McLarnin," said Alvis, "but they can't get McLarnin's signature. You know why? I'll tell you. McLarnin is demanding 25 per cent for his end when every other challenger is ready to take the usual 12½ per cent. McLarnin is money mad."

Potomac, in an effort to end matters, will put its best team of the year on the courts, consisting, of Maurice O'Neill, Gene Hermann, Hugh Trigg, Mortimer Rathgeber, Bob Elliott and others. Henry will have Gilbert Hunt, Bill Seidel, Pat Deck, Hy Ritzenberg and others.

New York, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—The twice-postponed ten-round fight between Tony Canzoneri, the lightweight champion, and Henry Perlick, at Bayonne, N. J., today was called off.

Macks Lose Haas For World Series

Broken Wrist Fails to Heal Properly; Simmons Will Report.

Philadelphia, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—George "Mule" Haas, injured centerfielder of the Philadelphia Athletics, probably will be lost to the club for the rest of the season, including the world series, Manager Connie Mack said today. His wrist, broken several weeks ago, has failed to mend as well as hoped for.

"Doc" Ebling, club trainer, explained the trouble today as difficulty with the "knuckle bone" of the left wrist. He said efforts of Haas to swing a bat resulted in the bone slipping out of place, causing pain and weakness.

His place probably will be filled by Roger Cramer, who has been playing since the injury.

Al Simmons, who has been at his home in Milwaukee with a sprained ankle, has been ordered to report to the Athletics in Boston next Friday.

C. U. TO LOSE FOUR GRID PLAYERS

Blasi in Group Not Returning; Bergman on Scene.

RETURNING from a 5,000-mile automobile tour to take charge of preseason football practice beginning next Tuesday, Coach Arthur "Dutch" Bergman found sad news awaiting him yesterday on the Catholic University campus. Five experienced players, all of whom had figured in plans for the 1931 season, will not return to the Brookland school, Bergman was informed.

The quintet is composed of Rocco Blasi, of Newark, N. J., who will be missed as a middleweight boxer as well as a football end; Nick Monaco, also of Newark, a veteran guard; Tom Callahan, of Akron, Ohio, and Charles Achstetter, of this city, both tackles, and Ted Bonetti, of Springfield, Mass., a half back.

Reasons were not definitely assigned in the cases of all but Blasi, who, it was said, will enter Harvard University to pursue the study of dentistry. Blasi during the past three years at Catholic earned quite a reputation for his boxing ability, but only last fall gained notice as a football player. In one dual boxing meet last winter he personally won a decision for Catholic by defeating two opponents.

Monaco and Bonetti To Be Missed.

Among the others the loss of Monaco and Bonetti will be more keenly felt, it was said, Monaco having proven a bulwark in the line for two years and Bonetti having shown much promise as a ball carrier in 1931 spring practice.

Accompanying Coach Bergman on his tour were his wife and two children and Eddie Lafond, Catholic freshmen coach. They visited New England states, Canada, and the Middle West, consuming about 25 days.

The two new Brookland coaches, George Vik and Forrest Cotton, who were signed last spring, had not arrived at a late hour yesterday. They are expected momentarily. The first practice will get under way at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the Brookland Stadium.

Catholic University and Gallaudet College have moved up the date of their football game from October 10 to 9 in deference to the Maryland-Navy contest, scheduled on the first-mentioned date. Other changes may be made in the Catholic University schedule pertaining to night games. Athletic Director Bergman stated yesterday. Bergman said he will inquire into the possibility of staging one or two of Catholic's contests at night in Griffith Stadium.

Loughran Cuts Eye; Seeks Postponement

Loughran was working with Sullivan in preparation for a bout with Jack Gross in Philadelphia Monday night when Sullivan rammed Loughran with his head. It was necessary to take several stitches.

Loughran has asked for a postponement of the Gross fight.

Red Sox Lead, 3 to 0, When Rain Falls

Brown Also to Hurl; Moore, MacFayden Pitch for Sox.

Special to The Washington Post.

FENWAY PARK, Boston, Mass., Aug. 28.—The Nationals and the Red Sox wasted two and a half hours of wet afternoon today at Fenway Park. Their game was called off finally at the end of the third inning, with the Sox leading, 3 to 0, and there will be two games tomorrow.

Three times Umpire in Chief Red Ormsby held up the game, each time for a shower, accompanied by thunder and lightning. Twice it was resumed, but at about 5:15 there came a veritable deluge. It poured and the field rapidly became a quagmire. Ormsby still wanted to give the fans, some 3,000 of them, a run for their money and their interest. But it was no use, and at 5:30, 2½ hours after the scheduled start, operations were called off.

Rained All Day Around Boston.

It rained in and around greater Boston all day. The sun came out at 10 o'clock. President Bob Quinn would have been perfectly within his rights to have called off the game and billed two for tomorrow. Double-headers go well here. But he clung to his play-if-we-can policy, but eventually got left, if you look at it that way; or, from the gate receipts angle, got his reward in the manufacture of a double-header.

Danny MacFayden and Alvin Crowder were the opposing flingers in this short, no-account game. The Sox made their three runs in the third, when Warstler and Webb walked and Rhyne, Miller and Oliver singled. The game actually was last called in the first of the fourth, with one out, West on base by virtue of a pass and the rain coming down in sheets. Lloyd Brown may pitch for the Nats tomorrow in the opener, and Fischer, or even Crowder, in the second game. The Sox plan to use MacFayden again and Wilcy Moore.

Cleveland, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Mel Harder let the Browns down with four hits today while the Cleveland Indians pounded out their second straight triumph over St. Louis, 13 to 1.

Special to The Washington Post.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Three Washington baseball players appeared in a new and novel line-up today when they stood beside an accused hold-up man, plain clothes policemen, the son of the police superintendent, and others at police headquarters.

It was a police line-up, with Joe Cronin, "Sad" Sam Jones and Joe Judge included, and out of the line-up S. N. Marshall, clerk at the Hotel Beaconsfield, picked William J. Manning as the man who held him up on August 14 and stole $400 from the hotel cash drawer.

Manning is also held by police in connection with the murder of Alexander Baxter, elderly Roxbury storekeeper.

Kilmer Star Faces Task Today

Draws Top Weight in Lincoln Fields Feature.

Plucky Play, Victor Over Sun Beau, to Add 8 Pounds.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Gallant old Sun Beau, greatest money winning thoroughbred of all time, has an important business engagement to fulfill here tomorrow afternoon. Afterward he will step into a private car to return to Saratoga in an attempt to beat Twenty Grand in the Saratoga Cup next Saturday.

Sun Beau, which has earned $334,044, will attempt to add another $25,000 to Willis Sharpe Kilmer's turf winnings in galloping to victory, if possible, in the $25,000 added Lincoln Handicap at 1¼ miles at Lincoln Fields tomorrow afternoon.

A field of twelve was named today for the sixth running of the stake. The track was heavy due to last night's terrific rains, and of the twelve thoroughbreds named, it is expected that not more than eight will go to the post.

Sun Beau Top Weight, With 129 Pounds.

Sun Beau will carry top weight of 129 pounds, 2 less than he shouldered when he was beaten by Plucky Play in the Hawthorne Handicap two weeks ago. Tomorrow Plucky Play will carry 114 pounds, while in the Hawthorne he got in with the light impost of only 106 pounds.

Paul Bunyan, one of the best route runners over a heavy track in America, will have a comparatively light weight package of 113 pounds, and the rules second choice, with Plucky Play at odds of 4 to 1. Sun Beau was quoted at 6 to 5.

The field, in addition to Sun Beau, Plucky Play and Paul Bunyan, includes the 3-year-old Pittsburgher, Chief John, No More, Knight Commander, The Nut, Calf Roper, Seguro, My Dandy and Brown Wisdom.

Boots and Saddle's

(Reg. U. S. Patent Office)

—Lincoln Fields Selections—

By J. B. SNODGRASS.

LINCOLN FIELDS, Chicago, Ill., Aug. 28.—A program headed by the Lincoln Handicap, a test over the mile and a quarter route, which received a list of twelve in the overnight entries, will be served the patrons of Lincoln Fields tomorrow. The important fixture, which carries an added purse value of $25,000, will bring together such stasters as W. S. Kilmer's SUN BEAU, world's leading money winner; PLUCKY PLAY, PITTSBURGHER and PAUL BUNYAN.

The Outer Drive Handicap, secondary feature, will be decided at the 6-furlong sprint distance. This test is fashioned for 3-year-olds and upward and is worth $2,000.

Considerable interest will be centered on the main attraction. SUN BEAU, which has compiled an enviable record, will strive to increase his earnings. PLUCKY PLAY, from the Northway Stable, holds a decision over the Sun Briar horse, in their last meeting at Hawthorne. Although the son of My Play is in receipt of fifteen pounds from the Kilmer horse, with the muddy track condition, it appears safe to predict that SUN BEAU will even matters with his rival. PITTSBURGHER, sturdy son of In Memoriam, a mud runner of the first flight, with an impost of 110 pounds, figures to split the top two.

In the supporting event, MALOLO, a winner at this track, is nicely suited by the conditions, and in this small field is given the call. MY DANDY, although entered in the Lincoln Handicap, is better placed in this event, and if he starts here will be hard to beat. HOT SHOT, a consistent sprinter in the C. E. Davison Stable, is the show selection.

FIRST RACE—SUSU has shown speed in recent efforts and favored by his outside position should annex the purse. PIETRO, a speedy worker, is the contender, with THE WHIG, a mud runner, selected for the minor award.

SECOND RACE—INFINITY and BARON KING, two steady platers, are closely matched. The former on his recent brilliant effort is accorded the honors. THE OKAH is dropping down here and may prove dangerous.

THIRD RACE—PORT HARLEM has trained well since his last start at Latonia and is ready to contest the issue with FIDDLER. The latter may falter in the heavy going, but is favored for the place, with PLUMAGE, a consistent sort, given the show call.

SIXTH RACE—GRAND PRINCE, from the Valley Lake Stable, winner of his last at this track, appears admirably placed. TIGER FLOWERS has shown several consistent races over a route and in this group should furnish stern opposition. GORMOND will favor the distance and should outgame ATLIL for the show award.

SEVENTH RACE—SHOW DOWN appears best of the seventeen opponents pitted against him. The Ultimatum gelding scored easily in his last and under identical conditions should repeat. SEARINGTON, an honest plater from the J. Coffey string, is given the place call, with BRUSH as the selection for the show end of the purse.

LINCOLN FIELDS, ILL., CHART, AUGUST 28, 1931.

WEATHER, CLEAR. TRACK, HEAVY.

FIRST RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse, $1,200; claiming. For maiden 2-year-old colts and geldings. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 1:17. Off at 2:17½. Winner, Bidwell and Lewis' ch. c. (2), by Allawood—Honey Lou. Trained by G. E. Lewis. Value to winner, $850; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50. Time, 0:25, 0:51, 1:04, 1:12 3-5.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—WOOD HONEY, $78.02, $37.14, $11.24; ADSUM, $10.34, $4.58; MUELLER, $2.90.

WOOD HONEY gained steadily after going half the distance and, closing gamely on the inside after entering the stretch, wore down MUELLER and won going away. ADSUM was close to the pace at all times and outgamed MUELLER. The latter had the most early speed and withstood the challenges of STRATHCONA at the stretch turn, but weakened near the end. STRATHCONA stopped badly after taking a short lead approaching the last turn. The others were never serious factors.

SECOND RACE—Seven furlongs, out of chute. Purse, $1,200; claiming. For 3-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 2:44. Off at 2:44½. Winner, B. W. Parrish's b. f. Two-dollar mutuels paid—TOWN LIGHT, $14.62, $6.02, $4.66; IN HASTE, $4.98, $4.72; FUDGE, $5.06.

TOWN LIMIT, given a good ride, raced on even terms with HARRY HIEOVER under restraint to stretch, then drew out to open up a good lead and won under mild urging. IN HASTE saved ground in the stretch and finished courageously on the inside. FUDGE was going fastest of all at the end and would have been second in another stride. HARRY HIEOVER tired in the stretch. ANNIE REE and BEAUTIFUL DOLL were never dangerous.

THIRD RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse, $1,300; allowances. Humming Bird Purse. For 2-year-old fillies. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 3:10½. Off at 3:12. Winner, A. C. Pelletier's b. f. (2), by Sweep On—Prenez Garde. Trained by owner. Value to winner, $950; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50. Time, 0:24 1-5, 0:50 1-5, 1:05, 1:12 2-5.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—COLONIAL BELLE, $9.14, $3.50, $2.94; GIVANNA, $2.64, $2.40; VOLTA MAID, $2.86.

COLONIAL BELLE could not keep up with early leaders, but came fast in the stretch to catch GIVANNA near the end and win going away. The latter was hard urged in the early stages to catch VOLTA MAID and, after taking a good lead at midstretch, swerved under punishment and stopped to almost a walk in the final thirty yards. VOLTA MAID sprinted to the front on the inside soon after the start and made the pace, but could not last. FAIR LEE made up some ground. BEAUTY BRIDE tired after showing some early speed.

FOURTH RACE—Seven furlongs. Purse, $1,200; claiming. For 3-year-olds. Start good. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 3:41. Off at 3:43½. Winner, Royal Stable's b. c. Two-dollar mutuels paid—ROYAL ROGUE, $19.54, $7.02, $3.50; MICHIGAN GIRL, $3.94, $2.86; TIGER PRINCE, $2.90.

ROYAL ROGUE, well up at all stages, took a good lead after entering the stretch and, showing little signs of weakness, led to the finish to win easily. MICHIGAN GIRL was outrun early, but made up ground in the stretch and pulled up a trifle sore. TIGER PRINCE could not keep up with the early pace, but closed fast in the stretch run. The latter had ample early speed, but tired in the final drive. SAN PRESTO was outrun throughout. BOOSTER TWIST appeared to sulk and was far back throughout.

FIFTH RACE—Seven furlongs (out of chute). Purse, $1,500; allowances. Englewood Purse. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 4:12½. Off at 4:14. Two-dollar mutuels paid—CAMP PRINCE, $10.58, $6.60, $4.60; DE SWASEY, $26.70, $9.54; QUATRE BRAS II, $7.66.

CAMP PRINCE met with slight interference after the start, but was in a prominent position at all stages and, coming fast when ready, took a good lead in the stretch and scored handily. DE SWASEY lost much ground by racing wide, but closed gamely and was gaining on the winner. QUATRE BRAS II lugged in badly in the turn home and finished with good courage. SUN DOT tired in the run home. ABDEL stopped badly when the stretch was reached. ESKIMO was far back most of the way and did not seem to fancy the going.

SIXTH RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse, $1,200; claiming. For maiden 2-year-old colts and geldings. Start good. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 4:43. Off at 4:43½. Winner, A. L. Two-dollar mutuels paid—MAJOR BEN, $10.26, $5.92, $4.90; GOLD TIP, $7.08, $4.66; LITTLE TONEY, $8.86.

MAJOR BEN broke well and, showing a liking for the going, led all the way to be an easy winner. GOLD TIP made up ground and was going gamely at the end. LITTLE TONEY was prominent from the start and saved ground in the stretch, but tired in the final furlong. SIDE STEP was badly outrun to the stretch, then closed fast. PRINCE HERBERT and CLASSY'S CHOICE were shut off and lost all chance when CELTIC WAY came over sharply on the far turn. CELTIC WAY tired after dashing into a contending position.

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles. Purse, $1,300; claiming. For 3-year-olds. Start good. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 5:10½. Off at 5:11. Winner, E. F. Prichard's b. f. Two-dollar mutuels paid—TRANSGRESSION, $13.94, $5.30, $3.74; SKRIP, $4.64, $3.76; BLACK IVORY, $3.90.

TRANSGRESSION, much the best, went to the front when ready on the back stretch and, increasing her margin as she went, won in hand. SKRIP raced well up throughout and made a game bid after entering the stretch, but was not good enough. BLACK IVORY closed ground to be a game-going third. PLAY BIRD and PHANTASIME weakened in the run home. OUTBURST was badly outrun.

GOLF 'BREAK' DECIDES FOR MRS. HILL

By PAUL MICKELSON.

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Kansas City's famous golfing mother, Mrs. O. S. Hill, conquered the wind and one of the biggest threats of the fairways in a dramatic battle today to join Mrs. Leona Pressler, of San Gabriel, Calif., as finalists in the struggle for the women's Western golf championship.

While Mrs. Pressler hauled out her magic irons to rout her less experienced rival, June Beebe, of Chicago, 5 and 4, Mrs. Hill came from behind with a stirring finish to defeat Virginia Van Wie, of Chicago, 1 up, in a match that traveled 19 holes and ended with the wind handing Mrs. Hill the victory by one of the many capers it played all day.

Because a great spoon shot enabled Mrs. Hill to square the match on the seventeenth green, the two found themselves just where they started when they finished their regulation 18 holes. But at that point the wind, whipping across the course, interceded in Mrs. Hill's favor. It caught Miss Van Wie's second shot, carried it out of bounds and jammed her into a hole she couldn't climb out of. Mrs. Hill, grasping the break, played safely to win the par 5 hole with a 6 to Miss Van Wie's 7 and marched into the finals.

Miss Van Wie excelled her rival today in every department of golf except in putting. She frequently whacked her approaches to within easy putting distances for what looked to be certain wins only to miss them and have Mrs. Hill come into halve the hole. Twice on the back nine, she needed three putts and lost both times as Mrs. Hill climbed out of trouble by sinking her first putt.

Star Natators In Potomac Contest

N.Y.A.C. Heads List of Teams Seeking President's Cup.

THIRTY noted distance swimming stars, including Ed Lee, national A. A. U. distance champion, and Ray Ruddy, 1930 winner of the event, will toe the line today at 3 o'clock as the annual 3-mile swim for the President's Cup takes off from the Washington Canoe Club. Ruddy, four times winner of the swim, looms as a slight favorite, despite the defeat handed him last Sunday by Lee in the national A. A. U. 4-mile swim at New York.

The New York Athletic Club, present holder of the President's Cup, will be represented by its strongest squad. Besides Ruddy and Lee, the N. Y. A. C. line-up bristles with such satellites as Walter Spence, Wallace Spence, Don Ruddy, Leo Geibel, Ben Grady and Joe Farley. The club took all first five places last year to walk away with the trophy with ease.

As in 1930 the welter of competition promises to center around the winning of second and third places. On past performances, second place is a toss-up between the Bay Shore Swimming Club, the Central Y. M. C. A., and the host club, the Washington Canoe Club.

Places Far Distant Represented.

Geographically, it is the greatest President's Cup race. The clubs competing hail from the District, New York, Brooklyn, Baltimore (2) and individuals from Spain and Quantico.

The District will put the cream of its swimmers in the water in an attempt to salvage some of the laurels which each year have been taken away from the city. The Washington Canoe Club will enter Lawrence Buscher, who finished sixth last year; Robert Wrenn, John Daly, Larry Kemp and Frank Daly. The Ambassador Swimming Club makes its debut in the race and has posted the name of Constancio Alvarado, rated the best breaststroke swimmer in the city.

Three unattached stars, who may be heard from, are Franklin D. Jackson, of Quantico; Joseph R. Hodgins, of Baldwin N. Y., and John Gill, of Baltimore.

Col. U. S. Grant 3d, director of public buildings and public parks, is honorary referee of the swim. He will present the President's Cup to the winning team and gold, silver and bronze medals and other trophies to individual performers.

WASHINGTON CANOE CLUB—Lawrence Buscher, Frank Daly, Robert Wrenn, Larry Kemp, John Daly.

THREE NAT PLAYERS IN COURT LINE-UP

son of Superintendent Crowley, their host, and as Marshall scanned the line none of them moved a muscle.

Marshall, after a look at the men standing before him, passed up the ball players and the superintendent's son and touched Manning on the shoulder.

"A bad half hour," was the way Cronin summed it up afterward, declaring that "a couple of those birds gave Joe Judge dirty looks, but probably figured him a tough guy and did not dare put a finger on him." Jones claimed that Manning was "the calmest guy in the lot," while Judge declared that with hospitals, and police headquarters, he had visited about all Boston's best institutions.

PERFORMS HERE IN BENEFIT

The young lady brandishing the bat so belligerently and with such approved form is Margaret Grisio, first baseman of the Hollywood Movie Girls baseball team which will appear in Washington on Tuesday against the Pullman A. C. in a benefit game for Frank Cinotti, manager of the St. Joseph's team of the Capital City League, who is recovering from an operation. Miss Grisio is one of the featured performers of the girls' team and handles her first base post in fine style.

CAPITAL CITY NINES EYE WEATHER

Four Title Contests Booked on Ellipse Tomorrow.

WITH eight teams lined up at the barrier awaiting the word that will send them into action tomorrow in quest of championships of The Post's Capital City League titles, all that remains to insure the success of the day is a favorable nod from the weatherman.

Last Sunday marked the only real bad day encountered by the sandlotters this summer, although there had been one Sunday when a few games were postponed because of unfavorable weather conditions.

Unless the rain, which has descended every afternoon this week, grants a brief respite over the week-end, however, there is a strong possibility that the entire program will again be delayed. The teams most anxious to see action are the contenders for the junior crown and the unlimited clubs. The juniors have only one game to play to decide which of the two shall possess the title and are naturally anxious to have the issue decided.

Saks and Tigers in Second Clash.

Saks and Takoma, with one game already in the Tigers' favor, would like to be rid of the second tilt, for then either the Takoma team will be champs for the second successive year or Saks will be satisfied that it possesses punch enough to subdue its highly touted opponents.

The jocular remark made a day or so ago that various members of the senior teams want a short vacation from sand lot baseball before returning to school, evidently carried more weight than was first suspected, and a more thorough examination of the rosters of each team reveal that both Olmsted Grill and the Miller-Roamers will be hit hard by the loss of regular players if the series is delayed too long.

And the Midgets, Well, the Midgets really are not growing any gray hairs over their block of games, for they have all winter and part of next spring left in which to settle their little question of supremacy. The two contenders, Spengler and Wonder Bread, played another tie game yesterday, their second of the current season, and it may require all of the time mentioned above to decide the winner.

MULDOON TROPHY AIM OF SCHAAF

Schaaf's regard for it is not hard to understand. It was Schaaf who was selected by the sculptor, Mahonri Young, to pose for the figure emblematic of the championship.

It was little realized on that day three years ago, when Schaaf gathered with a score of other unknowns at Stillman's Gym in response for the call for boxers to pose for the trophy, that he would some day be a contender for it.

At that time Schaaf's only claim to recognition was his near-perfect physique. He had been boxing for two years with mediocre success.

Ernie will receive his most important test Monday in a 12-round bout with Victorio Campolo, of Argentina, at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, and if successful is in a fair way to earn an early shot at Max Schmeling's title.

Schaaf himself believes he is destined to win the title and will go to any length to scale the heights. He even is willing to fight Jack Sharkey, his comanager and sponsor.

"Boxing is business, and if there is a demand for such a match, I'd give Sharkey the works in a minute and I believe he would feel the same way about it," said Schaaf. "I don't believe the man lives who can whip me now. One or two might outspar me in ten rounds as Tommy Loughran did in our last start, but no one is going to whip me in fifteen."

INSECT NINES OPEN TITLE CONTESTS

Orioles, Wonder Boys Open Capital City Play-Off Today.

THE Orioles and Wonder Boys will meet in the first of a three-game series to decide the Insect championship of the Capital City League today at 11 a. m. on the Camp Meigs diamond. This site was selected for the game at the request of the two teams, both of which originated in the northeast section of the city.

The Wonders will be fighting to retain the title which they won after a gruelling series of extra-inning games with the Georgetown A. C. It is the Orioles' first adventure into organized baseball, and they are finding it an agreeable experience.

The Wonders captured the first half pennant, but a revamped Oriole line-up mowed down all opposition the second time around, including the Wonders to win in a walk.

New Gridiron Ready For American U. Team

When American University's football candidates report for their initial practice on September 15, they will utilize for the first time a new athletic field adjacent the campus on Massachusetts avenue. The field has been prepared for service during the past year and under tentative plans will be the scene of American's home games.

At present American has only one game billed for local consumption, that being the clash with High Point (N. C.). College on October 17. However, Athletic Director Walter H. Young is negotiating for the transfer here of games scheduled with Shenandoah (Va.) College and Shepherd (W. Va.) College scheduled for October 24 and 31, respectively.

EARNSHAW "IRON MAN."

Mickey Cochrane, star catcher of the Philadelphia Athletics, says George Earnshaw could pitch every other day. A great many American League clubs trimmed regularly by the big righthander have the impression that he does.

HOLLYWOOD GIRLS WIN 35 GAMES

Play Here Tuesday Against Pullman at Ball Park.

WHEN the Hollywood Movie Stars Girls Baseball Team invades Griffith Stadium Tuesday for its game with the Pullman Athletic Club, it will bring with it the impressive record of 35 victories in 91 starts, compiled against leading professional and semiprofessional teams of the country. The game, proceeds from which will help defray hospital expenses of Frank Cinotti, veteran sandlotter, who is recovering from an attack of appendicitis, should be warmly contested.

The Girls were defeated by Bullet Joe Bush's Allentown Club, and won over the Omaha Packers and Hans Wagner's All Stars, in their most recent games. The team has met all of the teams in the Pacific Coast League, those in the Missouri Valley circuit and probably will campaign against those in the Southern League before returning home.

Former Big Leaguer Coaches.

The team is coached by Paddy Ryan, former New York Giants star, and has been on the road fifteen weeks since leaving California. Unlike many girl teams which have toured the country, the Hollywood aggregation is composed entirely of girls. Some of the interesting personalities on the club's roster are Jenny Lee, third sacker, who appeared in Universal's Collegiate Series. Miss Lee is also the champion long distance swimmer of California. Lucille Wilson, short stop, had a minor role in "The Broadway Melody."

The only girl to ever play in the American Legion national baseball tournament, Margaret Gisolo, is also a member of the team. Fifteen players in all are carried.

Naval Hospital Evens Series; Crews Stars With Pitching.

NAVAL HOSPITAL deadlocked the series with Government Printing Office for the championship of the Departmental League by whitewashing the latter on the West Ellipse yesterday by a score of 7-0. About 1,000 fans witnessed the fray.

The Sailors scored one run in each of the first and fourth innings, and then sewed the game up with a three-run attack in the sixth. Not content with this, the winners added two markers in the seventh to conclude the scoring for the day. It was a case of Naval Hospital helping itself to four runs and G. P. O. helping them to the rest with seven costly errors. The Printers shone in this respect in the sixth, when Osti and Isert singled in order and tallied on Crews' double to center field, the second run directly resulting from a bad throw to Schneider at the plate. "Skip" Gartland followed this up with a wild throw to Homan at third after fielding King's roller, permitting Crews to score.

Crews twirled a masterful game, granting only three safe blows and fanning six. Some poor base running by the losers, which terminated in men being doubled off bases on flies to the outfield, helped "Rebel" out of the few trying situations he found himself in. The hitting of Isert was also a big factor in Naval Hospital's win.

The deciding game of the series will be played today at 3 p. m. on the North Ellipse diamond. Bob Lyons or Frank Corkins will hurl for G. P. O., while either "Babe" Clapper or Calvin Hull will be available for the Tars.

Brown, Russell See Tough Games Go Against Them

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Maybe this is a pitchers' year—what with the less lively ball, raised seams and all—but the American league moaner's bench still is well populated with hard luck hurlers.

Heading the annual list of ill-fated flingers in the junior circuit are Lloyd Brown of Washington and Jack Russell, of Boston—they have some sad tales to tell.

Brown's attempts to stop the Philadelphia Athletics have resulted in four heart rending losses. He opened the season against the Macks and, allowing but two hits going into the ninth with a 2-to-1 lead, saw the champions tie it up in that frame and go on to win in the eleventh.

Next time Brown faced the A's he was ahead 3 to 2 going into the last inning, but an infield made slippery by rain helped the champs to three scratch hits and winning runs. Another time he lost to Mack's club, 1 to 0, being removed for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

And on his fourth attempt, Brown had the A's down in the ninth and two strikes on Phil Todt when that worthy walloped a home run that spelled a 6 to 5 defeat for the Griffs.

In the matter of getting insufficient help from his mates, Russell's case is perhaps the most doleful on record. Through five of his defeats his fellow Red Sox accumulated a total of one run, though he held the opposition to low scores.

On one occasion he blanked the A's for 11 innings but his mates couldn't score and he gave out in the twelfth, surrendering five runs.

George Blaeholder of the Browns and "Uncle Urban" Faber of the White Sox are next in line at the wailing wall. Faber's woes possibly are more keenly felt by fandom because of the Cascade caster's years of faithful service and the fact he didn't get into good form until late July.

On that day he lost a 3-2 game to Boston, though giving only six hits. Three times in the first half of August he pitched masterful games, winning one by a shut out, but losing twice when the Sox failed to give him even one run to work on.

Blaeholder spread 33 hits out over five games, but lost them all—by 2-1, 2-0, 3-2, 4-2 and 5-4 counts.

Vic Sorrell, of Detroit, has specialized in close ones, losing four times by one and twice by two tallies, but getting four victories on one-run margins.

Art Herring, also of the Tigers, Danny McFayden and Rod Lisenbee, of Boston, and Herb Pennock and George Pipgras, of the Yankees are other hurlers who have had more than their share of tough luck.

But the league statistics offer no evidence whatever to indicate that any of the Athletics' twirlers could qualify for the moaners' bench. None whatever!

Shore Reaches Two Finals In Capital City Net Event

FRANK SHORE, who was seeded No. 4, reached the final round of the Capital City Tennis League Tournament yesterday in both singles and doubles, as he stepped over Gene Hermann, seeded No. 2, in a semifinal singles match and, teamed with Anthony Latona, beat Murray Gould and Hyman Ritzenberg in the doubles round of four, both matches being concluded in straight sets.

Shore had only to win one set yesterday to beat Hermann, although the complete scores read 6—1, 12—10. Shore gained the first set Thursday before rain interfered. The former junior champion ran into real difficulty at the start of the second set; and although he forged to 5—3 by dint of some stellar volleying, saw Hermann take his service from him for 5—4, hold his own for 5—5, and then go into the lead by breaking Shore's serve again for 6—5.

Shore Wins Out in Duel From Baselines.

Shore quit his volleying game at this point, and the match evolved into a soft baseline duel which produced long rallies but fewer instances of sparkling play. Shore gained a slight edge and held it until the end, with Hermann threatening all the time.

Shore meets Latona for the Deck Trophy Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Henry Park. Paired, they will meet the winner of a doubles match between Pat Deck and Bill Seidel vs. Gene Hermann and Maurice O'Neill for the doubles title. The Deck-Seidel Hermann-O'Neill match will be played this morning.

"BROTHER HARDING, hard-hitting first baseman of the Government Printing Office team, captured the individual batting honors of the Government League for the season just concluded, according to figures released last night by H. W. Atkinson, official scorer.

Harding's total of 24 hits in 43 times at bat gave him an average of .558. Bridges star outfielder of the Naval Hospital nine, finished second with an average of .481. Brown and Hargett, both in Interstate, tied for third place honors at .474, although the latter participated in four more games than his opponent.

Team batting honors were accorded G. P. O. with its .350 average. Naval Hospital, however, was only 6 points behind its rival in this respect.

BAY SHORE'S SWIMMERS WIN HERE

Washingtonians Bow at Airport Pool by 17 Points.

THE Bay Shore Swimming Club administered the most decisive defeat of the year to the representatives of the Washington Swimming Club in a meet held at the Airport Swimming Pool last night. The final score, 33½ to 16½, indicates the wide margin of superiority the visiting swimmers enjoyed over the local mermaids.

Grace Warner, of Bay Shore, who captured the 120 backstroke and 120-yard free-style races, was the individual star of the meet, but Onalene Lawrence, ace of the local team, was not far behind, with first place in the 120-yard breaststroke and second in the fancy diving contests.

Louise Calligan, winner of the fancy diving contest and a member of the winning relay team, shared top honors with her teammate, Miss Warner.

120-YARD RELAY RACE—Won by Bay Shore (Warner, Wilford, Standton, Calligan). Time, 1:42 2-5.

120-YARD BACKSTROKE—Won by Grace Warner (B.); second, Lenore Taube (W.); third, Jeanne Smith (W.) and Olivia Warner (B.). (Tie). Time, 1:44 2-5.

120-YARD BREASTSTROKE—Won by Onalene Lawrence (W.); second, Elizabeth Leonard (B.); third, Winifred Standton (B.). Time, 2:05 2-5.

40-YARD FREE STYLE—Won by Genevieve Willford (B.); second, Louise Calligan (B.); third, Rita Augusterfer (W.). Time, 0:37 2-5.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

ANXIETY.

THE great hunger of our times is for security. Of course, the great basic hunger is for food, but as to that our time is in no sense peculiar. Hunger for food begins at the cradle and lasts until the grave. It began with life, has run down the ages, and will always be the greatest of all urges.

The hunger for opportunity to propagate is almost as much a part of nature. In plant life it begins as leafing ends, and is the urge that causes flowering and seeding. In animal life it begins in adolescence and runs for something over 30 years. During that period it ranks not far below food hunger.

Efforts to put alcohol hunger and other drug hungers in the class with these basic hungers are futile, since they are artificially created, and the arguing which attempts to make them otherwise is childish.

The hunger for security has a social and not a natural basis, but of the hungers on its basis none is more deeply rooted. Inability to satisfy that hunger begets anxiety. There are more people who are suffering from anxiety because their hunger for security is not satisfied than there are who are faint because of insufficiency of food. We are in need of food in spots in society, and here and there the need is met by bread lines. Nobody has devised a bread line for those who hunger for security.

Anxiety is a disease, in a certain sense. It is a mild form of the great root-stock disease—fear. As a rule, anxiety is a chronic disease. With organic functions and diseases it occupies a reciprocal arrangement. There are many organic causes of anxiety and, on the other hand, anxiety can engender a considerable list of organic effects. Poor digestion can cause anxiety, and anxiety can cause poor digestion. It does not follow that anxiety is to be thought of as physical. It is an emotional disorder. Fear is one of the fundamental urges. It begins very soon after the beginings of hunger. It differs from hunger in that the food urge is active from the beginning while fear tends to remain latent. In fact, nature supplies the foundation and nothing more. It is education through the experiences of life that build the superstructure of fear. Security and the anxiety which grows up by its side are artificials developed by this education.

Whatever the explanation of its origins may be, the fact is that the great yearning for security is here. The anxiety which unsatisfactory security begets is a widespread emotional disease. A proper regard for human welfare and social and individual demands should be given it.

LET PHYSICIAN DECIDE.

Mrs. O. W. writes: I have been told that I have sacroiliac trouble. Will the wearing of a belt effect a cure? Will complete rest cure or only alleviate the trouble?

REPLY.

It may do so. Some cases are so cured. Your physician is the best judge of which treatment suits your case.

RINGWORM.

J. B. M. writes: In a severe case of ringworm do you advise destroying all footwear, or can shoes be treated so as to kill any ringworm germs?

REPLY.

It is not necessary to destroy all shoes and stockings. Sunlight and airing suffice for shoes; boiling, for stockings.

The parisite gets its main hold around the toenail. It is hard to destroy in that region.

STOCK PRICES CLIMB IN HOPEFUL MARKET

British Financial News Aids Trading in Turnover of 926,040 Shares.

New York, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—The financial markets took on a somewhat ruddier complexion today, as the weekly mercantile review indicated a few faint signs of an autumn pick-up, and the progress in negotiating a large loan to Great Britain was widely regarded as promising fresh stability to international finance.

Stocks pushed up rather briskly for a time, but ran into some week-end liquidation toward the close. The price average of 90 shares, however, showed a net gain of more than a point for the day. The turnover of 926,040 shares was the largest in a week.

Cotton was helped by the better tone in stocks, and futures closed 40 to 60 cents a bale higher, but little encouragement was derived from the action of the commodity markets generally. Corn held about steady, but wheat futures eased a little on further reports of large Russian sales in the European markets. Futures at Chicago closed ¼ to ½ cent a bushel lower.

Pound Back to $4.86.

The pound sterling has been little influenced by the loan negotiations during the past two days. After pushing about ¼ of a cent to $4.86¼ for cables on Wednesday, it has slipped back to $4.86 today. That level, however, is still well above the point at which gold might be taken from London to New York and is only ⅝ of a cent below gold parity. Other prominent currencies were but slightly changed in today's foreign exchange markets.

Aside from the weekly mercantile reviews, there was little of moment in the day's business and corporate news. Crude oil and gasoline prices continued to show firming tendencies in various parts of the country, and there is no let-up to rumors of mergers of oil companies.

A report that Sinclair is negotiating with Standard of Nebraska was regarded in Wall street as plausible, but confirmation was lacking. A recent rumor that the Royal Dutch interests might sell some of their important American properties to Continental Oil has been denied, both in London and New York.

Dividends Are Factors.

Dividend uncertainties remain a factor in the stock market, and it is generally felt in Wall street that they will continue to be a factor for some months. Chicago & Northwestern preferred, which had not traded since early July, when there was a transaction at 92, appeared on the tape today as low as 58, then recovered to 67.

Kreuger & Toll, a heavy feature yesterday, recovered partially today, closing ⅝ of a point higher. American bankers received advices from Sweden that this company, which heads the Swedish Match group, has shown but a slight reduction from 1930 in regular recurring earnings, and that there have been no defaults on its foreign government securities. The stock is traded on several European exchanges.

Several prominent stocks pushed up 2 to 5, then slipped back a point or two from top in the late trading. It was notable, however, that the market was most active on the advance. U. S. Steel and American Telephone gained about 2½, then fell back about a point from the top. Eastman pushed up 5 and closed up about 3. Issues closing about 2 points higher included American Can, Allied Chemical, Air Reduction, Case and Union Pacific.

Exchange Firms Seek Cut on Leased Wires

New York, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Representatives of leading member firms of the New York Stock Exchange with extensive wire connections are engaged in discussion on the advisability of petitioning telephone and telegraph companies to reduce rates on leased wire service, it was learned today.

It was pointed out that wire leases have proven an expensive overhead, in view of the smaller Wall street business. In other quarters, however, it was believed that strong opposition would be brought against the proposal.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, Aug. 28 (A.P.).—Heavy selling of all grains, particularly September corn, broke a promising bull market today and shoved prices generally below yesterday's closing figures. Coarse grains scored substantial advances early on good buying by commission houses and speculators who were influenced by unfavorable Nebraska and Iowa corn crop reports, the midmonth Nebraska report showing a decline of 34 points in corn condition as compared to a month ago. Wheat was sluggish and was influenced largely by corn strength.

Corn closed weak at almost the day's bottom figures, unchanged to ⅞ cent lower than yesterday's finish; wheat was ⅛@⅜ down, oats uneven, ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, and provisions showing 10@27 cents advance.

The present condition of the Nebraska corn crop was given as 57 per cent of normal, as compared with 91 a month ago and 78 at this time last year. The official August 1 estimate was 71 per cent. Heavy rains in parts of Iowa were apparently believed too late to help drought-stricken sections. Forecasts of frost tonight in Minnesota, North and South Dakota and parts of Wisconsin were also bullish influences.

Corn prices advanced steadily after minor losses at the start until just before the close. A barrage of selling orders by bear rally and liquidation by earlier purchasers finished the decline. There was a better Eastern demand. Oats stepped up with corn early, also meeting some selling at the finish.

Wheat failed to draw much support, although Liverpool closed strong, ¾@¾ cent higher. Clearances of only 3,359,000 bushels from North America for the week took the heart out of bulls to some extent. Weather conditions in Europe were more favorable, but it is believed the recent long spell of wet weather caused irreparable damage in western Europe. Argentina shipped 1,625,000 bushels for the week and Australia 1,751,000. Chinese buying on the Pacific Coast has slackened because of possibilities of purchases of Farm Board wheat.

Provisions firmed with hogs and grain. Closing indemnities: WHEAT—September, 46 46@46⅞; December, 47⅝@47¾; December, 50⅛@50¼. 51½@51⅝; May, 55¾. 56¾.

CORN—September, 40¾@40⅞. 43¾@43¾; December, 38¼. 39⅛; May, 42⅞.

COMMISSIONERS AIR NEW TRAFFIC LAWS ON SPEED QUESTION

AMENDED ACT FAILS TO SET LIMITATIONS

A new set of speed regulations for the Capital, offering one radical departure from those now in force, was before the board of District Commissioners yesterday.

The set provides for removal of current restrictions on trucks with pneumatic tires, a measure Traffic Director William A. Van Duzer says will do more than any other one thing to speed up traffic.

Trucks limited to 18 miles an hour on streets allowing other cars a four-mile margin only slow up the vehicular movement, rendering it impossible for automobiles held up behind to "make their lights," a study convinced the traffic director.

Far from constituting a traffic menace, such trucks, pneumatically equipped, have better braking equipment than other cars and do no more damage to the highways, Director Van Duzer said.

Fifteen-Mile Restriction.

As for solid-tired vehicles, they will continue to be restricted to 15 miles an hour in 22-mile districts, The Post learned. After January 1 the Traffic Bureau will allow no new ones to register, but vehicles now licensed will be permitted to operate under low-speed requirements.

Although the District has been without formal speed regulations since the amended traffic act became effective July 10, Mr. Van Duzer pointed out that the regulation against reckless driving, carried over from the old traffic regulations, is still effective, and could be applied, if need arose, against all speeders.

Charles C. Collins, attorney for the American Automobile Association, last night asserted that a "saving clause" in the amended traffic act carries over provisions restricting speed to 22 miles an hour in the District. The clause reads:

"All traffic, motor vehicle and vehicle regulations not inconsistent herewith, heretofore adopted or promulgated, are continued and shall remain in full force and effect until amended, altered or revoked."

Other Clauses Cited.

In the earlier act was a clause which read:

"No vehicle shall be operated upon any public highway in the District at a speed greater than 22 miles per hour, except in such outlying districts and upon such highways as the director may designate."

In the amended act is another clause which reads:

"No vehicle shall be operated at a greater rate of speed than permitted by regulations adopted under the authority of this act."

Mr. Collins maintained that the three clauses under the two acts are not inconsistent, and should "read together." He said he made a study of the acts last night in the interest of safety, fearing that some motorists might overstep the law in the interim before the new regulations are adopted.

Mr. Van Duzer said he was aware that new regulations must be promulgated under the amended act, but the need for a thorough study before recommendations were made in the matter has held up their announcement.

Other Modifications.

Only minor modifications of other existing speed requirements is contemplated in the recommendations now before the Commissioners, it was indicated. They may pass on the new rules within the week, but the regulations will not become effective until ten days after they have been approved and advertised in the newspapers.

Corporation Counsel W. W. Bride told The Post that the question of legality of speed charges placed against motorists since the amended act went into effect has not been raised.

Until the matter is formally submitted to him for an opinion by the Commissioners, as required under the law, Mr. Bride said, he would not pass on the legality of current speed cases. Published reports that if the right of the assistant corporation counsel's office to draw up papers had been questioned "there would have been nothing they could have done about it," were declared unauthorized by Mr. Bride.

Five Held in Raids For Alleged Liquor

Two Women and Two Men Nabbed as Police Seize Rum.

Three men and two women were arrested yesterday in four liquor raids led by Private E. C. O'Meara, Third Police Inspection District. All were charged with illegal possession of intoxicants. Mrs. Susie Miller, 54, was arrested at her home, 745 Seventh street southeast, where policemen reported they found 150 bottles of beer and 5 gallons of liquor.

Edward Wright, 34, and Patrick Lucy, 21, both colored, were seized at 712 Ninth street southwest along with 4½ gallons of alleged whisky. A few minutes later O'Meara and his men went to 121 K street southwest to arrest Mrs. Eliza Blair, 33 colored, and confiscated less than 1 gallon of alleged whisky.

In the only afternoon foray, Frank Parker, 35 colored, was arrested at 225 M street southwest and booked for possession of 30 bottles of beer and 1 gallon of whisky.

Girl Falls From Shed, Breaks Arm.

While playing on top of a shed in the rear of her home in the 3900 block of Van Ness street northwest, Irbine Waldecker, 11 years old, received a fracture of the right arm when she fell off the structure. She was treated at Casualty Hospital and later sent home.

MATE HELD AS RUMRUNNER

wife of Maurice M. Glaser, of this city. Glaser was released in $1,000 bail for Federal court action after a preliminary hearing in Baltimore yesterday on charges of transportation and possession of liquor. The same charges against Mrs. Glaser were dismissed. Cans of alleged alcohol were found in their car when it was overhauled after a 12-mile chase on the Baltimore pike near Laurel last week.

POLICEMAN THROWN FROM AUTO BY TRIO

Patrolman F. A. Carr, of the First Precinct, was slightly injured last night when thrown from the running board of an automobile, after he had fired upon its three colored occupants, who had been stealing gasoline from automobiles on Third street near L street northeast.

Patrolman Carr, while off duty, was summoned from his home, 1151 Third street northeast, by Mrs. Mary Walsh, a neighbor, who told him that three colored men had been stealing gasoline from an automobile owned by Frank Reed, of Mount Rainier, Md., a visitor at the Walsh home.

The policeman joined Reed and his cousin, Michael Walsh, of 1139 Third street, in watching the automobile. The colored men had filled their tank and were about to pick it up, when Carr told them to halt. Instead of complying, they sped the automobile toward Carr in an attempt to run him down.

He jumped to the running board. One man in the rear struck at him with a crank handle, while another tried to push him from the car. The automobile sped west on L street toward the railroad underpass. Carr fired a shot in the air, but the men refused to stop. He then fired a shot into the car.

The automobile slowed down and as the automobile neared the pillars under the railroad underpass, Carr was about to be swept from the running board when he was shoved. He fell to the pavement, receiving injuries to the right arm and left leg.

Police were checking hospitals to determine if any colored man appeared for treatment. Carr is certain that he wounded the driver of the automobile. For the past week residents of the vicinity had complained that gasoline had been syphoned from their automobile tanks.

Bandits Get $30 At Filling Station

Thomas R. Ernest, attendant at a Standard Oil filling station at 2612 Sherman avenue northwest, was held up last night by two armed bandits and forced to give them between $20 and $30. One of the pair carried a pistol.

A corner grocer told police he saw the men step from a taxicab at the corner of Fairmont street and converse nervously. Then they walked to the gas station. While one of the bandits covered Mr. Ernest with a pistol, the other ordered him to turn over the cash in his pockets. The attendant gave him $20 to $30 in bills and offered his change. This was refused. The till was not molested. The robbers escaped on foot, running west on Fairmont street.

The man who held the gun was about 20 years old, five feet six inches tall, 135 pounds and wore a brown suit and no hat. His accomplice was about the same age, slightly taller, same weight and wore dark clothing and a slouch hat. He had extremely dark hair and eyes, Ernest said.

YOUTHS' GUN LINKED TO LIMERICK DEATH

Police Are Told They Found Automatic on Dump Near Slain Woman's Home.

A 25-caliber automatic, taken from two youths arrested yesterday, who said they found it on the dumps in the rear of the home of the slain Beulah Limerick, who was murdered December 31, will be examined today by Lieut. John H. Fowler, to determine whether it was the gun used in the murder.

The gun was taken from Edward J. Embrey, 15 years old, of 1231 C street northeast, and Charles W. Spitzer, 18 years old, who gave his address as 150 Twelfth street northeast, by Patrolman Kenneth P. Greenlow, of the Traffic Bureau.

The policeman said he found the youths firing the gun at targets on M street northeast. They were taken to headquarters and booked on a charge of discharging firearms and released on $5 collateral.

Inspector Frank S. W. Burke said that the youths had told homicide squad detectives that they found the gun on the dumps near the District Jail several months ago. At that time, they said, the gun was rusty and they cleaned it to use for target practice.

The youths will be brought to court today on a charge of discharging firearms. Lieut. Fowler will begin his examinations on the pistol today.

Man Flees Lorton; Captured Nearby

Prisoner, Taken in Chase, Admits Being Lost During Night.

After making good his escape from the District of Columbia Reformatory at Lorton, Va., Robert L. Ludlow, colored, who was serving a five-year term for burglary, was captured last night about 10:30 o'clock within 100 yards of the home of Superintendent M. M. Barnard, of the institution.

Ludlow, who had completed seventeen months of his sentence, escaped from the cannery, where he was working, under cover of a dense fog. As soon as the escape was discovered the alarm was sounded and more than a dozen guards, assisted by Fairfax County police, conducted an all-day search.

Last night Ludlow was discovered near the home of Capt. Barnard by Clarence Sherman, who has charge of the chicken farm of the institution. Sherman caught Ludlow after a brief chase and Ludlow admitted he was lost.

Woman Injured in Fall From Porch at Home

Mrs. Rosa Stam, 39 years old, 4415 Georgia avenue northwest, was in an undetermined condition at Emergency Hospital last night, suffering from injuries to her back received when she fell from the rear porch on the first floor of her home.

Mrs. Stam was leaning against the porch railing when she lost her balance, police said. The Fire Department Rescue Squad and the Walter Reed Hospital ambulance responded. They rendered first aid and the ambulance removed Mrs. Stam to Emergency Hospital.

MINIMUM SCALE CALLED UNJUST AND INHUMAN

Union Spokesman Says That Cause Will Be Taken to Hoover if Not Adjusted.

Opposition to the minimum wage scale recommended for District government building projects cropped up last night in the form of a bitter protest entered by the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers' International Union of America.

President Emeritus William J. Bowen, speaking for the executive board of the organization, denounced proposals of Assistant Engineer Commissioner H. L. Robb as inhuman, and an effort to visit "starvation wages upon the employes of contractors on Government work."

Commissioners meanwhile postponed action on the proposal until next week, in order that Maj. Gen. Herbert B. Crosby, just returned from vacation, might vote on the plan. The District authorities were represented as anxious to reach an amicable agreement with all parties concerned, so as to forestall possible delay in the building program through law suits.

Maj Robb Assailed.

Asking, "Who is this Maj. Robb that he presumes to have the knowledge, the competence or the authority to fix a wage scale?" President Bowen continued:

"This major recommends that building trades workers be paid about the same rate per hour as directly employed Government workers who work steadily throughout the year, with a 30-day vacation and other privileges.

"To recommend that rate for men who must work a day when they can, and who seldom work a full week, is not only going beyond the provisions of the Federal prevailing wage law, but it is an effort to enforce an inhumanity that has no excuse of any kind, to say nothing of statutory warrant."

Rate Proposal Attacked.

He declared that Maj. Robb proposes a rate that would be from 35 to 50 per cent of the union rate. He declared the prevailing wage law provides that contractors on Government work shall pay the prevailing rate of wages and "most surely does not say that Assistant District Commissioners, or Commissioners either, shall say in advance what that scale is to be."

President Bowen pointed to Secretary of Labor Doak's ruling in the painters' case, where the labor head ruled the prevailing rate of $11 a day must be paid by contractors.

He said his union would be heard, too, or go to the President about it.

Robb's Stand on Ruling.

"Assistant Commissioner Robb points out that if contractors do not like the ruling they can appeal to the Department of Labor, but that if the wage earners do not like it they can appeal only as individuals," the union head said.

"He says the Secretary of Labor will not listen to unions of workers. We are not prepared to believe this pompous and dictatorial assertion, for the Secretary's action in the painters' case indicates that unions will be heard."

He concluded with the statement that "though industrial mismanagement has thrust a terrible burden" upon the wage earners, "there can be impositions which they will refuse to stand. Sometimes even more suffering is better than more injustice."

9 STATES WILL SEND FIREMEN FOR SHARE IN LABOR DAY MARCH

5,000 Men Will Take Part in Pennsylvania Avenue Morning Parade.

CAPITAL HERO MEDALS WILL BE DISTRIBUTED

Annual Baseball Game With Police to Be Played at League Park.

A day crowded with interesting events is promised thousands of visitors expected here Labor Day to attend the ninth firemen's national annual parade and celebration.

Program will start at 10:30 a. m. with one of the most pretentious and colorful parades Pennsylvania avenue has ever seen, with 5,000 volunteer firemen from nine States with many floats and bands. Last year only six States participated.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon medals of honor will be awarded to heroes of the Capital Police and Fire Departments for outstanding deeds of bravery in the last year. These awards will be made at the American League Baseball park.

A band and drum corps contest will be held on the Ellipse at 3 p. m. At 3:30 o'clock the annual baseball game between teams of the Fire and Police Departments of Washington will start at American League park. Proceeds from this game will be divided between the benefit associations of the two departments.

Prizes to Be Awarded.

At 7:30 o'clock in the evening prizes will be awarded on the Ellipse to winners of the day's events and 21 aerial bombs will be fired as a final salute.

The Washington Board of Trade has donated prizes for winners of the day's events and it was also with its aid that the Fire Department was able to extend invitations to more States this year than last.

Following are some of the fire departments to be represented:

Darby Fire Co., No. 1, from Darby, Pa., bringing 70 men and a band and an old type chemical pumper known as the "Darby Ram," with a live ram as mascot.

West Side Hose Co., from Red Bank, N. J.; its section of the parade will comprise a "Miracle of France" pumper, 50 men and a band.

New York to Be Represented.

Hunter Hook and Ladder Co., Penn Yan, N. Y., 25 men and a band.

Hawthorne Fire Department, Hawthorne, N. J., 40 men and a band.

Red Hill Fire Co., No. 1, Red Hill, Pa., 100 men and a 100-piece band.

Good Will Hose Co., Pottsville, Pa., 50 men and fife and drum corps.

The most interesting unit in the parade for Washingtonians will be the Veteran's Volunteer Firemens' Association of Oldest Inhabitants. An old hand pump built in 1850 will be drawn up the avenue by 30 members of the association, dressed in full regalia.

Radio Station WJSV will broadcast reports of the parade and the ball game and Station WMAL will broadcast the award of the medals.

According to Sergt. A. J. Bargagni, of the Firemen's Training School, who will be marshal of the parade, several governors are expected to attend the Labor Day celebration.

THE ONCE OVER

By H. I. PHILLIPS

THE PRIVACY OF CALVIN COOLIDGE.

6 A. M.—The former President is awakened by the tooting of summer tourists getting an early start home after an overnight stop at Plymouth.

6:30—He hears a strange noise downstairs, and, investigating, finds several strangers chopping chips out of the porch for souvenirs.

7 a. m.—He opens front door to let out the chow and is startled by cries of "Hold it!" by an army of amateur photographers who have been hiding in the front yard for just such a snapshot.

8 a. m.—The former President takes a walk around the yard and causes an immediate traffic tie-up as scores of tourists jam on the brakes and exclaim: "There he is, Emma!" "Yep, that's him. He sure is a plain looker, ain't he, Willard?" "I think he's put on a little weight since he turned newspaperman." "Wouldn't you think he'd cut out those high collars in August?" &c., &c.

9 a. m.—The letter carrier delivers a couple of post cards, and, as Mr. Coolidge takes them, three groups of school teachers, four platoons of visiting Rotarians and a various assortment of dusty strangers swing into action again with their cameras. In the confusion an Elk from Sioux City socks a retired pothook manufacturer of Bangor, Me., in the eye for stepping in front of the President just as he snapped the shutter.

9:30 a. m.—The main street of Plymouth now begins to jell up with new arrivals from all points. The procession is slowed up considerably by a fake declaration by a Cape Cod tourist in a linen suit that he has just seen the former President enter a barber shop. Before it is established that the barber shop patron is a buggy striper named Ed Hofacker, traffic has been at a standstill for a half hour. Traffic is moved again through a report that Calvin Coolidge has just entered the general store and is buying a pound of butter.

10 A. M.—Mr. Coolidge would like to walk over to the center of the village, but can't get across the street, due to the rush of tourists driving to the cheese factory. They really don't want any cheese, but think that because of its adjacency to the Coolidge home they may get a better view of Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge.

Noon.—He reached the store pretty worn and spent as a result of a struggle with autograph hunters, bugs who insist they were original Coolidge men, women who chirp "three cheers for the next President," and a couple of fellows who want to sell him a bird dog.

1 p. m.—The general store reports the biggest tourist trade of the week and expresses regret that Calvin doesn't stay longer to hold the customers. Mr. Coolidge has a rather tough time leaving at that, and has to delay his return a half hour in order to pose, sitting on the store steps, for the rotogravure sections of 300 Sunday newspapers.

2 P. M.—Calvin decides to take a nap. Just as he settles down a head protrudes from under the sofa and the fellow announces that as the representative of three news syndicates he has been hiding there twelve hours in order to reach him for an exclusive interview on whether he would accept another term in the White House or PREFERS HIS PRESENT PRIVACY?

Won Over.

I once had a hatred of make-up
So hot that I loudly would shout it;
It's gone since I saw my bride wake up
This morning—Great Heavens!—without it!

BOY, 3, HURT IN FALL FROM SECOND STORY

X-Ray to Be Used Following Child's Tumble From Fire Escape.

Three-year-old Raymond Bosh was seriously injured late yesterday when he fell from a second-story fire escape of a building near his house at 486 F street southwest. X-ray photographs will determine whether the child suffered a fracture of the skull.

The boy was taken to Emergency Hospital in a passing car and treated by Dr. Charles McNamara and Dr. Thomas Mattingly. His condition was pronounced critical.

Raymond had been playing with a group of children in front of the apartment house at 490 F street when he deserted them and toddled to the rear of the building. Unseen by his playmates, he climbed the fire escape and toppled off a few minutes later.

Dorothy Donaldson, his 4-year-old chum, who lives in the house, found the boy's bleeding form. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bosh, the child's parents, took him to the hospital.

Howard Harris, 8, received a slight concussion of the brain yesterday morning when he fell about 5 feet from a bedroom window in his home at 2140 N street northwest. He was found lying on the grass by his mother, Mrs. Georgia Harris, who summoned an Emergency Hospital ambulance.

Man's Bond $1,000 In 2 Police Counts

Demanding a jury trial on charges of assault and carrying a deadly weapon, Fred L. Gonzales, colored, was held under $1,000 bond for action of the grand jury when he was arraigned in Police Court yesterday.

Gonzales was arrested by Policeman Earl Baker, of the Second Precinct, who said that a group of Negroes attacked him at Eighth street and Florida avenue northwest and that he arrested Gonzales only after he had drawn his police revolver.

Baker, hero of two police dramas, in one of which he arrested a madcap suitor who had imprisoned a girl in a room and was threatening to kill her, and another in which he leaped from a speeding police auto to tackle a colored man who was attempting to escape, said that eight colored men attacked him when he ordered them to disperse. Gonzales dropped a revolver from his pocket while Baker was wrestling with him, and this led to the concealed weapon charge.

Wheelbarrow's Lurch Sends Man to Death

Alex Tolson, 17-year-old colored laborer on a barge, fell into the Potomac River yesterday morning while he was loading rock by wheelbarrow and was drowned. The accident occured when the wheelbarrow he was pushing up a gangplank struck an obstruction and caused him to lose his balance. His body was recovered after about 20 minutes.

A bruise on the victim's head indicated that he struck an object and was stunned when his body hit the water. The barge was on the Virginia side and east of Chain Bridge. Tolson lived in Westmoreland County, Va.

RAY ARNOLD'S WILL CUTS OFF HIS WIDOW

No Provision Made for Her by Millionaire She Was Seeking to Divorce.

"For reasons best known to myself I have not seen fit to make provisions for my wife, Bessie E. Arnold."

In those curt words, Ray Horton Arnold, stock broker of Washington and Los Angeles, Calif., excluded from any portion of his $2,500,000 estate his estranged wife, who was awaiting a rehearing of her suit for divorce in New York when her wealthy husband died in California.

Arnold had filed suit for divorce in Reno, Nev., August 12, and on August 19 he died at Los Angeles. He provides a fund of $30,000 to be paid his daughter, Raella H. Arnold, when she reaches 30 years of age. Should she die before reaching that age, the money is to go to Mrs. Bernice A. Monks, of Los Angeles, another daughter.

All the remainder of the estate is to be devised to Howard L. Monks, son-in-law, and his wife, and the National Savings & Trust Co. to hold in trust for five years for the benefit of Mrs. Monks. After five years she is to receive the entire estate. The will was filed here through Attorney E. P. Morey, who explained that the whole proceedings may have to be transferred to California for administration.

Boy, 12, Disappears Going to Barber Shop

The boy's mother, Mrs. Fannie Lutshy, told police that her son had left home to go to a barber ship nearby. Occupants of the shop said that the boy failed to appear there.

Post Aids Search For Lost Relative

Vienna Man's Half-Sister, Lost Five Years, May Live in Capital.

Anxious to locate a half-sister he has not heard from for five years, George M. Langfitt, of Vienna, Va., yesterday appealed to The Post to aid him in his search, believing she has made her home either in Washington or Philadelphia since she left Cambridge, Md., several years ago.

The name of the woman before her marriage was Miss Rosa Langfitt, according to the half-brother, who said she subsequently married a William Trigger or Tregoe. They are believed to have had five children, three daughters and two sons.

Mr. Langfitt heard that his half-sister, who is his nearest relation, was separated from her husband some years ago and now goes under her maiden name, making her home with one of her married daughters. She is 67 or 68 years old, rather tall, and had red hair

USE BY COMMUNITY AS UNIFYING AGENCY URGED FOR SCHOOLS

Character Education Report Says Home and Society Need Correlation.

COMMITTEE IS HEADED BY POWELL PRINCIPAL

Study Holds Children Must Gain Understanding of Social Ideals.

Use of the schools as a directing and coordinating agency, unifying the work of the home, school and community, was recommended to the Board of Education yesterday in a preliminary report by the board's teacher and officer committee on character education.

The committee, headed by Miss Bertie Backus, principal of Powell Junior High School, was named two years ago after the board asked Superintendent of Schools Frank W. Ballou to recommend a definite program of character education.

"The school," it reported, "can provide an environment in which the instincts, habits, traditions and ideals that make for social progress find the soil and cultivation that promote growth, while the instincts, habits, traditions, and ideals that are antisocial are weeded out and die for lack of nourishment.

Ideals Should Be Taught.

"The school can and should give the child an understanding of the ideals and standards that society has found valuable in promoting the welfare of the race.

"The school can set up situations for the practice of ideals and standards in a natural setting for boys and girls."

The committee suggested three steps in effecting better character training for children.

"First, we need clarified thinking and experimentation as to the meaning of character and the most successful ways of developing it.

"Second, each agency must study its own problems, its underlying principles, its organization, its opportunities for increasing its effectiveness in the development of the character of its members.

Correlation Program Needed.

"Third, there must be some program for correlating the work of all institutions and agencies that affect the growth of children."

"In our complex civilization," concluded the committee, "there must be some directing and coordinating agency if we are to unify and conserve the work of home, school and community. The school is the logical leader, since it works with all the children of the people. We suggest, therefore, that there be further study along these lines."

Gas Overcomes 5-Year-Old With Parents Sitting By

Five-year-old Steven Stanley was supposed to be sleeping in the kitchen of his home at 414 H street yesterday when he abruptly complained to his parents, who were seated near him, that he had cut his hand.

"I looked at his hand and it wasn't cut at all," Lee Stanley, the boy's father, said later. "Just then he fell over."

The fire rescue squad was summoned, and firemen discovered that the child had been overcome by gas fumes escaping from a burner in the kitchen range. Neither the parents nor Gus, an older son, were aware of the escaping gas, nor were they affected, although Mrs. Stanley had complained earlier of a headache.

Steve was revived and his condition pronounced not serious. It was probably he who turned on the burner while playing around the stove, his mother declared.

Wreckers Again Offer Cash To Obtain Demolition Jobs

Several wrecking contractors again offered to pay the District government for the privilege of razing certain buildings when bids were opened yesterday afternoon by Roland M. Brennan, chief clerk of the engineering department.

The Hechinger Engineering Corporation submitted the best bid on the demolition of certain buildings for an addition to the Giddings School. The estimate was an offer to pay the District government $157.50. Another contractor asked to be paid $4,500 for the job. There were nine bidders.

Only one of seven bidders offered to pay for the job of razing property adjacent to the Harrison School. Max Bregman said he would pay $5. Another bidder wanted $2,000.
